Mrs. W. E. Gardner and daughters, Misses Marion and Louise, have moved to Dunn.

Don't overlook L. P. Hicks advertisement if you are a poultry raiser seeking only the best method of obtaining satisfactory results.

Her many friends will be glad to learn that Mrs. R. P. Taylor is getting on so nicely in Richmond hospital that she will soon return home.

TO MY FRIENDS, THE VOTERS OF FRANKLIN COUNTY

I wish to express to you my most sincere and heartfelt thanks for the vote given me last Saturday. I was unable to do any personal campaigning and the credit for that vote belongs to you. I understand my opponent will call for a second primary, in this primary I will be able to put a shoulder to the wheel with you, and we should go over the top with a large majority. Again thanking you for your untiring efforts in the primary just held and assuring you of my deep appreciation for your support in the primary to be held July 3rd, I am Yours to serve, S. A. NEWELL.

SEN. HARRIS IS APPRECIATIVE

Senator C. P. Harris is profoundly grateful to the voters of Franklin County for the fine and complimentary vote extended him in the recent primary, according to the following statement which he gave to a Times man this week: "I take this method of extending to you my grateful appreciation for the large vote given me in the primary last Saturday. "I wish I could see each one who gave me their support and thank you personally. I feel profoundly grateful to you and shall strive to give to every man and woman the best there is in me."
