BEAUTIFUL WEDDING CEREMONY SOLEMNIZED

At Methodist Church Wednesday Evening At 8 O'clock When Miss Dorcas McKinnis Became the Bride of Mr. H. Elton Stout; Rev. A. D. Wilcox Officiating

The prettiest and most impressive marriage ceremony that has been witnessed in Louisburg in a long number of years was solemnized at the Methodist church on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock when Miss Dorcas McKinnis, the pretty and charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David F. McKinnis became the bride of Mr. H. Elton Stout, of Siler City. The solemnly pretty and impressive ring ceremony was used and the words that made them man and wife were spoken by Rev. A. D. Wilcox, of Charlotte, a former pastor of the bride, and a close personal friend of the family.

Long before the hour hosts of friends of the contracting parties, both local and visitors, had filled the church to overflowing. The church was never more beautiful in its decoration of yellow, white and green with great masses of beautiful flowers set in unique contrast, and was lighted with candles. During the interim awaiting the arrival of the bride party Mrs. Bruce Berkeley, of Goldsboro, delightfully gowned and wearing shoulder bouquets of roses, rendered lovely organ solos. Dr. H. H. Johnson rendered "Bor-n-ness" by Phillips, a violin solo. The music of the bridal party was heralded by the sweet and lovely voice of Miss Madge Marley, of Greensboro, who sweetly and masterfully sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," by R. M. Statton, and "I Never Knew How Much God Gave To Me," by Ernest K. Ball.

To the beautiful and impressive strains of Wagner's Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin the bridal party entered the church. Messrs. Napier Williamson and Ross Earle, ushers entered first and were closely followed by the brides maids and groomsmen alternating down the aisles of the church as follows: Mrs. James B. Neeley, of Asheboro, and Miss Olivia McKinnis, of Louisburg, dressed in elegant gowns of Matze and georgette crepe, combined with lace, beaufont style, with Mr. James B. Neeley, of Asheboro and Mr. Fred Thomas of Siler City, Miss Lillian Wyche Howell, of Goldsboro, and Miss Ava Stout of Thomasville, dressed in charming gowns of orange taffeta, ruffled skirts with velvet trimmings with Mr. Pete Stout, of Siler City and Mr. Lester Moffitt, of Raleigh, Miss Betty Hardy Taylor, of Hookerton, and Miss Jeannette Nance, of Asheville, dressed in lovely gowns of maize and georgette crepe embroidered in rhinestone, with Mr. Tom Dark, of Thomasville and Mr. E. A. Randolph, of Raleigh. Miss Katherine Wolff, of Concord and Miss Lois Guffy, of Concord, dressed in beautiful gowns of orange taffeta, beaufont with velvet trimmings, with Mr. Malcolm McKinnis of Louisburg, and Mr. Harry Thomas, of Raleigh. The brides maids wore gold shoes with hose to match their dress and carried shepherd's crooks, with bouquets of garden flowers tied with yellow and orange maline. The groomsmen wore tuxedo suits with white vests. The dame of honor Mrs. D. F. McKinnis, mother of the bride, handsomely gowned in nile green georgette heavily beaded with gold beads with gold slippers and hose to match dress carrying an arm bouquet of yellow roses, entered by the right aisle while the maid of honor, Miss Sarah Margaret Wrenn of Siler City, wearing an exquisite suit of orchid satin beaded in pearls, combined with lace made beaufont style, and carrying an arm bouquet of yellow roses entered by the left aisle. Then came by the right aisle little Collin McKinnis, a cousin of the bride dressed in a pretty little Lord Fauntleroy suit of black velvet and white blouse as ring bearer, carrying the ring imbedded in a cluster of beautiful yellow roses artistically placed at the top of a white swager stick, while down the other aisle came little Rose Malone, flower girl, daintily and sweetly dressed in a delicate pink georgette crepe and pink slippers, carrying an abundance of beautiful yellow roses in a basket made from a large hat with streamers crossed to form the handle from which the path of the bride was strewn with flowers. Each of the party advanced to the altar which had been beautifully decorated in a color scheme of yellow, white and green, with huge banks of beautiful goldenrod and fern placed in delightful revue and took their appointed positions. Then came the bride resting upon the arm of her father, Mr. D. F. McKinnis, who gave her in marriage, beautiful in a gown of white satin combined with lace beaufont style, train, wearing an embroidered veil caught with garlands of orange blossoms, and accessories to match, carrying a bouquet of brides roses showered with valley lilies. At the same time the groom with his best man, Mr. Garland Stout, of Raleigh, a brother of the groom, entered from the door to the rear of the church and advanced to the altar. The bride and groom met within the altar rails and were happily united with the impressive ring ceremony by Rev. A. D. Wilcox, who occupied a position in the choir loft.

