OBSERVES TEACHERS NIGHT

The Louisburg Kiwanis Club last Friday evening entertained the teachers of this city for the ensuing year, they being the teachers of the Graded School and Louisburg College. Each Kiwanian invited a guest and undertook to make their guests evening as pleasant as possible.

Sam Boddie had charge of the program and in an interesting manner staged a welcome for these teachers that reflected in the happiness of each guest present.

Gaither Beam made the address of welcome which truly was indicative of the feeling of every Kiwanian. He was followed by Harry Johnson, who put on a nailing stunt which consisted of the carpentry art by the ladies. The prize for the best nailing as to speed and accuracy was awarded to Mrs. A. W. Mohr.

John McDonald, of Raleigh, the principal speaker of the evening, for over an hour in a jocular manner gave the teachers present his version of Educating the modern girl, with which he held his hearers attention and was enjoyed by every one. John McDonald has a peer only in Will Rogers and North Carolina may well be proud of her humorous citizen.

Judge Sinclair was a guest of the club and also addressed the guests. Judge Sinclair was very much impressed by the gathering.

Louisburg Kiwanis Club in this manner manifested its high regard for upbuilding the character of the children of this city. Every Kiwanian realizes that to successfully educate young Louisburg, the teachers must have the cooperation of the city, and no question but that the Kiwanians expressed their wholehearted support to their instructors on this night.

FRANKLIN COUNTY SCHOOLS OPEN

The Franklin County Public Schools opened Monday September 5 with the largest attendance in the history of the county. From a professional viewpoint the children are being taught by teachers with good training in education and in every case a thorough investigation was made into the moral and christian character. Special effort has been put forth to employ teachers who were not only well trained professionally, but whose christian and moral character was above reproach.

Thirty-five trucks are transporting about 1,000 children. The Board of Education is attempting to make it possible to have either a school or truck in 2 1/2 miles of every boy and girl in the county. Every child in the county has an eight months school except those living in the Rileys, New Hope, Royal, Math Rack and Flat Rock districts.

The superintendent will meet with all the teachers and school boards this week on the following schedule: Monday afternoon, September 12, Gold Sand.

Tuesday afternoon, September 13, Bunn.

Wednesday afternoon, September 14, Edward Best.

Thursday afternoon, September 15, Epsom.

Friday afternoon, September 16, Youngsville.

EDGAR T. GRIFFIN DEAD IN RALEIGH

Edgar T. Griffin, prominent business man of Pine Ridge, Franklin county, aged 55, died here yesterday at noon at Mary Elizabeth Hospital, after one day illness.

Mr. Griffin was a native of Franklin county and resided in the Pine Ridge section most of his life. For 10 or 12 years he resided in Spring Hope, where he conducted a livery business.

He was twice married. His first wife was Miss Sude Baker, daughter of Mr. J. B. Baker, of Franklin county. His second wife who survives was Miss Burdick Baker, a sister of his first wife.

Besides his widow he is survived by five children: Joe, Taylor, Phil and Miss Margaret, of Pine Ridge, and Donald of Orlando, Fla.; three sisters, Mrs. S. T. Dodd and Mrs. H. F. Tunell, of Wendell, and Mrs. G. W. Miller, of Raleigh; and two brothers, R. H. and R. H. and B. H. Griffin, of Raleigh.

The funeral service will be conducted by Rev. Frank Ward, pastor of the Spring Hope Baptist church at the grove at 3:30 o'clock. The interment will be made in the family burying ground of J. B. Baker. The funeral procession will leave the late home of Mr. Griffin at 3 o'clock this afternoon.—News and Observer.

FACULTY RECEPTION

The public is invited to attend the Faculty Reception to be given at Louisburg College, Friday evening, September twenty-third, at eight o'clock.

LEGION AUXILIARY TO MEET

The James Unit No. 105 American Legion Auxiliary will meet with Mrs. James A. W. & T. C. Alston Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 20th, at 4 o'clock. This is the first meeting since June and all members are urgently requested to be present, as there is an accumulation of business to be attended to.

MRS. H. W. PHERRY, Sec.

TOBACCO OPENING SALE TUESDAY

Everything is set and ready for handling the big lot of tobacco that is expected to be placed on the warehouse floors in Louisburg on next Tuesday—opening day. The warehouse forces are all ready and the buyers are gathering to be ready at the first cry of the auctioneer.

