FEDERATION WOMENS CLUBS HOLDS MEETING

Dr. D. T. Smithwick, County Histor ian, Mrs. Estelle Smith, of Raleigh, Among Speakers - Splendid Program Presented.

Dr. D. T. Smithwick, in speaking to the Franklin County Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs at Mills High School on Saturday morning, about "Art and the Early Furniture of Franklin County," especially emphasized and tried to impress upon his hearers the fact that we are losing real art. The most beautiful art we've ever had, he said, was of our own creation. What pride our ancesters took in adorning their homes with things of their own making, and in clothing their families with afbrics of their own creation! Of course it would be foolish and inconsistent for us to try to do all the things our grandmothers had of necessity to do, but there is a certain amount of this art that can and should be preserved. Love of the beautiful is the origin of art, continued Dr. Smithwick, but the young folks of today for the most on roads, suspended upon payment of part are too busy having a good time to think about real art. Dr. Smithwick tried to point out the fact that each of us is in a way an artist, and that if we would know and realize the value and glory of art, we should strive to develop this quality within

In describing the early furniture of Franklin County, the speaker told his hearers that it had been brought in little by little. First, of course, the settlers used furniture rudely built of rough boards and logs. Later beautifully carved rosewdod and mahogany furniture was brought down from Pennsylvania and Virginia. Dr. Smithwick ended his talk by asking each and every one present to help him to collect and preserve everything of interest to Franklin county history.

A demonstration was then given by a group of representatives of the Armstrong Linoleum Company. This very instructive demonstration, with the colors of floors and their re. lation to the colors of the walls and woodwork was enjoyed by the clubwomen who received much helpful information.

Mrs. Estelle T. Smith, of Raleigh, one of the District Home Demonstra. tion agents, spoke to the clubwomen on the "Pillars of the Home," comparing them with the pillars of King Solomon's temple, the one standing for wisdom, the other for strength. In discussing strength, Mrs. Smith re: ferred to the great benefit of laborsaving devices of today which enable those women who are so fortunate as to have them to keep young and use a greater part of their time and enher home that haven of happiness which it has a right to be. Of course wisdom must be exercised in the state of the pumps and awning doing other damage, all amounting to an estimated loss of around $1,000.00.

Being early in the mounting to the state of the state o wisdom must be exercised in the se-lection of proper and nourishing foods, in the furnishing of one's home. and in "letting the head take the load off one's heels," but perhaps the biggest way that a mother can use wisdom is in caring for her children.

Mrs. Smith said that in answering a question once as to why she had been so successful in rearing such a fine son, she named three reasons: First, she had demanded respect of her son, and she had respected him; secondly, and she had r dom is in caring for her children. Mrs. Smith said that in answering a and she had respected him; secondly, booze. It was a unique and success-she always expected obedience of him ful ruse as the officers had made many and she always kept her appointments searches and failed to find his stock. with him, that is she did what she told him she would do just as she extended to find his stock. the lily work at the top, comparing fact that it withstood all the raids and it with the spiritual and community was not discovered until after he had interest displayed in the home. Mothers are not paying as much attention to the spiritual development of their children as they should, according to Mrs. Smith's idea. Ending her discussion, she told the women that she knew that the reason that they come to these Federation meetings is to get wisdom, and she also stated that get wisdom, and she also stated that she hoped that every one of them would look at their task, not as the man with the hoe who considers his job continual drudgery but as the one who works for the joy and glory of seeing a glorious product completed. Mrs. T. H. Dickens presided over this meeting, during which it was learned that the Bordeaux Club had the greatest per cent of members present, thereby winning the gavel. If any club wins the gavel three times in succession, it is allowed to keep it. Several of the clubs have had it twice. The Bordeaux club was the first club to get it, but they failed to keep it. This time they say they are going to keep it for good.

Following the program, lunch was served in the Home Economics rooms of Mills High School.

Truck Smashes

Two large gasoline pumps and large metal awning in front of C. H. Murphy's garage on East Nash street were smashed about 6:30 o'clock Friday morning by a large automobile truck pulling a trailer belonging to the Rocky Mount Tobacco Co., driven by Nathan Blackman, colored, using State license No. 26551.

The accident was caused by the truck being driven down the hill at to great a speed for wet streets, havergy caring for their time and en-ergy caring for their families. Wis-dom, said Mrs. Smith, is what every woman must-use in order.

MR. W. D. JACKSON DEAD

Mr. W. D. Jackson, one of the most prominent and popular young men of Franklin County, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Alice Uzzell, at Ma-pleville, about five miles east of Louisburg, at 4 o'clock Friday morn-ing, having been in bad health for a number of years. Mr. Jackson, who was about forty years of age at the time of his death, left Louisburg about two years ago and went to Albequer-que, New Mexico, in hopes of regaining his health; but, not finding relief he returned home.

For a long time Mr. Jackson held a responsible position in the Farmers and Merchants Bank here. Always honest and trustworthy, his friends have held him in the highest esteem. Though sick abed, he was appointed Chairman of the Young Men's Democratic Club of Louisburg Township during the past Presidential campaign, executing which position he spread his influence and persuasion through the press.