The bridal party then left the church in reverse order to the mellow notes of the Wedding March from Mid Summer Nights Dream, by Mendelssohn, as a recessional, and went to the home of the brides parents where they were tendered a reception. During the ceremony Mrs. Berkeley softly and sweetly rendered Hal-veys "Meditation," on the organ.

After the reception the bride and groom left by automobile for Western North Carolina on an extended bridal tour.

The bride is one of Louisburgs most popular and charming young ladies. She is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David F. McKinnis, one of Louisburgs most popular and successful business men. She was educated at Louisburg College and Greensboro College for Women and for the past year has held a responsible position in the faculty of the high school at Burlington, where her pleasing disposition and pleasant manner has endeared her to the people of that city. She is deservingly popular among a host of friends both at home and abroad.

The groom is a popular and capable young man of Siler City and holds a responsible position in the sales department of the High Point Bedding and Chair Company and is especially popular throughout the State. The great popularity of the contracting parties was evidenced by the multitude of valuable and costly presents, bespeaking the congratulations and good wishes of their large acquaintances.

Among the out of town guests in attendance were Miss Jeannette Nance of Asheville, Miss Bettie H. Taylor of Hookerton, Miss Peggy Wrenn of Siler City, Miss Madge Marley, student at Greensboro College, Miss Katherine Wolff and Miss Lois Guffy of Concord, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Neeley, of Asheboro, Miss Ava Stout and Mr. Tom Dark of Thomasville, Miss Olivia McKinnis of St. Marys, Raleigh, Miss Lillian Wyche Howell and Mr. and Mrs. F. B. McKinnis of Goldsboro, Mr. Garland Stout of Raleigh, Mr. Lester Moffitt of Raleigh, Mr. Tommy Thomas of Raleigh, Mr. E. A. Randolph, of Raleigh, Mr. Fred Thomas of Siler City, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Thomas of Siler City, Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Hagworth of Asheboro, Misses Clara Andrews, Nell Spence, Pauline Jordan of Siler City, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Jordan, Siler City, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Tyson, of Erect.

RECEPTION TO BRIDE AND GROOM

Immediately following the marriage the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. David F. McKinnis on Sunset Avenue was thrown open to their many friends, in honor of the bride and groom Mr. and Mrs. H. Elton Stout. This naturally handsome home had been made more beautiful and lovely by the exquisite taste displayed in the charming white, yellow and green decorations interspersed with the seasons prettiest garden flowers.

