WATCH LABEL ON TOUR

THE COUNTY, THE STATE, THE UNION LOUISBURG, N. C., FRIDAY, MAY 22, 1925

SUBSCRIPTION $1.50 Per Year

NI MBER 14

VOLUMN LIV.

PROPOSE DEDICA-TION SERVICE

For Louisburg School Building

And Name It "William Robert Mills School" In Honor Present Superintendent Who Has Been With It For

Louisburg Kiwanis Club enjoyed a most delightful luncheon at Franklin Hotel on last Friday night. The meet-ing was presided over by Vice-President Harry H. Johnson and A. W. Person had charge of the evenings program. This being the meeting previous to the election held the next day for the Graded School mainten-ance the program hinged around the importance of getting the votes out and carrying the election by the bigand carrying the election by the big-gest majority possible. Among those speaking on the subject were W. H. Yarborough, G. M. Beam, B. T. Hold-en, E. H. Malone, A. F. Johnson, W. H. Ruffin, E. L. Best and Rev. J. D.

After the completion of the regular program Will Yarborough proposed the following resilutions which was unanimously carried: Whereas: The campaign for the increase of our tax levy for the Graded School has been brought to a successive close, thus insuring proper primary education for the children of Leuisburg and the outlying school

Whereas: This success is a graphevidence of the interest of the pub-: large in the welfare of its pro-

Whereas: Through the devotion of William Robert Mills, active head of the Graded School, to the great cause of education and his un-tiring efforts in behalf of the boys and girls of the Louisburg School Dis-trict for the past two decades, the present splendid system of public edacation has been nurtured and is now a source of pride to the residents of our city;

Be It Therefore Resolved by The Kiwanis Club of Louisburg in Regular Meeting Assembled May 15, 1925: That the Board of Trustees of the Louisburg Graded School be respectfully requested to have, during the ensuing Commencement Ceremonies, suitable dedicatory exercises, officially pre-senting the magnificent new building which now stands in the Old Academy Grove to the children of the Louis-burg District and as an evidence of love and esteem from the people of Building—Q. S. Leonard, chairman, the District for the head of this institution, that the Board of Trustees is motion of Dr. Flacing prevaled. of the Louisburg Graded School offic-ially proclaim that this school be hereafter named "The William Robert Mills School.'

A violin solo by Bruce Berkeley, accompanied by Mrs. Berkeley on the plano added much to the enjoyment

RECORDER'S COURT

July Seven Cases Before Judge Ream Monday.

The Recorder's Court docket Mon day was rather light as compared vith former terms, containing only seven cases. Judge Beam disposed of the docket as follows:

State vs Judge Perry, val, not guilty, prosecuting witness to pay costs. State vs Robert Perry, trespass, noi

State vs Jock Johnson, distilling guilty, 12 months on roads, upon pay ment of fine of $25.00 and costs, execution not to issue until farther orcers of the Court. State vs George Johnson, distilling, guilty, 12 months on roads, upon payment of fine of $25.00 and costs execution not to issue until further orders of the Court.

issue until further orders of the Court. State vs Edgar Perry, ccw, vpl, pleads guilty vpl, not guilty as to ccw, D., New York City. Conferring 12 months on roads, upon payment of Dogrees costs execution not to issue until fur. It wil

ther orders of the Court. LEONARD-HARRIS

Invitations reading as follows have been issued:

- "Mr. and Mrs. Omega Harvel Harris - "Mr. and Mrs. Omega Harvel Harris request the honour of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Alice Evans to Mr. Walter Dalton Leonard on Wednesday evening, the tenth of June, at six o'clock, Methotenth o'

No invitations will be distributed to Iver.

No invitations will be distributed to friends in town.

The bride is one of Louisburg's most attractive and popular young ladies being a favorite among her host of friends and is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Harris, one of Louisburg's most successful business men and planters.

The groom-to-be is one of Louisburg's most successful young business men and planters.

The groom-to-be is one of Louisburg's most successful young business men and planters.

Sunday, 16 a. m., Church Discipline, led by Rev. J. R. Everett.

12:30, Recess for dinner.

