Well Known Frankin County Man Sends Bullet Through His Brain

Mr, Ollie S. Macon, 54, well known and highly esteemed citizen committed suicide Sunday morning at 6 o'clock at his home at Ingleside five miles north of Louisburg. He was alive when found and was carried to the Rocky Mount hospital for surgical attention but died at 3:30 o'clock that afternoon.

OPENING OF THE GRADED SCHOOL

The fall term of the Graded School will open on Monday, September 5th, and it is important that all pupils be in school on the opening day. It is urged that all patrons try to arrange that the vacation visiting of the children be completed in time to get them into school at the beginning. Regular school work will begin on the opening day and a child who is absent does not get an even start with the others in the class.

the most part, the pupil and the home are to blame. Some homes do not keep children in school regularly, and do not try to have the children do the work assigned by the teachers. A few pupils are so dull that it is very difficult for them to get along; a larger number of pupils do not want to study; do just as little as they can; of course, such pupils usually fail.

The Graded School is one of Louisburg's biggest enterprises; it takes a big sum of money to pay the expense, and it is the one means provided to furnish training to the children that is supposed to fit them for good citi-We, this year, ask every pa, tron to help us in every way to make the school "go." The moral support of the patrons is the biggest factor Superintendent and the teachers are compelled to do a fairly good job, but no one can compel the patrons to do their part. We want every patron and friend of the school to join the Parent-Teachers Association. This organization has been functioning well, but its work has just begun. It can and will find a congenial job for every patron of the school. Ask any parent who has been working with this organization, and you will find they like it.

Book lists will be ready by Monday Aug. 29th, and books will be on sale that week. Get a book list; look over s books you have at home; get only such as you do not have. Buy these at any place that suits best, but please do not ask the school to sell on credit; we positively can not do so; we have no one to keep books, besides we do not have money to figure a credit business.

OLD FASHIONED REVIVAL

An old fashioned revival will be held at New Hope, under ent beginning August 17th at 8 p. m. Rev. J. G. Crocker, Evangelist of Pine Level, will do the preaching and Mr. Geo. H. Manning, of New Bern, will conduct the singing, Everybody is invited to attend these services.

COL. McGHEE SPEAKS TO KIWANIS

Dr. R. F. Yarborough Discusses Health, Problems-Resolutions.

The regular Kiwanis weekly luncheon Friday night was one of the most interesting sessions in some time.

Col. C. L. McGhee, of Franklinton, a member of the Board of County Commissioners, gave a most interest-ing and instructive address concerning the new county finance act and the financial condition of the county. He told of the many problems the Commissioners had to meet and the efforts they had made towards equal. izing tax valuations.

Dr. R. F. Yarborough, the new County Health Officer, made an in-teresting talk on the health conditions as he found them in the town and county and gave assurance of his best efforts to keep Franklin county at the top of the list in health mat-olutions setting forth the regret of the citizens at the present situation, and the serious effect it would have on the future of the College and ask. ing the Trustees to reconsider their action and retain the services of Mr. Mohn.

The music was especially fine and much enjoyed and the entire evening of unestimable value to the town and skull and a probable recurrence of was a great occasion for Kiwahis. The resolutions adopted were