The guests were received at the front door by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. White who introduced them to those in the receiving line which was composed as follows: Mr. D. F. McKinnis, Mr. and Mrs. H. Elton Stout, Mrs. T. H. Tyson, the groom's mother, of Erect, Rev. A. D. Wilcox, Mrs. D. E. McKinnis, grandmother of the bride, Miss Sarah Margaret Wrenn, of Siler City, Mr. Garland Stout, brother of the groom, of Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Neely of Asheboro, Miss Olivia McKinnis, Mr. Fred Thomas, of Siler City, Miss Lillian Wyche Howell, of Goldsboro, Mr. Pete Stout, of Siler City, Miss Ava Stout, of Thomasville, Mr. Lester Moffitt, of Raleigh, Miss Betty Hardy Taylor, of Hookerton, Mr. Tom Dark, of Thomasville, Miss Jeannette Nance, of Asheville, Mr. E. A. Randolph, of Raleigh, Miss Katherine Wolff, of Concord, Mr. Malcolm McKinnis, Miss Lois Guffy, of Concord, Mr. Tommie Thomas, of Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. McKinnis escorted the guests into the dining room where cream in shape of bells, slippers, etc. was served with yellow, green and white mints, by Misses Anna Fuller Parham, Margaret and Baby Turner, Susie Meadows, Bettie Hill Reavis, of Raleigh and Mrs. J. R. Earle, Jr.

Rev. and Mrs. O. W. Dowd directed the guests from the dining room to the punch room where Mrs. Raymond G. Bailey presided over the punch bowl, and was assisted in serving by Misses Lonie Meadows and Ida Mae Yow.

The guests were shown from the punch room to the gift room by Mrs. S. J. Parham and Miss Virginia Foster, from which they were escorted to the brides register by Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Candler, of Henderson, and who presided over the guest book.

The evening was a most delightful one and large numbers availed themselves of the graceful hospitality of the host and hostess on this occasion of much interest.

Fight fans were pleased to learn that there was to be no extra session of Congress. With the Vane-Smith seating debate coming up they were afraid Tex Rickard would learn that he was a piker on the price for seats he charged at Chicago.

RECORDERS COURT

Judge Perry had quite an interesting session of Franklin-Recorders Court Monday. Many cases were before him, some of a very trying nature to settle satisfactory. The docket was disposed of as follows:

NASHVILLE DEFEATS LOUISBURG 6-0

On Tuesday afternoon on Louisburg grounds Nashville High School defeated Mills High in the opening game of the foot ball season 6-0. The game was played hard from beginning to end. The Louisburg boys being outwitted by a large margin. Dick Yarborough showed up exceptionally well in getting them and throwing the Nashville backs for losses time after time. W. N. Fuller and Pete Shearin showed class in the backfield. Shearin gaining every time he carried the ball. James Wheelless and Atwood Newell held down the ends in style until the latter was forced out of the game with a broken arm.

The team as a whole showed up well. But games are won from the side line as well as from the field. With the exception of the college girls, spectators were few. Any team needs support from its home town in order to win games, so lets turn out and back this team and give them the encouragement and support that is our just duty and have a team that is a winning team. It can be done. Do you want a winning team or do you want Louisburg to have the reputation of not being able to win a game in any sport. It's up to you.

Referee, Bledsoe—Wake Forest. Umpire, Murphy—Carolina. Head linesman, Beasley—State.

ENTERTAINS

Last week Mrs. J. L. Palmer entertained at six tables of bridge and two of rook in honor of Miss Dorcas McKinnis. There were four prizes awarded, the highest and the booby prize in each game. After the game refreshments, which consisted of cake and cream, were served. Then wine glasses were placed on the table and fill. By Mrs. J. E. Friar. Mrs. Frank Rose read a poem called "The Brick." Mrs. Palmer proposed a toast to Miss McKinnis which was responded to. Then Mrs. B. T. Holden gave a toast to Mrs. McKinnis, the mother of the bride, in which she said that the mother would not lose a daughter but gain a son. Afterwards Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Friar presented gifts to both the bride and her mother.

BARBECUE

On Friday evening the 16th at 4:30 Mrs. J. A. Hodges and Mrs. C. M. Howard entertained at a barbecue in honor of Miss Dorcas McKinnis and her mother. The guests which numbered around seventy-five were received at the gate by Mrs. Hodges and Mrs. Howard. Miss Virginia Foster and Mrs. William White, Jr., assisted in seating the crowd and in serving them. They enjoyed the barbecue and had a delightful time.