2 p. m., The Other Things, Matt. 2820, led by Rev. E. C. Sexton.

3 p. m., Religious Literature, led by Rev. N. F. Britt.

8 p. m., B. Y. P. U. led by Cedar Rock B. Y. P. U.

The groom-to-be is one of Louis-burg's most successful young busi-ness men, succeeding F. A. Riff Jewelry Co., and is popular with a large number of friends.

The popularity of this young cou-tle will create much interest in the coming nuptials.

A. W. PERSON MAYOR PRO TEM

Williamson Appoints Various Committees

k. H. Meadows, C. E. Pace, Herman Murphy, Theo. Hassell and O. C. Hill Re-appointed To Their Several Thursday Night Last Week.

The Board of Commissioners for the Town of Louisburg held their first regular meeting on Thursday night of last week. All members were pres-ent, with Mayor Williamson presiding and business was transacted as follows:

B. T. Holden was elected town Attorney at a retainer of $100.00 year.

Hassell was re-appointed Clerk for the ensuing term at a salary of $150.00 per month. His bond was increased from $3,000.00 to $5,000.00. M. S. Clifton was re-appointed Treasurer for the town for ensuing term at a salary of $200.00 per year and required to give a $10,000.00 bond. B. H. Meadows was re-appointed Chief of Police at a salary of $100.00 per month, he to collect taxes together with such other duties as the Board may direct. Provided the contract may terminate by giving 30 days notice by either party. C. E. Pace and Herman Murphy were re-appointed Keeper of Fire Station and Policeman respectively at salaries of $125.00 and $75.00 per month respectively. The contracts may be terminated by thirty days notice by either party.

O. C. Hill was re-appointed Super-intndent of Light and Water Works for the ensuing term at a salary of $200.00 per month.

A. W. Person was appointed purchasing agent for the town.

The Board authorized Mayor Williamson to select and appoint a Mayor pro tem and the various committees. A. W. Person was appointed Mayor pro tem.

The following committees were appointed by Mayor Williamson: Lights and Water—P. S. Allen, chair man, J. S. Howell, Mc. M. Furgurson.

Streets—A. W. Person, chairn Q. S. Leonard, Dr. A. H. Fleming. chairman, Finance—Mc. M. Furgurson, chairman, A. W. Person, Q. S. Leonard, Ordinance—J. S. Howell, chairman, P. S. Allen, A. W. Person.
Auditing—Dr. A. H. Fleming, chairman, Mc. M. Furgurson, A. W. Person

instructit & the fown's Attorney to preor e and present to ", Coard at its next meeting ce three plans whereby ager tasis Upon motion it was unanimously carried that Chief of Police B. H. Meadows and his cohorts confine their activities exclusively within the corporate limits of the town.

No further business being before the Board adjournment was taken.

MEREDITH COMMENCEMENT

Invitations reading as follows have been received by friends in Louisburg: The Class of nineteen hundred and twenty-five Meredith College request the honour of your presence at the Commencement Exercises May twenty-ninth to June second

Raleigh, North Carolina. Enclosed are cards bearing the folowing program: Friday, May 29, 8 p. m.—Senior Play

Saturday, May 30, 8 p. m.-Society

Sunday, May 31, 11 a. m.—Bacca-laureate Sermon, Carter Helm Jones, State vs Joe Johnson, distilling, D D., Atlanta, Ga. 8 p. m.—Mission-guilty, 12 months on roads, upon payary Sermon, Carter Helm Jones, D. D., ment of fine of $25.00 and costs execution not to issue until further orders of the Court.

State vs Johnnie West, 1 and r, pleads guilty, 12 months on roads, upon payment of costs execution not to Tuesday, June 2, 10:30 a. m.—Communication of the Court.

Monday, June 1, 10:30 a. m.—Alumnae Association. 4 p. m.—Art Exhibits. 5 p. m.—Class Day. 8:30 p. m.—Class Day. 8:30 p. m.—Tuesday, June 2, 10:30 a. m.—Communication of the Court.

mencement Exercises--Literary Address, Cornelius Woelfkin, D D., L. L.

