SMITH POSSIBLE NOMINEE ON THE FIRST BALLOT

Democrats Staging Big Convention At Houston; Claude Bowers and Senator Robinson Make Great Speeches; Tributes To Bryan and Marshall; N. C. Delegation Has Stir Up

Claude G. Bowers of New York, temporary chairman and carefully selected keynote speaker, touched off a veritable powder keg of Democratic enthusiasm. He tore mercilessly at the record of two Republican administrations, those of Harding and Coolidge, to sweep his auditors in the crowded pavilion into outbursts of applause as he went down the line on the oil scandals, farm legislation, fake prosperity, unemployment, and all the other allegations of Republican misrule, upon which the Democrats propose to base the fight for election of their presidential ticket.

Senator Joseph T. Robinson, of Arkansas, assailed the Republican administration of the last seven years, warned against inclusion of a wet plank in the Democratic platform, and made a bid for farm support in his speech accepting the permanent chairmanship of the Democratic national convention here today.

In addition to Governor Smith, seven other candidates were presented formally Wednesday night for the consideration of the convention. They were: Senator James A. Reed, of Missouri; Representative Cordell Hull, of Tennessee; Senator Walter I. George, of Georgia; Senator Woolen, of Indiana; Senator Gilbert Hitchcock, of Nebraska; Senator Atlee Pomerene, of Ohio; Representative W. A. Ayers, of Kansas.

Tributes to two great Democrats, William Jennings Bryan and Thomas R. Marshall, former Vice-President, were paid by the Democratic Convention Wednesday night when it passed memorial resolutions of respect to both men.

Josephus Daniels, former Secretary of the Navy, read the resolution on Bryan, pointing out that for the first time in 52 years a Democratic convention met without the presence of the Commoner.

Charles R. Greathouse, of Indiana, presented the resolution on Marshall, expressing sorrow over the death of the venerable leader of the Hoosier Democracy and great American citizen.

With strengthened numbers outside Sam Houston Hall and with members representing them within the delegate ranks, organized women threw themselves today into the platform fight, adding to their renunciation of war and child labor appeals a summons for "All nominees favoring enforcement to define clearly what steps are practicable and possible to that end."

Recorders Court

Monday's session of Franklin Recorders Court was a short one. Only two cases were tried and they were submitted. One case was not pressed and three continued. The docket as disposed of was as follows:

State vs Bryant King, carrying concealed weapon, not pros with leave.

State vs Nelson Massenburg, distilling, guilty, 4 months on roads, execution not to issue upon payment of $50 fine and costs.

State vs George King, operating automobile intoxicated, guilty, 6 months on roads, execution not to issue upon payment of $50 fine and costs and the revocation of driving license for 90 days.

The following cases were continued: State vs Ernest Macon, nuisance. State vs Major Williams, nuisance. State vs Nal Radford, larceny.

Children Want Homes

The Children's Home Society, of Greensboro announces that it will have ready for adoption during the next sixty days, the following attractive children: 5 baby girls, ages 1 month to 2 years. 5 baby boys, ages 2 months to 4 years. 8 boys and girls, ages 5 years to 10 years.

Applications are desired from reliable childless families who will meet our requirements. Send for application blanks to Children's Home Society of N. C., Inc., John J. Phoenix, State Superintendent, Box 1473, Greensboro, N. C.

The White Lake Camp

Much interest is being shown throughout the State of North Carolina in the Young Tar Heel Farmers Camp at White Lake, in Bladen County. Over 75 schools have made application for a total of over 2,000 young Tar Heel Farmers who wish to spend a week at the camp, North Carolina is the only State whose department of agricultural education has made provisions for a State camp for high school boys studying agriculture.

This camp is under expert supervision and is all that a camp should be. A daily program keeps each boy busy with wholesome recreation, entertainment and instruction. Parents who have boys enrolled as students of agriculture will do well to help the boys attend this camp. A week spent at the Young Tar Heel Farmer Camp at White Lake should mean as much to any boy as any two weeks in school.

