

R. C. DUNN,
Prominent Lawyer of Enfield.

R. C. Dunn, senior member of the firm of Dunn & Johnson, prominent attorneys of Enfield, is recognized as one of the outstanding members of the bar of Eastern North Carolina and of the entire state.

Mr. Dunn was born November 12, 1882, at Scotland Neck, and was educated in the military school and academy at Scotland Neck and at Wake Forest College, being admitted to practice law in 1903.

Mr. Dunn then located in Enfield, and formed a partnership with the late Capt. W. H. Day and the late David

Bell, becoming attorney for the Seaboard Air Line Railway and the Atlantic Coast Line Railway under the firm name of Day, Bell & Dunn, of Enfield and Raleigh, one of the most widely known law firms in the state.

Active in public affairs, Mr. Dunn has been chairman of the school board for fifteen years, a member of the judicial reform commission of North Carolina, is president of Enfield Kiwanis Club, prominent in road building and an influential Mason. He is past grand commander of the Knights of Templar, is past high priest of the Royal Arch, and is junior grand warden of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina.

HARRISON DRUG COMPANY

Firm Established Eight Years At Enfield Also Carries Jewelry Silverware And Victrolas

Established at Enfield eight years ago, the Harrison Drug Company is among the most prosperous concerns to be found in this section of the state. The firm has a complete and modern drug store and pays special attention to the compounding of prescriptions. It also has a fine line of drugs, special attention being paid to the famous Rexall products.

Among other articles carried are Victrolas and the latest records, the Whitman candies, the Eastman Kodaks and other standard products. The store is a finely stocked one and is modern in every sense of the word.

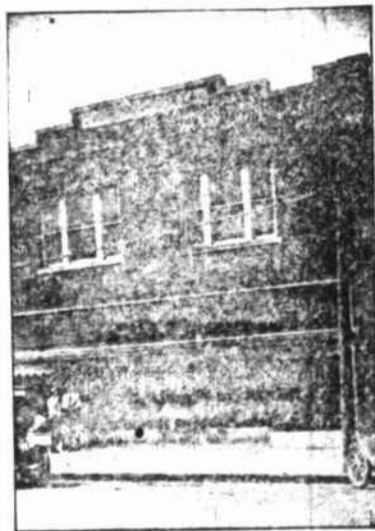

Those composing the firm are Messrs. W. A. and R. E. McDaniel and Mrs. A. S. Harrison. The firm is a member of the Kiwanis Club and the Messrs. McDaniels are graduates of the pharmacist class of the University of North Carolina.

ACME GROCERY COMPANY OF WELDON

Carries Big Lines of All Kinds of Groceries.

This concern has been in operation for nine years and has proven itself a credit to Weldon and the surrounding territory. H. V. Bounds is president of the firm, and L. J. Moore, is secretary, treasurer and general manager.

The store carries fresh and attractive lines of all kinds of groceries and provisions, and is equipped to furnish the housewife with the finest foodstuffs obtainable. Its cold storage department is a valuable asset, enabling the concern to handle meats of all kinds as well as other perishable products.

Modern store of M. Cohen, Enfield, N. C.

A complete store of wearing apparel for men, ladies and children is that maintained at Enfield by Mr. Meyer Cohen, who has been established there for about ten years. Mr. Cohen has been so successful here coming to Enfield that he has purchased the original store in which he was located and has built a large, modern brick structure, where he has one of the most complete stocks to be found in this section.

As has been indicated, Mr. Cohen carries a full line of apparel of all kinds for both sexes and for all ages. He believes in quality goods and in fixing his prices as low as is consistent with a fair profit to the dealer.

Among the specialties carried by him are the Beacon shoes, the College-Cut clothes and the "Everfast" articles. The store is the home of the Belbers' trunks and leather goods.

Mr. Cohen, is ably assisted in the work of the store by his wife.

O. B. TAYLOR & CO.

Have Growing Cotton Business at Whitakers, N. C.

O. B. Taylor and Company of Whitakers, are among the leading cotton merchants in Eastern North Carolina. Thru their knowledge of the business and their progressiveness they have become known in the East and have clients in many of the Seaboard States.

O. B. Taylor & Co. was established in 1920 and M. B. Smith became a member of the firm in 1923. With the past five years the business has grown rapidly and both Mr. Taylor and Mr. Smith attribute their success to "Hard work and playing the game straight."

MARKS AND TRAYNHAM

Dealers in Heavy and Fancy Groceries and Fresh Meats.

This is a well stocked and well regulated grocery. They handle a complete line of food products and give prompt and courteous service.

