MEDIUM THAT

AN ADVERTISING

A. F. JOHNSON, Editor and Manager

THE COUNTY, THE STATE, THE UNION

SUBSCRIPTION $1.50 Per Year

DO NOT KNOW.

VOLUMN LX.

LOUISBURG, N. C., FRIDAY, MARCH 22nd. 1929

(10 Pages)

NUMBER 5

ANNUAL INSPECTION OF BATTERY "B"

men were better trained than at any time in the past. The various drills great deal of trash, limbs, etc. down moved along like clock work. The the stream and these had lodged entire personel were well dressed in against the bridge, and had been dried neat and well fitting uniforms, out by the winds and sun. Every man was freshly shaven and had his hair properly trimmed. They looked like soldiers and they conducted themsleves like soldiers.

The Inspection was conducted by Major Pendleton, of the 17th Field Artillery from Fort Bragg, N. C. He was assisted by Major Dempsey, of Wilson, inspecting officer for the Adjutant General. Other officers present at the inspection were Col. Gor. ent at the inspection were Col. Gordon Smith, of Raleigh, U. S. Property oneshire of the Regimental Staff, Major O. E. Beasley, U. S. A., Senior Instructor, Capt. John Ball, Instructor, Capt. John Stedman, of Raleigh Box. imental Adjutant, Capt. Frank Tim- read well and enjoyed by all the Lerlake, of the Youngsville Outfit and School.

Lt Green, of the Youngsville Outfit. The

The Inspecting Officers arrived at 2:30 p. m. and the inspection of the Armory, Equipment and Military records was completed by 6 p. m. Capt. we are putting the suits away until Griffin then took the officers on a next year on account of hot weather. short tour of the town and adjoining country.

At 7 p. m. the Inspecting and visiting officers were entertained at a din. ner in their honor, by Major Sam Boddie at the Franklin Hotel. Among present at the dinner, besides the Inspecting and visiting officers mentioned above, were Capt. Griffin, I.t. Claude Collins, Lt. Willie Bled-soe and Lt. R. I. Holmes, officers of Battery "B", Mayor B. N. Williamson, Dr. S. P. Burt, President of the Franklin Courty Medical Society, Dr. H. H. Johnson, President of the Kiwanis Club, Dr. H. G. Perry, Vice President of the Chamber of Commerce, W. E. White, President of the First National Pank, Malcolm McKinne, City Commissioner, David Harris, one of the leading Merchants of Louisburg, F. J. Beasley, Cashier of the First National Bank and President of the Chamber of Commerce, Dr. A. H. Chamber of Commerce, Dr. A. H. Fleming, Secretary of the Franklin County Fair, and T. W. Watson, County Commissioner.

Pattery as to personal appearance and training was conducted. Everything moved along rapidly as the men were well prepared and trained and the Inspection ended at 10:30 p. m.

Numerous prizes were offered by local merchants for the five neatest and best dressed enlisted men at the inspection. These men were picked by the Inspecting Officer, Major Pendle. ton. A list of their names will be published in next week's issue of the FRANKLIN TIMES, together with a list of prizes won by each and the names of the contributing merchants.

Deserving of especial mention was the work that had been done by Ser-geant Bob Alston who is care taker and has charge of all the equipment. Every piece and part of the equipment was in perfect condition. New paint shone everywhere. The instrument room, store room and supply room were models of neatness and cleanli.

local Armory for the use of the Battery. Besides this he spends between twelve and fifteen thousand dollars here annually for drill pay, gas and cil, armory rent, etc. Once a year he calls for an accounting to see if his equipment is being kept in the projer condition and if he is getting full value for the money he has spent in the training of the personel of the Battery.

Mr. Ernest Foster Dead

Ernest Blacknall Foster, a well. Mrs. Bryson, of Norfolk, Va., spent known and highly esteemed young the week end with Mrs. D. E. Griffin, farmer and merchant of near Louis. of Sandy Creek. burg, died at his home at 6 o'clock Saturday morning as the result of

The funeral services were held from the home Sunday afternoon at two o'c'cock. conducted by Rev. J. C. Williams, of Zebulon, and assisted liams, of Zebulon, and assisted by immie Burnette.