The merchants and business men are all ready to extend the biggest and most cordial welcome to Louisburg that any town has ever undertaken.

Come and be with us. We want you to feel the great inspiration.

IN HONOR MISS MCKINNE

Among the many delightful social functions complimentary to Miss Dorcas McKinne, whose wedding to H. Elton Stout will take place on September 8th, was a bridge party given at the home of Mrs. John Yarborough on Sunset Avenue on Thursday of last week, with Mrs. Yarborough and daughters, Mrs. John Glenn and Miss Eleanor Yarborough, as hostesses. The home for the occasion was decorated with summer flowers. Miss Margaret Turner won high score prize and received a box of dusting powder. A beautiful ivory Anne Hathaway Cottage was presented to the guest of honor. An ice course was served.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week Miss McKinne was honored when Miss Olivia McKinne entertained at the home of her parents on Sunset Avenue. The lower floor was tastefully arranged in cut flowers, carrying out the color scheme of pink, yellow and white. The high score bridge prize a linen towel went to Mrs. James King, while the high score rook prize was won by Mrs. D. F. McKinne. A delicious ice course was served. The guest of honor was presented by Master Collin McKinne, brother of the hostess, with a small suit case covered with brides' pictures and tied with maline. Upon opening this, it was found to contain many lovely handkerchiefs, which were gifts from the guests.

IN MEMORY OF MARY WHITE

On Monday morning, August 15, when God, our Heavenly Father called from this world our dear young friend and school mate Mary, to be an angel in heaven.

After two weeks of suffering with typhoid fever everything that medical science could do to aid her was done. Faithful physicians, nurse and mother devoted their entire time but to no avail, for God called her and she was willing to go for she had a sister waiting for her over there.

We cannot understand why she was taken from our young list of friends and school mates at such an early age of life only eleven years of age. Yet we rest in peace to know that sometime, somewhere, the mysterious problem shall be solved thus revealing to us all its mystery.

How very difficult it was to give her up for we loved her so, but God needed another bright angel to join His band and Mary, our favorite and loving school mate was taken.

Mary was a good girl. Her pleasure was to do something to please others, always meeting them with a smile and kind word.

A great number of friends and loved ones gathered at her home on Monday afternoon to pay their last sad tribute. Silently her little school mates passed the beautiful white casket, how calm she was, how we longed to tell her she was beautiful and that she would be greatly missed everywhere, at home, Sunday school and at school. Oh, we will miss her smile as we enter the school room.

She leaves to mourn her loss, mother, one sister and two brothers and a score of relatives and friends.

Weep not dear one for God knoweth best, some day He shall wipe away all tears from our eyes and there shall be no more sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any pain for the former things shall be passed away.

SCHOOL MATE.

ENTERTAINS FOR BRIDE-TO-BE

On Tuesday night of last week Mrs. Ina Rouse was hostess at eight tables of bridge and two of rook. The top score prize, a lovely vase, was given to Miss Fanny Welch, sister of Mrs. Blair Tucker and the top score prize in rook was won by Mrs. D. F. McKinne, a guest towel. Miss Dorcas McKinne, the guest of honor was presented with a Chinese Gong. Afterwards a delicious salad course was served.

SPECIAL SERVICES AT COLORED BAPTIST CHURCH

It is very gratifying to all who know or have heard of Rev. C. E. Askew, D. D. of Pittsburgh, Pa., that he will preach at the First Baptist church (colored) of this city Sunday night September 18.

Dr. Askew is recognized as one of the foremost preachers of America. Seats will be arranged (reserved) for all white friends who would like to hear him. All are welcome.

Rev. M. Stamps and M. Stamps, Jr. returned yesterday from a business trip to Morehead.

MAYOR WILLIAMSON WELCOMES YOU TO LOUISBURG.

It is with much pleasure that I again formally extend to you a hearty welcome to Louisburg—our town.

Our Market for both Cotton and Tobacco is stronger this year than for many years and I am confident it will equal or lead any market in the State, and our merchants are more determined than ever to make your visit to Louisburg more profitable to you, and will offer you greater savings than anywhere else.

As Mayor I shall see that you are shown every civil courtesy and consideration on the part of our officers and citizens. I want you to feel that you are one of us. Lets blot out the imaginary lines dividing town folks and country folks. We are all one people, members of the same State and Nation and our interests are enough identical that what is profitable to one is profitable to the other.