LOUISBURG KIWANIS CLUB HOLDS EDUCATIONAL MEETING

At the regular weekly luncheon held at the Franklin Hotel Friday, September 23rd the Louisburg Kiwanians on motion of Malcolm McKinnis adopted the following resolution:

Whereas, Because of poor health our beloved friend Mrs. R. H. Ogburn has found it necessary to retire to private life, and will therefore cease to serve our club as its gracious and efficient hostess.

Therefore:

We, the Kiwanis Club of Louisburg, hereby express our deep and lasting appreciation of the keen interest in an untiring devotion to the Club which she has constantly manifested.

Since the organization of the Louisburg Kiwanis Club, three years ago, the delightful dinners which she has consistently served have contributed largely to its fine attendance and continued success.

It is indeed with genuine regret that we are forced to lose the services and cheerful association of one who has meant so much to us.

With her departure Louisburg loses one of its best citizens and our club one of its staunchest friends.

Our best wishes and tenderest affection will follow her, and the memory and love of her will ever be fresh in our minds and hearts.

Harry Johnson in a deliberate and interesting manner presented to the club an address on Kiwanis Education that inspired every Kiwanis present. Harry pointed out the philosophy of Kiwanis and applied his impression and reaction of the Kiwanis idea.

Miss Margaret Turner, accompanied by Mrs. James Malone entertained the club with a rendition of two popular vocal selections.

President Edward Best presided.

DOWNIE BROS. WILD ANIMAL CIRCUS COMING OCTOBER 7

Circus day is childrens day. It belongs essentially to them. Tradition has made it so. There was a time when "taking the children to see the animals," was the most convenient excuse offered by those who thought it against religious scruples or their fancied dignity, to go to the circus. Happily that form of hypocrisy is now about extinct. Years of the most careful effort by the managers of these shows to eliminate everything and anything in the slightest degree immoral or impossible in the character of their exhibitions, or in the demeanor of their employees of whatever rank, has at last convinced the public generally of the absolute cleanliness and morality of the circus as a place of entertainment, and with such comprehensive shows as are these great consolidated institutions, a source of practical and profitable instruction. There is no longer any excuse or apology for going to the circus. The presence of clergymen at every performance, with seldom an exception, attests the general and sensible change of consideration for the circus by church people. But all this does not release anyone from a moral obligation to take their children to see the animals and the accompany tag circus performance. It is really not only a matter of extreme delight to the children to see the show, but it is a duty as well as a pleasure upon the part of parents, relatives and friends to enable them to see it.

LOST CERTIFICATES

Field Representative C. G. Cox, Jr. of the North Carolina Cotton Growers Association has been requested by the head office, Raleigh, to say to the old members who have lost their reserve certificates that it will be necessary for them to write to the office and state that a certificate for a certain year has been lost, or they may get him to write for them. The office will immediately issue a lost certificate form and if there should be a mortgage or an agreement recorded against this, it would be shown and there would be no come back from the member. This form will be sent direct to the member unless otherwise instructed.

BRIDGE PARTY

Last Thursday night Miss Annie Willis Boddie gave a bridge party in honor of her guest, Miss Annie Davenport, of Roanoke, Va. There were six tables of bridge. Miss Dick Ogburn won high score ladies prize, a box of dusting powder and Mr. Frank Felt, principal of Louisburg Graded School won top score mens prize, a leather cigarette case. To the guest of honor was given a bottle of Yardly bath salts. After playing the guests listened to the Dempsey-Tunney fight over radio. Then ice cream and cake was served.

Those who were present were: Misses Dick Ogburn, Anna Fuller Parham, Louise and Max Allen, Virginia Thigpen of Tarboro, Katherine Pleasants Annie Willis Boddie, Annie Davenport Elizabeth Timberlake and Mrs. Rob Alton; Messrs. M. S. Clifton, Jr., Napier Williamson, Hill Yarborough, Stapleton and James Allen, Bill Allen, Frank Files, W. R. Parsons, S. L. Roberson, Webb Loy, John King, George Ford, Albert Wheelless and Hugh Jones.

BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. William White, Jr., entertained the bridge club at her home last week. Miss Dorcas McKinnis was present as honor guest.

TOBACCO PRICES ADVANCING

A considerable advance in the price for better grades of tobacco was evidenced on the local tobacco market yesterday. Many growers have offered tobacco the past week with fair sales at each of the warehouses, although it has been the attitude to withhold the golden weed from the market until better prices were offered.

Since the opening last week the China-American Tobacco Company's account has been added to the Louisburg market which makes complete representation. The demand has seemed to be strong although prices for lower grades have been low. It is the consensus opinion that grades above ten cents are selling pretty well, possibly as high as last year, except the extra white thin grades with those below ten cents are advancing. With the advances of the past few days it is expected that more of the golden weed will be offered for sale and the growers generally will be much better satisfied.

Louisburg is leaving nothing undone to make it to the interest of every tobacco grower in Franklin and adjoining counties to sell and buy in Louisburg, and is extending a special invitation to all to visit our town.

FACULTY RECEPTION

Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock the faculty of Louisburg College, in formal reception entertained the student body and friends of the College. In the drawing room, the faculty reception line, introduced by Chairman E. L. Best and Mrs. Best, Mrs. Mohan and Dean Betts greeted a long line of students and a large number of friends both from in and out of town. From the drawing room, the guests were taken to the beautifully decorated social halls where punch was served. The pleasure of the evening was enhanced by the music furnished by the members of Ray's Orchestra, Raleigh.

AN ENJOYABLE BARBECUE

The editor of the TIMES in company with Messrs. F. A. Roth, M. S. Davis and F. N. Egerton had the pleasure of enjoying a most delightful barbecue dinner Saturday just across Ransom's Bridge. The occasion was sponsored by the counties of Halifax and Warren in celebration of the opening of a road through that section. It actually developed in a glorious appreciation of all the roads in that section taken over by the State Highway Commission. Among the speakers were Chairman Skinner of the Board of County Commissioners of Warren, Chairman Whitaker of the Board of County Commissioners of Halifax, Senator Burgwynn, Highway Engineer, Somerville, Dr. Maccon, Mr. Brodie, Editor Brodie Jones of the Warren Record and Editor A. F. Johnson of the Franklin Times.

Mrs. Wheelless is the daughter of Mrs. Oliver P. Harris of Mapleville and a graduate of Mills High School of Louisburg and very popular among her many friends. Mr. Wheelless is a prosperous young farmer of the Mapleville-Cedar Rock section and has a wide circle of friends. After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Wheelless will be at home to their many friends, Louisburg, Route 4.

CURRENT LITERATURE CLUB

Mrs. R. Z. Egerton was hostess to the Current Literature Club on Tuesday afternoon September 27th with twelve members and two guests present. The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. James King. After the roll call the minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary.

General Topic: Theodore Dreiser. First paper: A biographic study of Theo. Dreiser, Mrs. McM. Furgerson, followed by the reading of a one act play, "The Girl in the Coffin," by Mrs. Mortimer Pleasants.

Miss Letten in her charming way told the story of Jennie Gerhardt, after which Miss Betts gave a reading on the same subject.

Our hostess, Mrs. Egerton, asked the members to tell how they had spent their vacations. Several responded in an amusing way by telling of the good times they had at Jacksons Pond and at White and Silver Lakes after much merriment. We then listened attentively to Miss Bosworth while she told in a most interesting way of her visit to Alaska.

During the social hour Mrs. Egerton was assisted by Mrs. Stuart Davis and Mrs. Weldon Egerton in serving a most delicious salad course followed by crystallized ginger.

BRIDGE PARTY

Miss Margaret Turner entertained at two tables of bridge in honor of Miss Annie Davenport, of Roanoke, Va., and Miss Virginia Thigpen, of Tarboro.
