RE-UNION

A family reunion was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Holmes on last Sunday. A big dinner consisting of fried chicken barbecue, cake Mrs. P. C. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs Will their hearty thanks for this week of pickles, lemonade and many other good things to eat was served on the lawn and greatly enjoyed by the large crowd present.

The children arrived early and after exchanging greetings and best wishes with mother and father and settled down to real old time companionship while the little ones enjoyed games galore in the open.

Those present were Rev C B Howard, of Youngsville, Mr and Mrs H Dement, Goldsboro; Hugh Thomas

Hicks, L. P Hicks, Miss Effie Hicks of Bunn, Mr and Mrs Percy Ferrell, Mr and Mrs. J. S. Champion, Durham, Mr. and Mrs. M. Champion, Clayton, Holmes, Mr. Ben Champion, Mr W. C. Holmes, Mr. Wiley Holmes. Twenty-eight children in all were

Two Lillington Boy Scouts came into the office Wednesday morning of last week and urged that we go to camp at Balance Rock for the remainder of the week. This request resulted in three days at Balance Rock for me with the Louisburg Boy Scouts. Three boys from Lillington went with me. We enjoyed it very much.

One of the Lillington boys repeated his request that I express their appreciation of the courtesies extended them while in camp through my column in the Franklin Times. This I am doing gladly. Leo Kelly, known to the campers as "Shrimp," is the one who made this request and his sincerity makes me know it was genu-

The Louisburg boys were a happy bunch. They enjoyed the camp to their hearts content. The trapeze, the cable, the lake, the baseball games the snipe hunts the kangaroo courts, the camp meals and all, united to make the week one chock full of action for boys.

County Agent A. H. Harris, who is their Scout Master, spent his nights in camp with them. A more typical boy or one who is more completely in line with boys interests could not be found. The boys confidence in him is not misplaced. He entered actively into their games, led their snipe hunts was the central figure in their kangaroo courts and the organizer of their ball games. He had as much fun as any boy there and they will long remember him.

W. A. Welch, of Henderson, directel the camp. It was through his leadership that all the activities of the camp were successful and it is to him Mr. and Mrs C. H Holmes, Mr and more than anyone else the boys owe play and recreation. Mrs. Welch and the remainder of the family added much to the joy of the boy campers. present and enjoyed a most delightful It is interesting to watch the boys when a daily paper arrives in camp. First they divide it. One takes the Gumps, another the continued story, and a third the baseball section. Each selects the department in which he is most interested and reads that. Then it is passed around to the oth-

> The most interesting reading I ob served was the reading of the Frank. lin Times. "I made some runs in that ball game," said one, "but they didn't put me down for any." "Edwin Lee! Who ever heard of that boy? He is Edward Leigh", protested Karl Allen. Then comes, "C-a-r-l. Who ever heard knows it's K-a-r-l." "I wish I knew who wrote this, I'd choke him," said Francis Pleasants. "F-r-o-n-ic-e-s, that makes me a girl." "What does knows it's K-a-r-l." "I wish I knew defeated mean, Ernest?" etc.

The boys had a good time and so did we. We are looking forward to the camp next year with the same boyish anxiety.