Every man, regardless of whether he lives in town or in the country shall be treated alike and allowed the same privileges in our town while I am Mayor. The only object in laws and their enforcement is your protection.

Louisburg is the best Town in the best State. Lets join hands and make it still better.

With best wishes, and hoping to see you in Louisburg real often this fall.

B. N. WILLIAMSON, Mayor.

CURRENT LITERATURE CLUB MEETS

The Current Literature Club had its first meeting Tuesday, September 13th with Mrs. Jamie White as hostess.

The meeting was called to order by the president Mrs. James King after a short business session Miss French and Mrs. Woodward from the College were welcomed as new members into the club.

General topic: Edith Wharton—Sketch of Edith Wharton's Life as a whole or some phase, Miss Jarman. Reading: Jane's Mission, by Mrs. Malcolm McKinne, read by Mrs. James Allen.

Paper: The Age of Innocence, Plot and Review, by Miss Mary Yarborough.

Reading: From the Age of Innocence The Farewell Party for Countess Alaska, by Mrs. King.

A most tempting salad course was served by Mrs. Weldon Egerton, daughter of the hostess.

Y. W. C. A. RECEPTION LOUISBURG COLLEGE

The annual Y. W. C. A. Reception was given by the college Y to the students and faculty Saturday evening, September tenth. The college parlors were daintily decorated in golden red and baskets of flowers. The receiving line, consisting of faculty members and Y. W. cabinet members, was kept busy with the long line of students and faculty which passed through the drawing room and on to the social hall where punch was served and a very delightful program was presented by the girls of the college. Much honor is due Miss Myrtle Green, Y. W. C. A. President, whose untiring effort was spent to make the reception an occasion of homelike and genuine pleasure for both old and new girls.

MRS. BAILEY ENTERTAINS FOR BRIDE-TO-BE.

At eight o'clock Thursday night of last week Mrs. Raymond Bailey entertained at a kitchen shower in honor of Miss Dorcas McKinne, a bride of September. The guests were entertained at seven tables of bridge and one of rook. Mrs. Frank Rose won the high score prize. Then an ice course was served. When they had finished the ice course, Miss Rose Malone dressed as a bride entered the room carrying a large heart-shaped box containing kitchen utensils presented by the guests. As Miss Malone enticed Miss Anna Fuller Parham played a bridal march.

MISS MCKINNE ENTERTAINED

Wednesday evening of last week Misses Bobby and Margaret Turner and Mrs. Frank Rose entertained at twelve tables of bridge and rook in honor of Miss Dorcas McKinne. At the ten tables of bridge Mrs. S. J. Parham held top score and was given a deck of cards while Mrs. D. F. McKinne won top score prize in rook which was a guest towel. To the guest of honor was given a beautiful linen luncheon set. A salad course was served and followed by mints.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our most grateful thanks and appreciations to all our friends and neighbors who rendered so many kindnesses and expressions of sympathy during the recent illness and death of our daughter, Mrs. G. B. ALLEN, wife of G. B. ALLEN, and family.

FRANKLIN HOTEL TO CHANGE HANDS

Information given the TIMES the past week states that Mr. J. C. Tucker has leased the Franklin Hotel and will take it over about the middle of October. Mrs. R. H. Ogburn who has operated this popular hotel so satisfactorily for the past several years will return to her former home in Virginia. Mr. Tucker informs us the steam heating plant will be put in operation and many other improvements will be made for the better and more comfortable accommodation of the public. He will also change the plan of serving meals from the American to the European plan, thus making it possible for guests to call for what they want. It is contemplated to have the dining room visible from the street. With the many improvements, no doubt, Mr. Tucker will greatly increase the popularity of this hotel.

LOUISBURG TO HAVE GOLF CLUB

Much interest has been shown in the new Louisburg Golf Club which owes its origin to a few golf enthusiasts who have made it possible for any one who wishes to learn this extremely interesting game to do so.

A course has been laid out on the lands of the F. N. Egerton estate one mile from town and the work is expected to be completed by the last of the week.

It is hoped that enough interest will be shown by the community at large to justify a permanent course, for a golf club will add much to Louisburg's attractions and be a decided civic asset.

This course is essentially for the whole community to enjoy and membership is offered to the people of Louisburg and Franklin county at a very nominal cost and Mrs. E. H. Johnson, the secretary, will be glad to furnish information to all who are interested.

HONORING MISS MCKINNE

Mrs. B. N. Williamson delightfully entertained Tuesday afternoon at a seven table Bridge and Rook party in honor of Miss Dorcas McKinne, bride elect of September.