It will be interesting to people of Franklin County to note the following names of Franklin County young ladies among the graduates: Misses Catherine Wilder Bobbitt, Lucretia Webb Dean, Annie Fleming Harris.

Sunday, 10 a. m., The Sunday school and its work, led by Rev. J. H. Har-11 a. m., Sermon, by Rev.

Subscribe to The Franklia Times

ROLLS UP BIG MAJORITY OBSERVE MEMORIAL

For Special School Election in Louisburg

Litection Carried Before Ten O'clock-427 Voted For the Special Tax and 73 Against—555 Registered.

The election held in Louisburg on Positions—Organization Completed Saturday for the purpose of authorizing a special tax of 21 2-3 cents on the $100 worth of property was carried by a coverwhelming majority. The many friends of the school were active ear-the day to the cause and a total of which to hold suitable exercises that Methodist church. He was a most five hundred votes out of a total registration of 555 were cast, four hund- Therefore the regular memorial exred and twenty-seven of these were ercises this year will be held on Sun-cast in favor of this issue. Only 73 day afternoon, May 31st, at 3 o'clock conducted from the Methodist church votes were actually cast against the This hour will give all an opportunity issue.

It was the pleasure of Mr. W. H.

The large majority and the enthusargument of many that Louisburg on the contrary shows that they are committees in keeping with the gen-

LOUISBURG COLLEGE COMMENCE-

The following invitations and anouncements have been mailed:

The Class of nineteen hundred and twenty-five Louisburg College requests the honour of your presence at the Commencement Exercises twenty-fourth to twenty-seventh Louisburg, North Carolina.

Program Saturday, May 23 8:00 P. M.—Alumnae Banquet.

Sunday, May 24 11:00 A. M.-Baccalaureate Sermon. Rev. J. M. Ormond, Duke University. 8:00 P. M.—Sermon before Y. W. C. A., Rev. J. M. Ormond.

Monday May 25 3:00 P. M.—Junior Concert. 8:00 P. M.-Annual Concert. Tuesday, May 26 M.—Class Day Program

8:00 P. M.-Play, School of Expression. Wednesday, May 27 10:00 A. M.-Graduation Exercises

Address, Hon. Josephus Daniels, Raleigh, N. C. Presentation of Diplomas and Bibles.

5 to 6 o'clock each day Art Exhibit, in Studio. Domestic Art Exhibit, Room 21. You are cordially invited.

CONFEDERATE MEMORIAL HALF DOLLARS HERE

The first consignment of Confeder-Memorial Half Dollars, minted by today by M. S. Clifton, Cashier.

have the opportunity of making sure meaning of Debussy's loveliest "Ara-of obtaining some of these coveted besque." But it was in the extremely Memorial coins on their national disc half dollars on July 3rd

Memorial coins are available to the tion, and depth of feeling that char-entire. South at this time, the South-ern Bankers' Committee, arranging Miss Huggins is to be congratulated details of their distribution has allocated only a limited number to each pleasure. The first group of songs city and county in the various South- was given with the same lyric sweetern states. Once these quotas are ness and power which always charac-exhausted no further coins are obtainable.

'The issuance of these commemorative coins by the National Government is an event of the greatest significance informal reception was held in the soto the South. It is a gesture of frighting in the south will spontaneously Chief, received their friends. Punch

"Not only do these coins, have a high sentimental value through this national recognition of our Southern heroes, but they also possess an ad-ditional worth since the modest premtum at which the coins are sold goes to the completion of the great monu-ment to the Confederacy being carved at Stone Mountain, Georgia."

MISS BODDIE ENTERTAINS FOR BRIDE

Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Miss Annie Willis Boddie gave a delightful bridge party in honor of Mrs. Harrell Lewis, a popular young bride. Several games of bridge were played after which a delicious salad course, iced tea and mints were served. Mrs. Lewis, a popular young bride. Several games of bridge were played after which a delicious salad course, iced tea and mints were served. Mrs. Lewis a lit published in an early issue of The large pink and white baskes full of lovely gifts. Among them the ever lovely gifts. Among them the ever lecture and those whose were unable to attend the Clinic.