Rev. Daniel Lane, of Louisburg, and His mother died when he was about Interment was made in the cemetery at Trinity Methodist Church.

The Inil bearers were Messrs. J. B. Beasley 'W. Beasley, J. B. Hunt, l. B. Wilson, S. E. Wilson and J. A. Ays- Edward to mourn his going.

perspiration.

TAR RIVER ABLAZE

Sunday night, Chief of Police, B. H Meadows was called from church service to receive the report that Tar The Annual Inspection by the Fed-eral Government of our local Military river near the bridge was afire. He Unit, Battery "B," 113th Field Artil-hurried immediately to the scene and lery, North Carolina National Guard, could see the blaze a good distance up was held on last Monday agternoon the street. At the point where the was held on last Monday agternoon and evening.

The local outfit, under the able and efficient leadership of the Commanding Officer, Capt. Edward F. Griffin, went "over the ton" with a have The Commanding Officer of the ton" with a have The Commanding Officer of the ton" with a have The Commanding Officer of the ton" with a have The Commanding Officer of the ton" with a have The Commanding Officer of the ton" with a have The Commanding Officer of the ton" with a have The Commanding Officer of the ton went "over the top" with a bang. The consumed. During the recent heavy

> Some one Sunday night evidently dropped a match over the bridge which fell in a favorable spot and ignited the rubbish which caught and burned.

The March 12, by a score of 2 to 6. basket ball season is now over and

The Senior are working on their play. The name of it is "The Winning of Latone." They are interested in the play and have done a great deal also be chief in command of all visit-of work on it. We are expecting it to ing Scouts. be one of the best plays that we have had here. Be sure to watch for the date and see this play.

The Sophomores are planning a weinnie roast on Wednesday night, March 20. Each member invites a

The attendance at school is still short. We are sure that practically everyone who had measles is well and we are anxious to have them all back people are above all things hospitable who missed, up to date. We are planning to have Arbor Day and Bird Day in the near future. We will have an interesting program and invite the public. Be sure and watch for this date, also, and come

The annual Junior-Senior Banquet was held at the school building Sats urday night, March 9th, at 8 o'clock. After the dinner was concluded the Lrday night, March 9th, at 8 o'clock. Inspection of the personnel of the Fach Junior and each Senior Invited inspection of the personnel of the same one and quite a crowd was pres some one and quite a crowd was pres. The followng program was giv-

> Toastmistress: Louvenia Edward Welcome: Louvenia Edwards. Toast to Seniors: Enice Wrenn. Response: Dwight Frazier. Toast to Faculty: Manolia Thomp

> Response: Julius A. Woodward. Toast to Guests: Ben Allen New

Response: H. E. Crutchfield. Farewell: Margaret Wynne.

Mints.

Every one had a good time and we are sure we will always remember 1929

Miss Grace Stainback entertained several of her friends at her home Wednesday evening at 8:00. After has several hundred thousand dollars many interesting games were played, they gathered in the yard and roasted wolfman. weinnies. Everyone enjoyed the nice supper and went home about 10:00.

FROM SANDY CREEK

The following items have been eived from Sandy Creek: The friends of Mr. Jessie Gupton, of Sandy Creek, are very glad to hear he is improving from a spell of sick-

Mrs. J. T. Henderlite, of Petersburg Va., spent the week end with her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Joyner, of Sandy

CHARLIE BURNETTE DEAD

Mr. Foster, who was the nephew of Mrs. Mary Foster, widow of the late Dr. Ernest Foster of Louisburg, was a faithful member and steward of Trinity Methodist Church. He leaves one sister, Miss Mary Louise Foster, and one brother, P. S. Foster. He was 23 years old at the time of his death.

Little Charlie Burnette, fifteen years old, of near Alext, died in Parkyjew Hospital, Rocky Mount, on Sunday night, March 10th. Charlie was taken to the hospital on January 25th. While there he underwent two operations. The death of Charlie sunday is not the hospital on January 25th. While there he underwent two operations. The death of Charlie Burnette, fifteen years old, of near Alext, died in Parkyjew Hospital, Rocky Mount, on Sunday night, March 10th. Charlie was taken to the hospital on January 25th. While there he underwent two operations.