Epworth Leaguers Feted

Wednesday night the Louisville High Epworth League of the Methodist church entertained at the home of Mrs. A. W. Person the High Epworth Leaguers who are attending the Epworth League Conference.

"New Testament Religion"

The above will be the subject of Rev. Daniel Lane, pastor of the Methodist church next Sunday morning. At the evening service he will preach on the subject "Our Life Preserver." Sunday school will be held at the usual hour.

All are cordially invited to attend these services.

Louisburg is delighted to have so many visitors present and a most cordial welcome is being extended them.

Birthday Party

Tuesday afternoon at four-thirty o'clock Mrs. Jack Brown entertained at a birthday party for little three year old Stanley Brown in honor of little Louis and Dave Silver, of Durham.

After the little guests had enjoyed several games and contests on the lawn, which was beautifully decorated in roses and sweetpeas, they were given favors and served to vanilla ice cream and spiced cookies.

Those present to enjoy the afternoon were: Dorothy Roth, Frances Griffin, Harold Tonkel, Vera, Velma, Annie Lee and Virginia Schoonover, William Stovall, James and Christine Collier, Billie and Clarence Bass, James Person, Ruben Klaseil, Marie and Horace Hilton, Glen and Billie Person, Josephine Rouse, Rose Malone, Mary Anne Clifton, Edith and John Lindsey Harris, Helen and Gilbert Wagstaff, Billie and Lucy Newell, Herbert Scoogin, Sophia, Eula Grey, Virginia and Wilson Spivey, Dorothy Dennis, Jane Murphy, Glenn, Mark, Martha Holden, Carl Allen, Glenn Hudson, Ed Perry, James Johnson, Estay and Allen Cobb, Jack Williams, Robert Strickland, Buster and Charlotte Collins, Josephine Hayes and Gene Harris.

DR. R. C. BROWN TO SPEAK HERE

Before Colored Welfare Association Sunday; Madam Nell M. Hunter, Celebrated Colored Soloist To Sing; Other Features of Much Interest; Hold Meeting At Mills High School

The scene of the Franklin County Welfare Association will be changed to the W. R. Mills High School auditorium Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Madam Nell M. Hunter, famous colored, soprano, will make her debut before her first Franklin county audience.

The coming of this noted singer who is now appearing before the various summer schools throughout the State will furnish music lovers in and near Louisburg to a rare treat.

In a recent Metropolitan appearance Madam Hunter delighted thousands of hearers at Manhattan Casino, and then added lustre to her fame by refusing the flattering offer of $200 per week for a permanent engagement on Broadway New York.

Accompanying this singer of repute will be Madam Abbie Williams Logan, colored, celebrated as a pianist, and musical director at Shaw University, Raleigh.

The speaker of the occasion will be Dr. Roscoe C. Brown, colored, U. S. Public Health Service, Washington, D. C. Dr. Brown has spoken in almost every large city in America, but his brilliant exposition at the Sesqui-Centennial, Philadelphia, in 1926, before an audience of 17,000 people climaxed his career. The program Sunday afternoon will be varied, and vocal choirs and spirituals will also be in evidence.

The Welfare Association in Franklin County had its inception through the influence of Editor A. F. Johnson of the Franklin Times, who is justly proud now, as he sees its steady upward progress under the administration of Superintendent E. C. Perry and the local chairman, Dr. J. B. Davis.

Hundreds of persons have expressed their intention of coming here Sunday from many nearby points, and a notable gathering is expected from some of the larger centers. These conditions made it necessary to seek larger quarters than the county court house, and hence the meeting at the Mills High School.

Silver Tea

The Young Peoples Service League of St. Pauls Episcopal church, gave a silver tea, Wednesday night at Oakhurst, the country home of Mr. A. F. Johnson, to which all the members of the church were invited. According to the invitations each one was to bring a penny for each year of their age, and should they prefer not to have their age known, they were to give as much as they felt they could. A program of stunts, in which everyone took part, was enjoyed by young and old alike. Among those who won prizes were: Mr. Hill Yarborough who pinned the tail of the elephant in its proper place and Mr. Maurice Joyner who won the suitcase race, Mrs. S. B. Berkeley won a prize for the lucky name drawn from the box.

