NON-MEMBERS ASK CHANCE TO SIGN

First Advance By Co-ops Almost Stops Another "Steal" of Crop.

(S. D. Friswell)

Delivery of more than a million pounds of tobacco to cooperative warehouses in the South Carolina belt during the first few days after the season's opening met a cash advance of sixty-five per cent of bankers' valuation on the 1925 crop and the result is that hundreds of non-members are appealing to the association for an opportunity to "sign-up" before they put any more of the weed on the market.

Turning of tags on several auction floors during the past week was almost epidemic. The boasted average on the auction floors during the first three days the markets were opened has dwindled three to four cents in the light of figures compiled by warehousemen and made public in the Monday papers.

It is not, however, the purpose of the association at this time to re-open the books. As is now generally known, the tenant farmer is enabled to deliver his tobacco to the association under the provisions of the landlord's contract. This procedure has been followed more during the opening days of the season than ever before in the history of the association.

Summing up the situation in the South Carolina belt a few days after the markets had opened, the Florence (S. C.) News-Review had the following to say:

One of the most encouraging features of the opening of the South Carolina tobacco market was the strong pace set by the cooperative marketing association. In advancing to members 65 per cent UPON THE BASIS OF PRICES EQUALLY AS HIGH AS LAST YEAR, the association threw a bomb-shell into the tobacco camp. It was hailed with delight by members of the association and received as an indication of the strength of the organization.

The significant thing about the high advance made possible this year to Richmond, Margaret Ellington, Elizabeth, of the degree of confidence which the Federal government and the great financial institutions have in the tobacco association. The sixty-five per cent advance is the highest ever made by an agency of the government in assisting to finance the marketing of a crop of tobacco.

Striking, also, is the readily perceptible increase in the amount of the advance made on all grades of tobacco since the organization of the association, a factor which indicates to students of the marketing problem that the chances of another "steal" of a tobacco crop are gradually disappearing.

"The first advance made this year," according to a statement just made at association headquarters in Raleigh "is a greater payment at the time of delivery of tobacco than the total payment OF ANY FIVE YEARS' AVERAGE on the auction floor, excluding, of course, the war years."

"The association has made progress," the statement adds. "We are beginning the 1925 season under the most favorable circumstances. We have settled for the crops of 1922 and 1923 and we have paid to our members 75 per cent of bankers' valuation on all grades received by the association and we have made settlement on 14 grades of the 1924 crop."

"This progress has been made, and this confidence of government agencies and great banking institutions has been inspired, with only one-third of the tobacco. What will the association be able to do when the deliveries are increased, as they will be, to fifty per cent?"

BUSINESS MEN HOLD SPLENDID MEETING

The Louisburg Business Men's Association held a most interesting meeting in its rooms on last Tuesday night with a large attendance present.

Action was taken toward boosting the tobacco market for the coming season. A committee was appointed to arrange advertising matter for the town and the Secretary was designated as the officer to receive the bulletins from the Eastern Chamber of Commerce and bring to the attention of the association propositions that might be of interest to the town. An offer of the TIMES to run a town banner article each week was accepted and a committee appointed to prepare the copy. Action was taken on two road projects and a report of the committee on securing stock for a Canning factory for Louisburg was received with much enthusiasm. Another move was made for new members. The entire meeting was a most interesting, lively and enthusiastic one, all subjects being freely discussed and action that will mean something in the future was taken.

Tobacco smoke kills some insects, but no one has been successful in teaching them to smoke.

FOUR WHISKEY CASES

Six Cases in All Before Recorder's Court Monday.

Only four cases were tried in Recorder's Court Monday by Judge G. M. Beam, all being violations of the prohibition law, and each received very generous action from the court. The other two cases before the court were continued. The docket was as follows:

State vs J. E. Wright, disposing of mortgaged property, continued.

State vs Richard Webb, vpl, pleads guilty, 12 months on roads, upon payment of $25 fine and costs execution not to issue until further orders of the court.

State vs W. T. Person, vpl, nol pros.

State vs Henry C. Yarbboro, vpl, guilty, upon payment of costs prayer for judgment continued till Dec. 1st, 1925.

State vs Otho Clifton, fraud, continued to second Monday in September.

State vs Ernest Jackson, vpl, guilty, judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

TUCKER-WELCH

On Tuesday evening, August 4, a beautiful sunset wedding took place at "Stockton," the colonial home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Welch, of Hertford, North Carolina, when their daughter, Miss Helen Mae Welch, became the bride of Mr. William Ellis Tucker, son of Mr. William Ellis Tucker of Louisburg, North Carolina. The marriage was solemnized in the midst of the spacious grove before an improvised altar of palms, ferns, and cathedral candles, with Rev. J. A. McIver, of Louisburg, officiating.

