NEAR THE BRIDGE
LOUISBURG, NORTH CAROLINA

IN MEMORY OF MRS. J. M. SYKES

A universal sorrow hung over the community on Monday morning November 8, 1926, when our dear Heavenly Father having found a need in the city of peace and rest for some one of His earthly children, saw fit in His infinite wisdom to call home unto Him Mrs. J. M. Sykes, age 54 years, and now as we stand upon the misty shores of time straining our weary eyes across the waves toward the blessed shore which she has reached, we would strive to catch a glimpse of her pure, noble, beautiful life, that by it we make our lives better, purer and nobler, for, as the beacon light on the stormy coast sends out its waves to seek and to save those lost at sea, so the life lived by her while with us will be a beacon light upon the stormy shores of our hearts.

Her home life was all that a devoted wife and mothers could be. To all she was a blessing, scattering sunshine and cheer among her friends and loved ones where ever she went. She was loyal to her church, Sunday school and community. With those who trod sorrows pathway her heart beat in unison. It is not strange that she was adored in her home and loved and admired by so large a circle of friends and acquaintances.

In her last days her suffering was intense, but she bore it all patiently until the angel of death silently made its way through the group of loved ones and relieved her.

We all sadly miss her, but we realize that this is only another instance where the master walked in His flower garden and plucked one of the earth's fairest brightest, rarest flowers, to adorn Heaven. In living for others her life has been great, in dying for God her life has been good.

Mrs. Sykes, who was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Moore, was born January 9, 1872, and in 1895 was married to Mr. J. M. Sykes who survives her.

The funeral services were held at Cypress Chapel Baptist church where she had been a faithful member for twenty years. The services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. A. Miller, after which she was taken to the cemetery near the church and beneath the drooping mass which shall ever mourn our loss she was tenderly laid to rest, and covered with flowers beautiful and profuse; tokens of love and respect from her loved ones and friends.

She has gone to a perfect rest that knows no pain, no throb, no thrill of heart or brain, to a life sublime beyond all speech, that only the pure through dying may reach.

Bereaved ones, a vacancy has been made that cannot be filled and we know that you feel that your hearts are crushed, your home desolate, yet the dear hand, though unseen will be hovering upon your bleeding hearts her "overlasting love and "in many a holy hour," she will be calling you to your eternal home. Over your lives she will tenderly and lovingly watch as you meet and conquer life's conflicts.

To the bereaved husband, children and loved ones we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

A FRIEND.

TRUST COMPANIES DOING GOOD BUSINESS

North Carolina trust companies have total resources of $185,815,363, an increase of $20,237,306 over 1925, according to "Trust Companies of the United States" just issued as of June 30th by the United States Mortgage and Trust Company of New York.

The total for the South Atlantic States was $819,781,366, and the country, $19,335,270,000, the latter showing an increase of one billion one hundred ninety millions over 1925. Deposits were approximately sixteen billions, a gain of nine hundred millions.

In analyzing the figures just made public, John W. Platten, president of the United States Mortgage and Trust Company says:

"The present strong position of the trust companies, attained through a steady, continued progress, reflects a healthy condition in the Trust Company field. Further development along the lines now so clearly marked can not fail to result in a much wider acceptance of the trust principle, with a corresponding increase in the volume of business entrusted to fiduciary institutions."

COMPLETELY CRIPPLED THIRTY-FIVE DAYS

Tried simple home treatment—
now walks easily without cane

How the agonizing pain of an acute attack of rheumatism was eased, and recovery hastened is told in a letter from John Smith of Shock, Ky.

"I was taken with a pain in my left leg, and for thirty-five days I could not sit up," he writes. "I got no better until I began using Sloan's Liniment. Before I had used one bottle I could sit up, and now I can walk without a cane."

And it is amazing—the quick, genuine comfort that Sloan's gives. It doesn't just deaden the pain. It stirs up the body to throw off the cause.

No need to rub even. A little Sloan's patted on lightly—and a healing tide of fresh, germ-destroying blood begins tingling through the aching place. Before you can believe it, the pain, swelling and stiffness are relieved. Get a bottle today. All drugists—36 cents.
