COULD YOU TELL THEM APART

Suppose the next time you came in the store I put two diamonds in front of you of exactly the same weight—and I tell you that one is worth $175 and the other $250, do you think you can tell which is which?

Try it. Most people, except diamond experts, guess wrong; for after all it's only a guess.

Now I'm not knocking—'cause knocking never got anyone anywhere—but what chance has the average person of knowing how good or how poor a stone he's getting when he buys by mail?

It's mostly a gamble. But I know you and you know me.

If I tell you a diamond is worth a certain price, I'd be "In Dutch" with you good and quick if it turned out that I had not told you the truth.

I'm here, all the time, right where you can find me. I've big stocks with mighty fine assortments; and my prices are as low as any you will find.

What's more, the money you spend with me stays right here in town, and helps to make the town a bigger, better place for all of us.

Sincerely yours,

A Talk With a Louisburg Man

Mr. Cranford Tells Something of Interest to Louisburg Folks.

There's nothing more convincing than the statement of someone you know and have confidence in. That's why this talk with Mr. Cranford of Church Street, should be mighty helpful here in Louisburg.

H. P. Cranford, garage foreman, Church Street, says: "For spells my kidneys almost failed to act. My back nearly killed me with pain and I couldn't turn in bed without sharp pain stabbing me. It was almost impossible to bend, and mornings my back was sore and stiff. I used Doan's Pills and I haven't had a spell with my kidneys since."

Get Doan's at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy. Doan's Pills—the same that Cranford had. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.
