Albert Denton, a fourteen-year old white boy from near Bailey, is in the Nash county jail, under the North Carolina juvenile law. It is hard to conjecture just what the courts will have to do in holding this young renegade to account for a series of crimes in his community, the most serious of which is the way-laying and killing of C. MR. M. G. MANN MAKES SPEECH

To Cotton Farmers at Louisburg and Delivers Checks to Members Cotton Growers Association... In a very live, interesting and enthusiastic speech, Mr. M. G. Mann, Director of the Field Service Department of the North Carolina Cotton Growers Cooperative Association, discussed the past activities of the association showing where it had been quite a help to the farmers and upon which justified its continuance. He told his hearers that this was a stockholders meeting and he had come to give an accounting for the past services of the officers. He spoke of the marketing problem as the greatest farm problem and was eager to see some plan developed to solve it in the interest of the people who produce the raw products. He thought the cotton association the best thing yet developed, but was ready to assist anything anyone else would suggest that would beat the Association. He told of the expense of the Association and how it had been reduced each year of the experience and necessity of selling to the mills. He told of the reserve fund which amounted to around half a million dollars stating that every cent of it was in tact and liquid form and could be paid back on as short notice as would be necessary to write checks. He told his hearers that he was going to make some of them happy by presenting to them a check representing full settlement for the short time pool of the 1926 crop. His speech was especially interesting and strengthened the confidence of his hearers in the sincerity of the Association to work for the benefit of the farmer growers.

HEAVY WINDS AND HAIL STORM VISITS CASTALIA SECTION

Last Sunday was marked by several intermittent thunder and rain storms which occurred in various parts of the county, while in some sections heavy winds did considerable damage to growing corn. In the section a few miles north of Castalia the damage seems to have been greatest, reports of almost total destruction of tobacco, cotton and corn being made by farmers of that section. There was a heavy downpour of rain, almost falling in torrents, to the extent that fields were badly washed and much damage done to highways.—Nashville Graphic.

BOBBITT-PERRY

Henderson, June 15.—The beauty of a simple home wedding was exemplified Wednesday evening in the marriage of Miss Mae Bennett Perry and Mr. Luther Rae Bobbitt, which took place at 8:30 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Perry, R. F. Kittrell, in the presence of a few friends and relatives. The lovely country home made a charming setting for the wedding. An altar had been improvised in one corner of the living room, having a background of ferns interspersed with Queen Anne's Lace and Shasta a-lies. The bride was becomingly attired in valencia blue georgette dress and picture hat of blue horsehair braid, and carried a shower of bride's roses and valley lilies. Her traveling gown was of dark blue flat crepe with hat to match. To the strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, the bride and groom entered the room separately, meeting at the altar, where the ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. C. Williams, of Kittrell, pastor of the bride. The bridal chorus was played very softly throughout the ceremony by Mrs. T. B. Cooke, cousin of the bride. The bride is an attractive and accomplished young woman. She is a graduate of Louisville College and has been a successful teacher since her graduation. The bridegroom is a son of the Rev. and Mrs. N. W. Bobbitt, of Littleton, and has been a successful farmer for a number of years. After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Bobbitt will reside at Littleton, N. C.

CHAPEL AT FORT BRAGG

Raleigh, June 20.—Hearty endorsement of the movement to raise funds for the erection of a Protestant chapel at Fort Bragg has been given by Gov. A. W. McLean, in a letter to J. M. Lilly, of Fayetteville, president of the Fort Bragg Memorial chapel association. A chapel built by the Catholic church is now the only chapel at Bragg, though there is a Protestant chaplain assigned there. In his letter, the governor says: "It is with a sense of deep satisfaction that I am given the opportunity to endorse the movement for the erection of a Protestant memorial chapel on the military reservation at Fort Bragg. I do not hesitate to express the confident conviction that the people of the entire state will respond generously to the call for funds to be made during the week beginning June 20. However, I desire to express the earnest desire that they will do so. No person can do better than have a part in the erection of a house dedicated to the glory of God, people is one that all may accept, especially in view of the fact that the chapel which you propose to erect will be non-sectarian. Forms and ceremonies have differed, to suit the tastes and religious beliefs of various groups of believers, almost universal. In this Christian land of ours, where every man is free to worship God as his conscience directs, religion has taken on a new meaning. No community is complete without its shrine, where private faith may be publicly expressed." A campaign will be conducted in Louisburg through all the churches and fraternal organizations beginning on Monday morning.

Mr. J. R. Edwards, of near Margaret, has a most interesting circumstance at his home in the shape of a bull dog mothering two pigs. These two pigs found the bull dog that had just weaned a lot of pups and proceeded to adopt her as their mother and the dog took to the adoption good naturedly and seems to be proud of her new family.