J. E. Nelms, of Hickory Rock, rejected to Mrs. Lewis a lit published in an early issue of The large pink and white baskes full of lovely gifts. Among them the ever lecture and those whose were unable to attend the Clinic.

The Woman's Club desires to thank ports the twenty-fourth nitrate of the doctors from Raleigh, our home

DAY SUNDAY, MAY 31

Committee Arranging Program-Same Outline as Last Year To Be Used-Be Published Next Week.

in the Franklin Memorial Association ular Clerk of the Court for many met in Louisburg on Wednesday af- years, and also a brother to Mr. E. C termoon and after a discussion of the Barrow, of Greensboro. He is It in the day and as a result before plans for Memorial Day exercise it vived by his mother and one brother, 10 o'clock the election was carried in favor of the special tux.

The voters all rallied all through that is such an inconvenient day upon his age, and was a member of the to attend.

Ruffin, a former member of the Board of Schools, of New Hanover County, bers of friends of the family attended of School Trustees, to cast the vote Fresident of the North Carolina Teach-that made the majority—vote number ers Association, and a son of the late was profuse and beautiful ers Association, and a son of the late John Graham, of Warrenton, has consented to be present on that date and

Committee on Arrangments was determined that their children must have the very best school advantages shape for publication. The complete program together with committees and routes for decorating the graves will be announced next veek.

It is expected that a large crowd will be present and care part in the exercises.

MRS. O. C. HILL ENTERTAINS CHURCH CIRCLE

Mrs. O. C. Hill assisted by Mrs. Harvey Buchanan delightfully entertained Circle No. 9 at her home on Main Street, Monday evening, May 18. In spite of a heavy rain there was large number in attendance.

prayer. Miss Katle Richardson sang "Roses of Picardy" which was followed by a piano solo by Miss Susie Crowell. After the roll call by the two cap-

After the program an ice course was served by the hostess.

PIANO RECITAL

Tuesday evening, May 19, in the College Music Hall, Miss Josephine Leonard presented Miss Vera Camp-bell in a graduating piane recital.

Throughout the entire programme, and to Miss Tom Ogburn, holder of the highest score a box of powder. and fine interpretive value, the basis ot which is natural artistic sense. In the Beethoven, she excelled in the the United States Government as a varied rendition of the three difficult "tribute to the valor of the Soldier of movements. Her absolute command the South," which are to be simultaneously released throughout the nation on July 3rd, has been received by has so strangely woven the dignity of the solution on July 3rd, has been received by has so strangely woven the dignity of 1925.

The waiting room was full before "Citizens of Franklin County now brought out all the poetry and deeper lack of time. tribution July 3rd," said Mr. Clifton, bell played most brilliantly especially the rooms for the Clinic. "by immediately purchasing coin certioward the close where unfurried, stificates, redeemable for the actual and with perfect command, she executed the command of the comma cuted the climax of her programme "As less than two million of the with the same poise, nice interpreta-on her contribution to the evening's terpretation of the last group added much to the value of her performance.

was served, and a very delightful bour tions and the lecture. was enjoyed.

MISS TURNER ENTERTAINS

Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Miss Margaret Turner charmingly en- erage life. tertained at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mrs. Harrell Lewis, a recent bride. After several hands of bridge had been played, a delicious salad course and iced tea were serv-

Lewis was presented with the guest prize—a beautiful piece of lingerie, and Miss Pattie Plummer Macon with the highest score prize, a box of canday.

J. E. Nelms, of Hickory Rock, Feports the twenty-fourth nitrate of soda crusher made in Franklin Country. He and his neighbor, R. P. Neal, made it as partners and are well pleased with it.

W. J. BARROW DEAD ...

(10 PAGES THIS WEEK)

A telegram was received in Louis Maj. W. A. Graham To Speak of Mr W. J. Barrow at Maegill Sanitorium in Greensboro at 3:15 o'clock that afternoon. Mr. Barrow was the son of the late J. S. Barrow and was raised in and lived at Louisburg un-Program Committees and Routes To til a few years ago when he was engaged in the wholesale business Wake Forest and other points. He was a brother to the late Joseph J. Bar-The officers and others interested row, who was Franklin County's pop-

The remains were brought to Louis at 4 o'clock by Revs. O. W. Dowd and E. H. Davis and the interment made Maj. W. A. Graham, Superintendent at Oaklawn cemetery. Large num-

The pall bearers were J. H. Best. E. L. Best, E. H. Malone, H. E. Hight, iastic interest shown in the school make the address.