Most animals with thick fur do not have widely distributed sweat glands, farmers of the county for soil imand so can not reduce their body heat proving and pasture purposes, says

Louisburg National Farm Loan Association

lone and A. F. Johnson were elected directors.

The directors met immediately and clected A. F. Johnson, Pres.; E. H. Malone, Vice-Pres.; F. W. Justice, Sec'y. and Treas. A. F. Johnson, E. H. Malone, and F. W. Justice were elected members of the Loan Commit. tee, and J. A. Spencer and G. B. Egerton, members of the Alternate Loan Committee. A. F. Johnson was elected Appraiser.

After several matters of importance vere transacted, the meeting was ad-

Sesqui Centennial Notes

Dr. M. C. S. Noble, of the University of N. C. visited Louisburg with his daughter Tuesday. He was born here 74 years ago and has always cherish. ed a love for Franklin county, and will be one of the speakers here July 4th.

Major James W. Jenkins visited The girls were defeated in an in here Wednesday and says he will be teresting game with Aycock Tuesday here with his Vance county military company to celebrate with us the 4th of July.

> Captain Edward F. Griffin will be in command of all military activities at our 4th of July Sesqui Centennial. Mr. Clifford Hall will have his Boy Scouts in service July 4th and will

A very large number of people have is very pleasing to every one.

COMMUNITY HATCHERY AT EDWARD BEST HIGH SCHOOL

The community hatchery at Edward Best High School began work last week with all available space filled with eggs. The incubator is so arranged that one third of the egg trays faint."

fruits, nuts, and grape juice.

After the feast, the guests enjoyed various Roman games such as paces. better are filled each week, thereby suiting the customers of the hatchery. The weekly capacity is sixteen trays holding 96 eggs each. Eggs to be "Love the Lord thy God, with all thy hatched should be brought in by noon reart, with all thy mind, with all thy each Thursday. Baby chicks will be delivered on Fridays. Reservations Reservations for hatching space should be made as early as possible. The hatchery will hav baby chicks for sale. Brooders and other poultry supplies can be will be welcomed at any time.

0

A. W. Green Speaks

To Kiwanians

ei child in the recent campaign. W. R. Parsons, James E. Malone, Jr., Tris amount will go to a special committee appointed by the president to and David Harris. elieve the under privileged children of Franklin county. The club thank-learn from the detailed report made ed the committee in charge of this by the Financial Committee on the fiwork for their untiring effort in rais_ ommittee were Sam P. Boddie, David harris and Jake Friedlander.

Mr. Arch W. Green, speaker of the of accounting in business. The paper was designed to bring to the attention of the club the possibility of teaching accounting in schools, and the importance of using accounting in every

David Harris offered to the club the suggestion that each member of Kivanis turn out to meet the inspection officers of the local Battery who are scheduled to inspect the local Battery "B" on Monday evening.
In the absence of Harry Johnson,

President, Billy Mills presided.

MRS. BICKETT SPEAKS AT ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

"Walking with God" is the subject that Mrs. T. W. Bickett spoke on the Lenten services at St. Paul's Epis copal church Wednesday afternoon in aboration of which she used this said "I attended the Centennial in our brothers, treating every one kind-Louisburg fifty years ago and will ly even the most lowly, as Christ did.

Live with him in thought as well as We wish every one who was here deed, know the words of our Lord, do fifty years ago would wear a rosette not neglect him and his duty. Pri-March 20. 'Each member invites a march 20. 'Each member invites a partner shad they are expecting a good time at Weldon's pond.

Those who were Marshals wear very real means of feeling the closeness of God, and of realizing that he what places they were to have at the language table. is an everpresent God. These are the Lanquet table. ways that we can walk with God, and Wisses Eliza Newell and Sadie Miss Elizabeth Johnson arrived if we follow them we will have Johnson, the two College Latin stuif we follow them we will be strength to arise in time of trouble dents were given the places of honor and we will be able to do the hardest on either side of the hostess. Miss task which God has assigned us, Shade. The visitors, reclining on namely, to walk day by day with him, their left elbows on couches about the tot forgetting him in time of trouble table partook in real Roman fashion when our need for him is greatest.
This, God has promised in these ham garden peak cheese clives raw This, God has promised in these ham, garden peas, cheese, clives, raw words, "They that put their trust in carro's, honey bread and butter, and ter have returned from Raleigh, after the Lord, shall renew their strength fruits, nuts, and grape juice."