After all the pennies had been dropped into the box, a sum of eighteen dollars was presented to Mr. Maurice Clifton, treasurer of the vestry, to be used toward defraying the church's indebtedness. The guests were then served to iced tea, sandwiches and candy. The occasion would have been incomplete except for the beautiful music furnished by the Louisburg orchestra.

Franklin County Agriculture In One Week Conference

The teachers of agriculture of Franklin county are attending a one week conference for agriculture teachers which is being held at State College under direction of Mr. T. E. Brown, director of State College Summer school and State Director of Vocational Education, and Mr. Roy H. Thomas, State Supervisor of Agricultural Education. This conference is devoted largely to a summary of the past year's work and to making a definite program for the coming year. Mr. Thomas and his assistant supervisors are very active in making a definite objective to be reached during the coming year as well as planning a five year objective.

Although taking only a small part of the time on the program, the Young Tar Heel Farmer Camp at White Lake has created much interest. North Carolina is the only State in the United States which has a camp for its students of vocational agriculture.

The following teachers of agriculture are attending this conference: Q. D. O'Quinn, Bunn High School; F. U. Wolfe, Gold Sand High School; C. R. Bohanan, Franklinton High School; J. J. Wolfe, Edward Best High School.

Mrs. Jones Entertains

Mrs. J. B. Jones entertained a number of friends Wednesday evening in honor of her visitor, Mrs. Bradley, of Florida. Delightful refreshments were served and as the guests left, they expressed their pleasure at being present.

Mrs. Beasley Entertains Auxiliary

The James Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary held its regular monthly meeting with Mrs. W. L. Beasley. The meeting was called to order by the president and the following program was rendered: Invocation, Mrs. C. K. Cooke, Chaplain.

Pledge to the Flag: "I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation indivisible with Liberty and Justice for all." The American's Creed, Mrs. J. E. Malone, Jr.

June 14 was Flag Day, therefore the subject of this program is the Flag of the United States, the Living Symbol of our great Republic—how to display it, how to respect it. Making the flag: Poem, Mrs. C. K. Cooke. Music: Stars and Stripes Forever. Mrs. J. E. Malone, Jr.

The Institution of the Flag Code, Mrs. E. W. Furgerson. The Flag Poem, Mrs. F. Forrest Joyner. Cautions in Regard to the Flag, Mrs. T. C. Alston. Music: Selected, Mrs. J. E. Malone, Sr.

Alvin M. Owsley's Advice to Young People in regard to respect for the flag, Mrs. A. B. Perry. Star Spangled Banner. At the conclusion of the program business was taken up and disposed of as follows: The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Reports from various committees were called for. The court house square committee under the able direction of Miss Lynn Hall reported wonderful progress. Plants have been set out for temporary blooming and plans are under way for shrubbery to be placed in the fall. The cooperation of all members on this committee and the aid of the county and town officials make this work an especial feature of the years program.

Letters were read from Ward R-4 which show the keen appreciation the boys there feel for even the smallest things done for them. Plans were discussed for remembering them during July and August while the meetings were discontinued. It was decided to send a box of smokes etc., and Mrs. C. K. Cooke, chairman and Mrs. A. B. Perry and Mrs. J. Forrest Joyner were appointed a committee to attend to this matter, each member to contribute as called on by the committee.

The coming convention in Charlotte in August was also taken up and all who intend going were urged to let the Secretary know in time so that proper credentials might be furnished and so that the unit might get credit for delegates. The most attractive part of the program was reserved for the last. Master Glenn Beasley dressed as a soldier, bearing Old Glory on his shoulder, presented each guest with a miniature flag, during which time Mrs. W. L. Beasley read an appropriate poem, "The Flag is Passing By."

A delicious salad course with iced tea, cheese straws, salfines, etc., was served by the hostess who was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Watson. The meeting was then adjourned until the third Tuesday in September. Any business coming up in the meantime to be taken care of by the Executive committee.
