RALEIGH KIWANIAN'S GIVE PROGRAM

Members of Louisburg Club and Guests Have a Delightful Evening; Musical Selection of Misses Gilbert and Rosalind Greatly Enjoyed

Louisburg Kiwanians were delighted with a program presented by the Raleigh Club and instrumental selections by Misses Gilbert and Rosalind of the Louisburg College faculty at its usual weekly luncheon on last Friday night at Franklin Hotel.

Miss Gilbert delighted the audience with two fine violin solos with piano accompaniment by Miss Rosalind. Later Miss Gilbert rendered a violin solo without accompaniment, which captivated her hearers, and Miss Rosalind responded to a request to play "Old Black Joe," which she did with variations, in a most masterful manner with a prolonged applause.

President Best turned the meeting over to Kiwanian Ed Egerton, of the Raleigh Club, who presented the Raleigh quartette as follows: W. M. Upchurch, H. Page Williams, R. A. Richardson and John Harvey.

The quartette rendered many fine selections to the great delight of the many present, while Ed entertained the club with rich wit and humor, and told briefly of the activities of the Raleigh club.

The chairman announced the appointment of a special committee as follows: Vocational Guidance—A. W. Mohr, W. R. Mills, A. F. Johnson.

A motion prevailed that the meeting arranged for Gold Sand on Friday night March 18th should be postponed to Friday night April 1st, on account of the revival meeting at the Methodist church and that Rev. O. W. Dowd be instructed to invite Dr. Moore to address the club at the next meeting.

This proved to be one of the best meetings of the club in some time and was enjoyed by a number of guests as well as a large percentage of the membership.

PRESENTS BIBLE TO TRINITY CHURCH

The Louisburg Council Junior Order presented a handsome bible to Trinity Methodist church on last Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A large crowd was present and enjoyed the splendid program.

Chaplain H. A. Faulkner made a fine and powerful presentation to the church and Rev. J. C. Williams made a most fitting and forceful speech of acceptance. The music as furnished by the choir and Mesdames T. C. Gill and W. P. Wilson was splendid. The occasion was a glorious one for the cause of christianity.

MR. JIM NOWELL DEAD

Mr. Nowell ate a hearty breakfast and went to work as usual Monday morning, was taken sick with a pain in his breast about ten o'clock, came to the house and went to bed. The death angels saw fit to take him at one-thirty.

Left to mourn their loss was his wife, one daughter, and two sons. We all believe that he has a crown in heaven for he was a true christian until the end.

In his early years he joined the church at Flat Rock, was a faithful member there for many years, later he moved his membership to Rock Spring church and remained there a true christian until his death.

The funeral services were held at his home Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, by Rev. W. T. Brewin. His body was taken to rest at his old home church at Rock Springs.

MR. MCKINNE RESIGNS AS STEWARD OF STATE HOSPITAL HERE

The Argus notes with regret that Mr. Frank B. McKinne has resigned as steward of the State Hospital, Goldsboro, to take effect April 15th.

Mr. McKinne has been connected with the institution in various capacities for more than 13 years. He was appointed a director by Governor Craig in 1913 to succeed his father, the late D. E. McKinne, of Princeton, who for 14 years had served as chairman of the Board of Directors.

He was on the joint board of all the hospitals for the insane during the Bickett administration, with assignment to the Executive Committee of the Goldsboro institution.

Mr. McKinne was a member of the 1921 Senate, and as a member of the appropriations committee was instrumental in securing an appropriation of $300,000 for this hospital for permanent improvements, a much needed and much delayed recognition of the needs for the hospital for negro insane.

During Governor Morrison's administration Mr. McKinne served as chairman of the board of directors of this hospital, and of the executive committee, which position he resigned December 31, 1924 to accept the position of steward, tendered him by the superintendent, the late Dr. W. W. Faison.

Under the Budget Act of 1925 he was appointed purchasing officer, and held this position for more than two years, completing a continuous service of father and son of twenty-seven years.