We will always be close to God if which Christ left for us to abide by, "Love the Lord thy God, with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, love thy neighbor as thyself."

A PLAY AT JUSTICE

"He's My Pal," a comedy-drama in furnished to customers of the hatch-cry at a reasonable price. Visitors tice school auditorium, Wednesday evening, March 27, at 8 o'clock. Come Menu: Fruit Cocktail, Baked Chick en, Dressing, Pickles, Candied Potatoes, English Peas, Celery, Parker House Rolls, Coffee, Butterfly Salad, Saltines, Vanilla Ice Cream, Cake, Mints

FIRST BOXING MATCH TONIGHT

GREEN HILL GOLF CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Louisburg National Farm Loan Association, held in Louisburg on Tuesday morning, J. A. Spencer, G. E. Egerton, F. W. Justice, E. H. Ma. Let Child in Louisburg the Louisburg Kiwanis club met in their regular weekly luncheon Friday burg held its second annual meeting on March 12, and elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: President, L. L. Joyner; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. H. H. Johnson: Description of the stockholders of the Louisburg Kiwanis club met in their regular weekly luncheon Friday on March 12, and elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: President, L. L. Joyner; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. H. H. Johnson: Description of the Louisburg Kiwanis club met in their regular weekly luncheon Friday on March 12, and elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: President, L. L. Joyner; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. H. H. Johnson: Description of the control of the control of the special finance committee from chair and the control of the control o

The members were delighted to learn from the detailed report made nancial condition of the club that all ing the money. The members of this the indebtedness incurred in the construction and maintenance of the course and the purchase of the neces sary equipment had been paid in full. evening, read the club a very inter-lt was decided to continue the policy esting paper, dealing with the value of offering to the citizens of Franklin County the opportunity of playing golf, usually considered to be a game only for the wealth, at a low cost which will bring this most interesting game within the reach of all. It was also determined to limit the member. ship for the ensuing year to fifty. Reports from the various commit tees promise a most successful year for the Green Hill Club for 1929. The first tournament of the year is to be held Easter Monday, in charge ment, of Mr. P. S. Allen, Chairman of Social and Tournament Committee.

A Roman Banquet at College

A real Roman Banquet! That's what Miss Ethel Shade, Latin teacher in at Louisburg Collegge, surprised her students of High School and College Latin with on Monday night, March quetation, "I am the way, the truth and the life." Unless our way is his Latin in the form of a tiny scroll. On 18. To each of her students, she true and hones. Be adherent to of the banquet, and the menu. On its also were these words "Veni Togata, which informed the recipients tha they were to come garbed in togas like real Romans.

various Roman games such as races. Mr Pete Hoffman, salesman for wrestling matches, and fortune tell Stetson D College Boys' Clothes, is ing. Sibyil, one of the fates, told the spending two weeks in Louisburg. we keep the two great commandments fortunes of those present by present ing them with golden autumn leaves on which fortunes were inscribed.

Those who had the pleasure of at-tending this feast were: Misses Eliza Newell, Sadie Johnson, Dorothy Stal. lings, Caroline Horton, Jeanie Tingle, Irlene Kent, Mavis Kinlaw and Anna of her brother, Prof. Raymond Tay-delightful program of songs and reci- week. tations, together with an operate titled "Goldilocks and the Three titled "Goldilocks and the Three Bears," which the children present ney Parks, of Baltimore, visited Henderson, Durham and Wake Forest Bears," which the children.

Bears," which the children.

At the beginning of the program, prayer was said by Mr. A. W. Person, and during an intermission Mr. L. W. Alderman, manager, told of the work appears to the control of I eputy Grand Master F. A. Roth spoke in behalf of the Masons of this community and district.

This concert was given in the Win-ner Theatre, use of which was so kindly granted by Mr. R. R. Kissell.

Much Interest In

Training School

The County-Wide Training School of the Mathodist Church, which began at Louisburg College on Sunday night March 17, is enjoying a splendid ses. being around seventy-five or eighty. All of the circuits in the county, the town of Louisburg, and the College are well represented. The public is invited to attend any and all nights of the school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. King and children, Mrs. Mary Gray King and Miss Lucie Allen went to Raleigh Sunday to see Mr. Alex Clifton at Rex Hospital.