The wedding music was played by Miss Eloise Chesson, accompanied on the violin by Mr. Bobby Fearing, both of Elizabeth City, N. C. As the guests arrived the Sweet Briar Song was played, and just before the ceremony "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me" were sung by Mr. L. W. Anderson, of Hertford. During the ceremony "Traumerel" was softly played.

As the wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played the bride entered on the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage. She was lovely in a gown of white duchess satin and lace embroidered in pearls and trimmed with lilies of the valley. Her veil of tulle was arranged from a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley.

She had as her maid of honor and only attendant her sister, Miss Fanny Welch, who wore an evening gown of peach georgette trimmed in rhinestones and yellow roses. She carried an arm bouquet of sunset roses and ferns. The flower girls were little Misses Bernice Beavers, of Americus, Ga., a cousin of the bride, and Ernestine Bragg, of Oxford, N. C., a niece of the groom. They wore dresses of pink georgette over pink taffeta and carried baskets of roses tied with pink tulle. Little Pat Hoggard, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Hoggard, wore a suit of white pussy willow satin and acted as page. The bride-groom had as his best man, Mr. Napier Williamson, Jr., of Louisburg, N. C.

Immediately following the ceremony there was an informal reception for the guests. Refreshments were served by Misses Ellen Melick, Rachel Williams, Helen Little and guest, Catherine Hathaway, Minnie Lee Brockett, and Maxine Fearing, of Elizabeth City, N. C.

Among the guests from a distance were: Mr. W. E. Tucker, Mrs. Ernest Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Perry, Miss Eleanor Perry, Mrs. F. J. Beasley, Mrs. B. N. Williamson, Mr. Napier Williamson, and Mr. George Ford, of Louisburg; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Williams, of Franklin; Misses Elizabeth and Ernestine Bragg, of Oxford; Mrs. Kendall C. Beavers and Miss Bernice Beavers, of Americus, Ga.; Mrs. A. V. Gwaltney, Mrs. Addie O. Swayne, and Mr. Bruce Swayne, of Norfolk, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Welch, Jr., and Messrs. Edward and James Welch, of Cambridge, Mass.

The bride is a graduate and honor student of Sweet Briar College, Virginia, and is very popular among the young social set of Northeastern Carolina. The groom is one of Louisburg's most prominent young business men.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Tucker left for a northern wedding tour and will be at home after August 14, at Louisburg, North Carolina.

PROTRACTED MEETING

Pastor W. B. Humble announces the beginning of protracted meeting at his churches as follows:

Shiloh Methodist church, Sunday, August 16th.

Prospect Methodist church on Sunday, September 6th.

The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

Punctures and blowouts test men's patience and make the dry cleaning business good.

Friends can be very annoying, but if it were not for them you would be a total stranger.

Mr. W. B. Tucker and bride arrived yesterday from their honeymoon.

HELD WITHOUT BOND On a Charge of Burglary

Squire J. L. Palmer Orders Moses Cox And Ed Leonard Held For Court—
Laura Cox Allowed To Give $200 Bond.

Moses Cox and Ed Leonard, colored, were given a hearing Wednesday morning on a charge of burglary before Squire J. L. Palmer and were held without bond for the next term of Franklin Superior Court, and Laura Cox, wife of Moses was held for receiving stolen money knowing it was stolen, under a $200 bond for criminal Court.

This case was the outcome of the burglarizing of the home of Mr. N. B. Tucker on Saturday night, August 1st, when some one entered Mr. Tucker's bedroom while he and his wife were asleep and took something over $400 from his pants pockets. A colored detective from Raleigh was secured on last Friday and put on the job which was followed by the arrest of Moses Cox, Ed Leonard and Cox's wife on Sunday evening.

Robert Mitchell, alias Hence Mitchell, who was locked up Monday for intimidating the detective, was turned loose after a pretty plain lecture on the gravity of the offense. Judge Palmer accepting the defendants' statement that he didn't know the party was a detective and didn't mean anything in violation of law.