The living room and spacious hall were beautifully decorated with ferns and summer flowers.

With Mrs. Williamson at the door to greet the guest were Miss Dorcas McKinne and her mother, Mrs. D. F. McKinne.

After several spirited games of Bridge and Rook the top score bridge prize was awarded to Miss Katharine Pleasants and that of Rook to Mrs. D. F. McKinne. The bride-to-be was presented a beautiful mulberry colored Sandwich Plate and four small plates to match.

The hostess served a delicious chicken salad course, cream and cake. Those present were Misses Dorcas McKinne, Lonie and Susie Meadows, Lucy and Elisabeth Timberlake, Anna Fuller Parham, Louise Allen, Katharine Pleasants, Louise Joyner, Annie Willis Boddie, Mary Wyatt Yarborough, Eleanor Yarborough, Dick Ogburn, Margaret Turner, Lucy Clifton Boddie, Ruth Allen, Meadames D. F. McKinne, Blair Tucker, Robert Alston, James King, Arthur Person, E. W. Ferguson, Cary Howard, Frank Rose, William White, Jr., James Malone, Rosser Ednie, R. G. Bailey.

Baron, Commissioner Edith Bridgers and Mrs. B. N. Williamson of Raleigh, were in Louisburg, Friday looking into the matter of the Louisburg last week.

MRS. D. G. ALLEN DIES IN RALEIGH

Mrs. D. G. Allen, wife of Mr. D. G. Allen, of Farmville, and a daughter of Mrs. C. B. Edens, of Louisburg, died at a hospital in Raleigh to which she had been taken the night before about 8 o'clock Tuesday morning. Mrs. Allen was 28 years old and besides her mother and husband she leaves four brothers, Messrs. F. L. Edens, of Raleigh, C. E. Edens, of Littleton, W. H. and S. J. Edens, of Louisburg, who have the deepest sympathy of the entire community.

Mrs. Allen was a very attractive and lovable woman and was held in high esteem by her many friends and neighbors. She was a faithful member of the Methodist Church at Farmville.

Her remains were brought to the home of her mother in Louisburg Tuesday and the funeral services were held from the home on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock conducted by Rev. O. W. Dowd assisted by Rev. J. A. McIver, of Louisburg. The interment was made at Oaklawn cemetery. The pall bearers were: E. F. Griffin, Wm. White, R. W. Smithwick, Forrest Joyner, Herman Murphy, Jim Allen, Jr., J. E. Ballew and —. Lilies of Farmville.

The floral tribute was profuse and beautiful. Large numbers of friends of the family attended both services.

A CHICKEN FRY

There will be a chicken fry at Centerville School, Wednesday night, Sept. 21st, at seven-thirty o'clock. Proceeds will go for the benefit of the school. Public cordially invited.

AN APPEAL TO THE CITIZENS OF LOUISBURG

The Chamber of Commerce is making a campaign for a better, bigger and more prosperous Louisburg.

Tuesday, September 20th, our tobacco market opens. Lets be glad Tuesday and "carry on" eternally. What I mean is shake hands with everybody that comes to Louisburg from now on. Ask about his crop and family if he is a farmer. If he is a traveling salesman be extremely courteous to him and show an interest in what he sells. If he is a visitor from another town "go out of your way" to be especially courteous to him. In other words let every citizen of Louisburg be a bureau of information and a member of the reception committee for every person that enters our gates.

Let it be known that wherever the name of Louisburg is mentioned either by friend or foe, they will be compelled to say that Louisburg is the most courteous and hospitable town in the world. If this is accomplished it will be the carrying out of one of our major objectives.

S. P. BODDIE, President Chamber of Commerce

PROSPECT REVIVAL

The Prospect Revival will begin Monday evening at 7:30 P. M. Sept. 19th. Rev. W. G. Pratt, of Garner, N. C., will do the preaching. Services every evening at 7:30 P. M.

There will be no preaching at Prospect Sunday afternoon Sept. 18, due to the fact that the fourth and last quarterly meeting for the Louisburg Circuit will be held at Bunn Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. The church officials of the entire circuit are urged to be present.

Preaching at Bunn Sunday morning Sept. 18th at 11 A. M. and 7:45 P. M. Subjects: "The Final Appeal" 11:00 A. M. "Shorn of Sincerity" 7:45 P. M.