During the past six years the per capita cost of the support of the inmates of this hospital has been reduced from 57c to 47c per day.

The State Hospital at Goldsboro is generally regarded as the most economically managed institution in the State and has received a favorable report from all visiting committees and state officials.

Credit for this splendid record is due very largely to the services of several of our outstanding local men who were, the pioneers, as it were of the institution, among whom we recall D. E. McKinne, W. R. Hollowell, J. W. Thompson, and Captain Nathan O'Berry, the present chairman of the board of directors and of the building committee, who, though busy man that he is, has unstintingly given of his time and splendid executive ability to the needs and the destiny of this institution.

Mr. McKinne's successor as steward has not yet been named.—Goldsboro Argus.

MR. H. F. TANT INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Mr. H. F. Tant, a farmer living near Rock Springs church was run over and badly injured Tuesday morning on the public highway near his home by an automobile driven by Johnnie Horton, according to information reaching town early. From the particulars we could gather it seems that Mr. Tant was on the highway and nearing several vehicles he had gotten into the ditch. Mr. Horton meeting the school truck turned out to pass the truck and in passing struck a wagon, knocking his car from control and striking Mr. Tant. Mr. Tant received a broken right leg and three broken ribs. He is an elderly gentleman. He was brought to Louisburg where medical attention was given by Dr. H. G. Perry.

MR. J. R. ALFORD DEAD

Mr. John R. Alford, one of the most influential and beloved citizens of this community passed, to his great reward, at his home here on Tuesday March 1st. "Uncle John," as he was usually called by all the younger set of the community, was born April 11, 1849, being at the time of his death seventy-seven years, ten months and twenty days old. The greater part of his life was spent in this vicinity. He was married twice, the first time to Miss Louisa Alford and the second time to Miss Georgianna Bunn who survives him. To the first union there were born four children, two of whom survive him, these being Jerry L. and Julius E. Alford of this place. He is also survived by two little granddaughters who made their homes with him and to whom he was very much devoted, they being the only children of a son who died several years ago. No children were born to the second union.

Mr. Alford was a member of the Board of County Commissioners of this county for several years and for several years he served the county ably as a Justice of the Peace. He was also cotton weigher in Louisburg for several years and always in all important places he held he gave general satisfaction. He was a member of the Masonic order and one could tell by the life he lived that he adhered strictly to the true principles of Masonry. A good and worthy citizen has gone to his just reward. The widow, children and grand children have the sympathy of a host of friends. The remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground near the Alford old home place, near here.

Better kick for a raise now before spring fever gets you.

WHAT IS THE LOUISBURG CHAMBER OF COMMERCE?

The Louisburg Chamber of Commerce is an infant organization, created for the purpose of promoting prosperity.

Its ambition is to study the various industries of Louisburg, and to contribute to their growth. It does not expect to turn the world upside down overnight, neither does it expect to work wonders by the wave of a magic wand. It thinks in decades—not in days. It hopes to progress slowly but surely, despite the criticism of pessimistic skeptics.

Its membership consists of men and women, who are interested in the growth of the business enterprises of Louisburg, and who are striving to promote them. It is not a social organization.

Its meetings are an open forum, wherein Louisburg's problems may be discussed, studied, and understood; by both our little and big business men. Its dues are so low at $1 for individuals and $2 for business firms, that no public spirited man or woman is denied membership on account of prohibitive dues.

IT NEEDS YOU AS A MEMBER

AMERICAN LEGION MEETS

The Jambes Unit No. 105 American Legion Auxiliary held its regular monthly meeting with Mrs. A. Tonkel on March 15th. The meeting was called to order by the president, the Lord's prayer repeated and the pledge to the flag given in concert.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. A bulletin was read from the Sanford Conference and this unit was delighted to learn that Louisburg stands at the top of the list in membership this year; the membership being 100 percent by January 20th, Spring Hope and Henderson following very closely.

The District Meeting which is to be held in Raleigh, was discussed at length and it is hoped that a large delegation from this unit will go inasmuch as this is the Honor Unit in the State.