MISS BOBBITT GIVES RECEPTION

Thursday evening August 6th, at eight-thirty, Miss Catherine Bobbitt entertained at her home on Nash street in honor of Misses Ruth Shaw Britton, Margaret Overton, Mary Covington, Virginia White, Elizabeth Daniels. The decorations were composed of pine and golden glow. Misses Ruth Pearce and Lucretia Dean served punch. Throughout the evening music was furnished by the Tar Heel Aces. An ice cream course was served by Misses Kate Allen and Margaret Wilder. Those present were: Misses Annie Harris, Ruth Shaw Britton, Margaret Overton, Mary Covington, Virginia White, Elizabeth Daniels, Edna Beasley, Coma Cole, Elizabeth Phillips, Fannie Brown, Hazel Brown, Thelma Simms, Jessie Drafts, Mary Wilson, Penelope Wilson, Eleanor Perry, Lucy Allen, Effie Taylor, Lelia McClelland, Susie Crowell, Lucy Timberlake, Dorcas McKinnis, Victoria Adcock, Ruth Pearce, Lucretia Dean, Kate Allen, Margaret Wilder. ## FARMERS' CONVENTION

Mrs. T. H. Dickens, of White Level, is president of the North Carolina Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs which meets in Raleigh in 1926. She was elected at the twenty-third annual convention of North Carolina Farmers' and Farm Women in Raleigh the last week in July where 1500 were present. This was the largest convention held since its beginning. 520 women from all over the state of North Carolina were present, 17 of whom were from Franklin County.

The farmers and farm women who met at this three days' session to study their problems together heard Dr. E. C. Brooks, president of N. C. State College, Governor A. W. McLean, Former Congressman Hallett S. Ward, C. A. Cobb, Editor of the Southern Ruralist, Atlanta, Georgia, and Miss Margaret Ambrose, State Home Demonstration Agent in Tennessee, all of whom were special speakers. In addition to these speakers classes were held in poultry, horticulture, field crops, and farm animals.

The State Experiment Station was visited and a cotton dusting demonstration by aeroplane for boll weevil control was given for the benefit of the attending farmers.

Thirty-five farmers and farm women attended this convention from Franklin County as follows:

Katesville—M. G. Smith, Moses Neal, Catherine Neal, T. M. Pearce, Johnnie Pearce, Phil Tomlinson.

Franklin—S. B. Nash, Mrs. S. B. Nash, R. H. Udey, Mrs. W. T. Reavis, White Level—T. H. Dickens, Mrs. T. H. Dickens.

LAYING OF CORNERSTONE JR. ORDER ORPHANAGE

(By Wyatt T. Dixon)

Durham, Aug. 10.—Cornerstone for the branch orphan's home now being erected by the Junior Order of North Carolina at Lexington, N. C., will be laid Wednesday afternoon, August 19, at 2:30 o'clock, according to the program which has just been announced. The event promises to be one of the most important and largely attended in the history of the Order in this state. Attended by members of the National Council, who will take an active part in the exercises, and by hundreds of Juniors from all sections of the Old North State, the event will be one of more than passing interest and significance.

The exercises at Lexington will be the principal feature of the annual meeting of the State Council which convenes in Winston-Salem on Tuesday, August 18th, for a three-day session. The trip from Winston-Salem to Lexington will be made by automobile with the Winston-Salem Juniors being hosts for the trip. The convention will have other interesting features as well. The past year has been a very successful one for the Junior Order in this state. While the membership will not show the increase hoped for it, the growth has been excellent. The record has been kept down through the purging of the records of the Order of those members who are not taking the proper amount of interest in it as shown by their attendance at lodge meetings and in otherwise contributing to the successful operation of the councils.

Several speakers of state-wide reputation will have places on the program at the cornerstone laying of the orphan's home. Josephus Daniels, secretary of the Navy under the Wilson administration and one of North Carolina's best known sons, will address the gathering on behalf of the public; Thomas H. Walters, of Philadelphia, Pa., National Councilor of the Junior Order, will deliver an address. Other speakers will include: R. M. Gantt, State Councilor, of Durham; John J. Trustees, representing the board of trustees of the national orphan's home in Tiffin, Ohio; and J. F. Spruill, of Lexington.

The band from the Tiffin home, composed of more than thirty youthful musicians, will have a prominent place on the program, both at the exercises to be held in Lexington and in Winston-Salem, where it will make public appearances. It will likewise give concerts in High Point, Burlington and Raleigh before its return to Tiffin.

The opening session of the State Council will begin at 3 p. m. in Salem lodge No. 36, I. O. O. F., following the completion of the work of the credential committee in certifying the presence of the delegates. Headquarters will be at the Robert E. Lee hotel. The three days during which time the annual meeting will be in progress will be a busy time for those in attendance. Many matters of interest to the membership and important to the Order in the state will come up for consideration.

The program for the cornerstone laying is announced as follows: Introductory remarks, T. H. Walters, National Councilor. Selection, Boys' band of orphan's home.

Invocation, Rev. Odell Leonard. Singing, "America." Address, Josephus Daniels. Selection, Boys' band.

Address, by member of National Council.

Selection, Band.

Address, John J. Weitzel.