Saturday completely eliminates the Mr. W. H. Ruffin, Chairman of the L. E. Scoggin, B. N. Williamson.

The bereaved relatives have the people were against good schools, but structed to rebuild the program and deepest sympathy of this community.

CAPTURES STILL AND THREE MEN

Officers J. A. Bledsoe, D. E. Cone and W. A. Bledsoe report the capture of a 70 gallon copper still outfit on the farm of Judge G. M. Beam uear Allen's Chapel on Thursday night of last week. They also destroyed four gallons of whiskey and caught three negroes—George Johnson, Joe Johnson and Jock Johnson.

MRS. J. M. ALLEN HONORS MRS. HARRELL LEWIS

Saturday night at 8 o'clock, Mrs. J.

M. Allen entertained at her beautiful home on Main Street in honor of Mrs. Sallie Betts was taken from the 6th were met at the door by Miss Louise chapter of Matthew after which Rev. Joyner and Miss Lucy Clifton Bodd.

J. C. Williams led in an investment of Matthew after which Rev. made beautiful with cut flowers lighted pink candles. Here Misses Margaret Turner, Elizabeth Clitton. Jessie Elmore and Max Allen serted punch. Miss Anna Fuller Parham were read and approved. Rev. J. C. guests into the parlor and introduced guests into the parlor and introduced afternoon, them to the receiving line which was Miss Katie Richardson assisted by Miss Crowell at the piano, then sang Willis Boddie. At the end of the receiving line which was enjoyed by all. arranged basket of flowers. Several interesting games of bridge were play ed, after which a delicious ice course and mints were served. Miss Beatrice Turner then entered bearing a large corsage of sweetpeas from which dangled many pink streamers. At the end of each stream a dainty handkerbell in a graduating piano recital.

Miss Campbell was assisted by Miss Elizabeth Huggins, Soprano, student With Mrs. A. W. Mohn.

Throughout the control of presented a pair of white silk hose, and to Miss Tom Ogburn, holder of

WOMAN'S CLUB BABY CLINC

Babies, more babies, and better babies accompanied by their parents, attended the Clinic held at the Womaccording to an announcement made Her tone work in the "Romance" was the Clinic opened and there were basingularly true and effective and she bies who could not be examined for

> A committee from the Woman's club with Mrs. G. W. Cobb as chairman, procured the equipment and prepared

> Dr. Aldert S. Root, the famous baby specialist, of Raleigh, and Dr. M. L. Townsend, of the N. C. Health Department had charge of the Clinic but they and the club appreciated the Mterest and co-operation of the doctors > of Louisburg. Fifty babies were registered and examined. The doctors were assist-ed by two of our club members, who are registered nurses, Mrs. H. G. Per> ry and Mrs. G. E. Root.

> The Methodist Sunday School rooms were filled with parents, grandparents, friends and Miss Fisher's class in dietetics, from the Louisburg High School, before the last babies were examined, so Dr. Root had no time for rest between the examina-

> Dr. H. H. Johnson introduced Dr Townsend, who spoke on the progress North Carolina has made in the line of health and how we have lowered the death rate and prolonged the av-

Dr. Townsend introduced Dr. Root. who spoke on diet, feeding and gener-

One of our members, Mrs. Hugh W. Perry, took down in short hand, for ed. As the guests were preparing to leave a loud knock sounded at the door and Miss Frances Turner entered and presented to Mrs. Lewis a it published in an early issue of The

SOME YOU KNOW AND SOME YOU DO NOT KNOW.

Personal Items About Folks And Their Friends Who Travel Here

Mr. J. H. Boone visited Buckhorn

Misses Tom and Dick Ogburn, were

Ex-Judge E. W. Timberlake, Wake Forest, was a visitor to Louisburg this week.