Mrs. Beam read an interesting report from the Sanford Conference and Mrs. Perry reported the American Legion Banquet which the Raleigh Unit gave at the Yarborough Hotel. At the conclusion of the business program the hostess served a salad course with tea, followed with mints. The St. Patrick's color scheme being carried out. A very delightful social period was enjoyed.

John Terrell, Venable Davis and Peter McNair, all negroes, and implicated in the same case, were given two years each on the roads in this county, to be paroled at the end of eight months on condition of good behavior, with the provision that misconduct at any time in the next five years may bring them back, at the request of the solicitor, to complete the sentence.

N. B. Pace, charged with having a share in the same thefts, was acquitted by the jury yesterday. Whitaker and the negroes all pleaded guilty and made a clean breast of their activities, throwing themselves upon the mercy of the court. The trial of Pace consumed two days of the court.

Large crowds have been attending the revival meeting now going on at the Methodist church and enjoying the delightful and forceful sermons delivered by Dr. Jno. W. Moore, of High Point. ## THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF SAINT PAUL'S CHURCH

The Woman's Auxiliary of Saint Paul's church met with Mrs. R. C. Beck Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Mrs. M. S. Clifton, president of the Auxiliary led the devotional service with the Lord's Prayer, followed by sentence prayers and the creed.

Following the hymn, "Abide With Me," Mrs. R. F. Yarborough read several letters pertaining to the Auxiliary's programs on Thank offering, Social and Religious service.

Mrs. R. C. Beck then told the interesting story of the United Thank offering and the wonderful good it had accomplished since 1839.

Mrs. Yarborough continued the program with a reading, "Every Day Thanksgiving." A lovely story of a woman who was shown how blessed it is to give.

Mrs. L. E. Scoggin then read a poem, "Lost Thank-Offering Boxes," which showed the need of keeping the boxes in full view the whole year through.

Mrs. Robert Smithwick read a story "The Gift of a Thankful Heart," impressive and appealing.

Five minutes discussion for the week's social and religious work, resulted in the appointment of two committees, by Mrs. Clifton, namely, Mrs. R. C. Beck, Miss Mary Wyatt Yarborough and Mrs. R. F. Yarborough to visit the jail and county home with Mr. E. C. Perry, County Welfare Officer and Mrs. L. E. ## SCHOOL GROUNDS OF W. R. MILLS SCHOOL

The work on the school grounds continued intensively this week. Mesdames G. W. Cobb, H. M. Stovall, F. W. Wheelers and R. F. Yarborough were there supervising the work continually.

The school girls and boys fought manfully with hoes, diggers and rakes. It was a revelation to see them, and all eager to do more.

The week's objective to get soil in the right condition and sow the oats, was carried through. We have no regret this week—and that is that we haven't a picture for the TIMES of Mr. Mills sowing the oats.

The work has been carried on splendidly this week. The citizens have given generously.

Mrs. Ford has had John working faithfully. Mr. F. H. Allen sent a man, with mule and harrow to complete the job. Mr. Beam sent James who did fine work. Mrs. Holden had Nick there. The janitor has been untiring. Others have helped—it is hard to tell all of it.

Mrs. G. W. Cobb and Mrs. H. M. Stovall accomplished wonders with the Rummage sale on the court house square, bringing the amount up to $50.00.

The planting will begin next week. All who have promised shrubs will come to the Graded School Tuesday morning bringing plants. If not advise Mrs. E. S. Ford who will get them.

CHEVROLET AGENCY CHANGES

Quite a little interest was aroused in Louisburg on last Saturday when it was learned that the Louisburg Motor Co., owned by Messrs P. S. and K. K. Allen, had been given the contract for the sale of Chevrolet automobiles in Franklin county.

This popular car has been sold here, before in Franklin by the Nash Street Motor Co., composed of G. W. Ford and B. N. Williamson, Jr. The change will necessitate a change in the Ford agency which has been held for many years by the Louisburg Motor Co.