Palm Sunday at St. Double is invited to attend any and all nights of the school. sion. Attendance upon the courses offered is very good, the enrollment

PASTURE PAYS WELL

School community Monday night about their pastures. Mr. Kirby clearly showed how pastures can be made the Louisburg's first boxing show will be staged here Friday, March 22nd, (tonight) under the auspices of Battery "B." The main feature bout will be tween Firpo Hipps, Wake Forest's favorite, and Jimmie Miller, Henderson, N. C., former Carolna star. There will be six other feature bouts and a Battle Royal among five colored boys.

Mr. Sam Parks, who has been says that he is arranged for four of the leading amateur boxers of Baltimore, Md. to meet the best of North Carolina boxers.

The show will be staged the Planters Warehouse, and you care Ringside seats at the Planters Warehouse, and you care Ringside seats at the Planters Warehouse, and you care Ringside seats at the Planters Warehouse, and you care Ringside seats at the Planters Warehouse, and you care Ringside seats at the Planters Warehouse, and you care Ringside seats at the Planters Warehouse, and you care Ringside seats at the Planters Warehouse, and you care Ringside seats at the Ringside seats at most productive acres on a farm. Mr. M. R. Sykes told how much the pasture he started last year under Mr. Kirby's aupervision had saved him.

Subscribe to "he Franklin Times

AMONG THE VISITORS

SOME YOU KNOW AND SOME YOU Personal Items about Folks And Their Friends Who Travel Here And There. Supt. E. C. Perry visited Raleigh

> Miss Margaret Inscoe spent Sunday in Raleigh. Dr. H. H. Johnson visited Baltimore the past week. Supt. O. C. Hill visited Raleigh on Tuesday.

Supt. O. C. business Monday. Capt. E. F. Griffin visited Wilming.

ton the past week. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Collie, of Raleigh, visited Louisburg Sunday.

Judge and Mrs. G. M. Beam and children visited Raleigh Wednesday.

Mr. A. A. Clifton was taken to Rex. Hospital, Raleigh, Sunday for treat-

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barrow and Miss Francis Barrow spent yesterday in

Miss Lucie Allen visited relatives in Greensboro and Salisbury last

Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Perry paid Pocky Mount a professional Tuesday

Mesdames R. G. Bailey and D. F. McKinne were Raleigh shoppers last Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Perry and Mrs.

A. Underhill and daughter, visited Raleigh Wednesday. Dr. and Mrs. Ivan Proctor, of Raleigh, spent Tuesday evening with Mr.

and Mrs. E. F. Thomas.

spend the Spring holidays. Mrs. Julia P. Scott, Mrs. Robert Pleasants and Miss Marie Meade were Raleigh visitors last Friday.

a week's visit to relatives.

Mr. Hugh Pearce, of Raleigh, spent Wednesday and Thursday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Pearce. Miss Gladys Taylor was in Greens.

boro for the past week end, the guest Mrs. T. W. Bickett and Mrs. M. J.

Hawkins, of Raleigh, were visitors to Orphans Concert Dr. and Mrs. R. F. Yarborough Sun-

Miss Louise Thomas, Mrs. Lil Klein and Mr. Paul Allen of Raleigh, same over Sunday and spent the day with relatives and friends.

Misses Kate Allen and Pig Beck spent Saturday in Raleigh and were accompanied home by Mr. Sam Allen, who is a student at State College.

Messrs. Edward Yarborough, William Mills, Louis Scoggin and Charles Ford of the University of N. C. are spending the Spring holidays at home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. King and child-

Palm Sunday, which commemorates PASTURE PAYS WELL

FOR M. R. SYKES

Mr. S. J. Kirby, Extension Agronomist of State College, talked to a group of farmers in Edward Best High about 16 a. m. 10 a. m.

Orphans at Castalia

most productive acres on a farm. Mr.

M. R. Sykes told how much the pasture he started last year under Mr.

Kirby's appervision had saved him.

Mr. Sykes will be glad to show any one interested how his pasture saves him money and makes money for him.

Subscribe to the Franklin Times. pected on this occasion.