Address, R. M. Gantt, State Councilor.

Address, J. F. Spruill.

Laying of cornerstone, by National Councilor, assisted by national board of officers and State Council of North Carolina.

Flag raising.

Benediction.

GIVES DELICIOUS BRIDGE PARTY

Miss Louise Allen gave a delightful bridge party Friday morning at her home on North Main street in honor of her house guest, Miss Marion Lee, of Monroe. The spacious front porch was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. After several spirited games of bridge were played a delicious salad course followed by mints and gaiters were served. Miss Allen's guests were: Misses Marion Lee, of Monroe; Lucy and Elizabeth Timberlake, Jessie Elmore, Dick Ogburn, Eleanor Perry, Louise Joyner, Katherine Pleasant, Annie Willie Boddie, Lucy Allen, Katherine Bobbitt, Annie Harris, Margaret Turner, Anna Fuller Parham, Susie Crowell, of Thomasville; Ruth Shaw Britton and Margaret Overton, of Coleton; Elizabeth Daniel, of Wilson; Rachel Wilkins, of Belhaven; Mary Covington, of Wadesboro; Virginia White, of Winston, and Mesdames Harrell Julian Lewis and Bruce Berkeley.

BARNES-TIMBERLAKE

Youngsville, Aug. 9.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Timberlake, Saturday afternoon at two o'clock when their daughter, Gladys Ella became the bride of Mr. George W. Barnes, formerly of Richmond, Va. The impressive ring ceremony was performed by Rev. C. L. Dowell. The Timberlake living room was beautiful with ferns and Queen Annes lace. The solemn vows were taken before an improvised altar of white entwined with ivy on either side of which stood large baskets of white hydrangea and fern. From the top of the arch was suspended a shower of valley lilies tied with tulle. Prior to the ceremony Mr. S. B. Lamb of Wake Forest sang, "Love's Old Sweet Song," and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. H. B. Winston of Raleigh at the piano and Mr. W. P. Faucette, violinist.

During the ceremony "Souvenir" was softly played. To the strains of the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" the bride party entered first Miss Lillian Winston, maid of honor with Mr. Eugene Barnes, the best man. She was beautifully gowned in flame georgette embroidered in crystal beads with a picture hat of black and white velvet and carried orchid asters. Next entered the bride and groom. The bride was attired in a lustrous green ensemble suit with fall hat and corresponding accessories and carried an arm bouquet of brides roses and valley lilies.

Mrs. Barnes is the attractive daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Timberlake. She is an alumna of St. Mary's School, Raleigh.

Immediately after the ceremony they left for points of interest in western North Carolina and from there they go to Darlington, S. C., where Mr. Barnes is in the tobacco business.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. H. B. Winston, aunt of the bride, Mrs. C. N. Winston, Miss Alice Winston, Miss Elizabeth Winston, Mrs. Vance Balice, of Raleigh; Miss Dorothy Downes, sister of the groom, Mr. Eugene Barnes, of Richmond, Va.; and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Utey, of Franklin; and Mrs. P. D. Croom and daughter, of Kingston; Miss Marie LeRoy and Miss Nettie White, Elizabeth City; Miss Nannie Mae Hollingsworth, Memphis, Tenn.; Mrs. Blalock, Arkadelphia, Arkansas.

ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE

Mrs. L. L. Joyner charmingly entertained at bridge Saturday afternoon at her beautiful home on North Main street, complimentary to Mrs. Harrell Lewis, a recent bride, and her house guest, Miss Emma Thompson, of Southport. The tables were arranged on the beautiful and spacious lawn. As the guests arrived they were served punch from a punch bowl uniquely cut from a block of ice which was decorated with clusters of grapes and grape leaves. After several games of bridge a delicious ice course was served. Miss Beatrice Turner then, in an original little verse, presented the prizes: to Mrs. Lewis, a linen centerpiece, to Miss Thompson, a vanity and to Miss Margaret Turner, as a top score prize, a deck of cards. Those present were: Misses Emma Thompson, of Southport; Lucy Allen, Tom and Dick Ogburn, Jessie Elmore, Katherine Pleasants, Susie and Lovie Meadows, Jessie Taylor Harris, Margaret Turner, Elizabeth Clifton, Annie Willis Boddie, Louise Allen, Marion Lee, of Monroe; Susie Crowell, of Thomasville; Elizabeth Timberlake, Anna Fuller Parham, Max Allen, Beatrice Turner, Margaret Moss, of Franklin; Eleanor Perry, Annie Green, Kitty Boddie, Lucy Timberlake, Dorcas McKinnis, Lucy Clifton Boddie, Louise Joyner; Mesdames Weldon Ege ton, M.