Mr. D. L. Traynham, and W. H. Marks are the owners.

SMITH'S DEPARTMENT STORE ROANOKE RAPIDS, N. C.

This store carries a complete line of ladies and gents ready-to-wear, dry goods, notions and shoes, as well as millinery, the stock being selected especially with a view to giving its customers the best quality for the least money.

Three courteous, accommodating clerks assist Mr. H. T. Smith the proprietor in handling the trade.

Residence of Hon. Sterling Marshall Gary, Popular Clerk, Superior Court for Halifax County.

S. V. BELL'S GARAGE WHITAKERS, N. C.

This garage is owned and operated by S. V. Bell, who has been an auto mechanic for 12 years, and who established this business four years ago.

Mr. Bell employs four men and his service station is equipped with up-to-date machinery for overhauling and repairing automobiles in any way. The service department carries a stock of accessories and parts, with genuine Ford parts one of his specialties. He runs a large gasoline and oil department, as well.

Chero-Cola Bottling Works At Kelford Modern and Complete

No soft drink establishment in Eastern North Carolina is growing more rapidly or serving a constantly increasing trade than the Chero-Cola Bottling Works of Kelford, one of the most modern and complete plants in this section.

Established in 1916, the plant is kept up-to-date, and is equipped with all sanitary arrangements that insure purity of products, and healthy, invigorating drinks. The machinery has a capacity of two hundred and fifty cases of twenty-four bottles each daily, and it serves a large trade in several counties. Eight men are employed and it operates four trucks in making deliveries.

Only the purest syrups and distilled water are used in manufacturing its products which include chero-cola and all popular flavors of soda waters. The company is also a distributor of candy and confections, and has built up a large business.

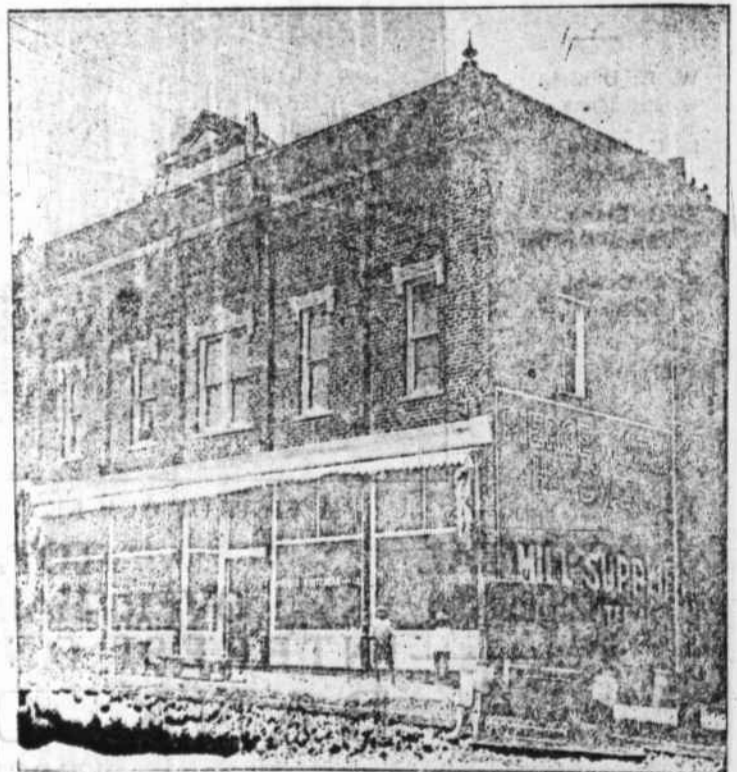

Officers of the company are J. W. Jernigan, president, C. H. Roberson, manager, M. H. Taylor, J. B. Smith, and H. L. Teaster, all of whom are well known and substantial citizens.

ROSEMARY LAUNDRY

First class service rendered at all times is one of the reasons given by the Rosemary Laundry Company, at Rosemary, for the great success that has attended the institution since it was first opened for business in 1920.

This is the only white laundry in the county and has grown so that it now employs eighteen people and has three delivery trucks. It handles both wet wash and finished laundry, and has made a motto of always giving the best service at the time it is promised. It has as its slogan: "Send It To The Laundry."

Officers of the company, are: Mr. George L. Hayes, president; Mr. L. G. Shell, vice-president; Mr. Gus Moore, secretary, and Mr. O. L. Smith, manager and treasurer.

PRICE WHITEHEAD HARDWARE COMPANY
Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Hardware and Mill Supplies, Building Material, Paints, Oils, Etc., Roofing a Specialty.—Weldon North Carolina.