The Dream That Came True

That home of your dreams can be built of solid wood and brick. Consistent saving will make your dream home become a reality.

Young men should save for that home for HER—young married couples should save for that home of their OWN—and older people should save and not be forced to make a home with others.

The 1926 garden record cards are now at the demonstration office. Call by and get one or ask for one to be mailed to you.

About a thousand pounds of chickens, ducks and geese were loaded on the poultry car that stopped at Franklinton last Thursday.

Gold Sand Girls Club
Thirty-four members were present at the Gold Sand Girls Club Friday morning. A number of girls had articles of sewing completed ready for inspection. In the sewing lesson Hattie Parrish and Pearl Bartholomew did the best work. The Gold Sand Club will send a representative to the State Short Course if funds can be raised to pay the expenses. Zena Bledsoe, Rachel Garbee, Julia Brewer were appointed finance committee. Rachel Garbee and Annie B. Murphy were elected demonstration team to represent the club in the county contest next summer.

Mapleville Girls Club
After a brief program the Mapleville girls spent the club hour in a sewing lesson. Mildred Gupton and Rachel Wheeler were the honor members in remembering to bring the material required and doing neat darning. Mabel Portis and Rachel Wheeler were appointed program committee for next month.

Hickory Rock Womans Club
Methods of cooking vegetables, importance of vegetables in the diet, vegetables desirable in the home garden and methods of cultivation were points discussed at the meeting of the Hickory Rock Womans Club Wednesday afternoon.

In answer to the following invitation sent out by the president a goodly number were present at the meeting. "If you want to make an afternoon worth while Come to Hickory Rock with a smile. On March 3rd, Wednesday eve, It will make you full of joy, And you will not want to leave."

Hickory Rock Girls Club
After a program of club songs and appropriate reading the home agent gave a lesson in sewing. The hour was spent in cutting, matching and folding bias bands. Nine out of thirteen girls remembered to bring the material required for the lesson in assigned.

COLE PLANTERS and DISTRIBUTORS have grown in popularity and favor with the trade until it is next to impossible to supply the demand. There is a shortage every year. THE SPOT CASH COMPANY has just unloaded a car of these implements in the various models and any one needing a COLE PLANTER or DISTRIBUTOR should purchase at once.

It is also well to look over your implements at this season of the year and place your order for any necessary repairs or you may be delayed in your planting.

THE SPOT CASH COMPANY, Louisburg, will be glad to handle your order of repairs. 3-12-26

YOUNGVILLE COUNCIL'S TRIBUTE TO W. W. HART

Whereas our Supreme Councilor in His infinite wisdom and profound love for mankind has deemed it wise to take from us our esteemed brother and friend, W. W. Hart who was laid to rest on February 17 at Flat Rock by his Council and friends. And whereas we wish to recognize his worth and friendship to his home, to his church, to his council, and to his God.

Therefore, be it resolved: 1st. That we bow in humble submission to the will of our Supreme Councilor and thank Him for the sweet life of brother Hart.

2nd. That we mourn the loss of one who was so lovable and pure in his daily life, our personal friend and christian brother, and we will ever cherish his precious memory.

3rd. That Youngville Council No. 273 Junior United American Mechanics desires to express to his devoted companion and loved ones our heartfelt sympathy in so great a loss to his home and order.

4th. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the beloved family of brother Hart, a copy spread upon our minutes, a copy be sent to the Franklin Times and a copy be sent to the Junior Order Journal for publication.

J. R. PEARCE,
W. H. HUDSON,

Cramped and Suffered

"My back and head would ache, and I had to go to bed," says Mrs. W. L. Ennis, of Worthville, Ky. "I just could not stay up, for I would cramp and suffer so. I was very nervous. My children would 'get on my nerves.' It wasn't a pleasure for me to try to go anywhere, I felt so bad. My mother had taken at one time, so she insisted that I try it. I took four bottles of Cardui, and if one should see me now they wouldn't think I had ever been sick.

CARDUI

For Female Troubles

"I have gained twenty pounds, and my cheeks are rosy. I feel just fine. I am regular and haven't the pain."

"Life is a pleasure. I can do my work with ease. I give Cardui the praise."

Cardui has relieved many thousands of cases of pain and female trouble, and should help you, too.

Take Cardui.