Soldiers for Dallas, Texas.

Rev. J. A. McIver returned Friday from Texas, where he has been as-

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson, of Win-terville, visited their daughter, Mrs. R. W. Smithwick, the past week.

bride, of Southport, are spending the week with Mrs. Lewis' parents, Capt. and Mrs. L. L. Joyner. Miss Eddie Coleman, of Orangeburg, Rev. and Mrs. W. G. McFarland, of Oak Ridge, and Miss Lucy Smithwick, of Greensboro, are visiting their par-

GETS TWO 50 GALLON STILLS

Constable J. A. Bledsoe assisted by

Sheriff F. W. Justice, Constable J. A. Bledsoe, Messrs. J. E. Thomas, W. A. Bledsoe and J. S. Howell, captured 50 gallon all copper still outfit in Cedar Rock township on Waducsday

"Planning the Home for Comfort and Beauty" is the subject of an ad-dress to be given by Mrs. Jane S. Mc-Kimmon, State Home Demonstration Agent, on Tuesday, May 26th, in the Sunday School auditorium of the Louisburg Baptist Church. This is to be a joint meeting of the town and

Thursday night at 8 o'clock. John King and Mrs. James B. King entertained at the home of the latter in honor of Mrs. Harrell Julian Lewis, After several spirited games of bridge a lovely ice course was served, fol-lowed by salted nuts. At the conclusion of refreshments little Bob Elmore entered wearing the black cassock and white surplice of an Episcopal minister-a delicate tribute groom. He carried a large box of towels which, with an appropriate verse, he presented to the bride. Those present were: Mrs. Harrell Lewis, Misses Lucy Perry Burt, Alice Harris, Annie Perry Neal, Fanny Neal, Jessie Elmore, Annie Willis Boddie, Margar-et Turner, Pattie Plummer Macon, Louise Joyner, Dick Ogburn, Lucy Al-len, Mildred Scott, Lucy Clifton Bod-die, Max Allen, Elizabeth Clifton and

MRS. B. B. PERRY ENTERTAINS FOR MRS. HARRELL LEWIS

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. B. B. Perry gave a delightful miscellaneous show-er in honor of Mrs. Harrell Lewis. After several games of bridge, ice cream and cake and mints were served. Miss Beatrice Turner then presented Mrs. Lewis with a large box of interesting packages, and, in a beau-tiful little verse, expressed the thoughts and wishes of the friends from whom they came. Miss Annie Willis Boddie was presented with the top score prize—a bottle of toilet water. Mrs. Perry's guests were: Mrs. Harrell Lewis, Misses Pattie Plummer Macon, Eleanor Perry, Elizabeth Clifton, Lucy Clifton Boddie, Max Allen, Louise Joyner, Jessie Elmore, Annie Willis Boddie, Dick Ogburn, Margaret Tunner, Lucy Perry Burt, Lucy garet Turner, Lucy Perry Burt, Lucy Allen, Elizabeth Timberlake. Kitty Boddie, Annie Perry Neal and Louise Egerton.

enterwis a it published in an early issue of The rull of ever lever le

AMONG THE VISITORS

And There.

esterday.

isitors to LaCross, Va., Sunday.

Wrs. R. H. Ogburn was among those tho left Saturday with the the Old Messrs. W. M. Person, W. A. Jones and G. C. Harris attended the Co-op ceeting in Raleigh Tuesday.

sisting in a revival meeting.

Rev. Harrell Julian Lewis and

S. C., was the week-end guest of Miss Marie Meade. She was accompanied home Monday by Miss Meade.

ents, Dr. and Mrs. D. T. Smithwick

Messrs. D. E. Cone and W. A. Bledsoe report the capture of a 50 gallon copper still outfit about one-half mite west of Bunn on Wednesday night, and destroyed a lot of beer and about a gallon of whiskey. The plant was running in full blast.

MRS. McKIMMON TO BE IN LOUIS-BURG

rural women of the county. Every-body is cordially invited.

MRS. JAMES KING ENTERTAINS FOR BRIDE