PRESENTS FLAG
AND BIBLE

To Cedar Rock Elementary School—
White Level Council Junior Order
Arranges Splendid Program—Large Number in Attendance.

Very interesting and appropriate ceremonies took place at the Cedar Rock Elementary school on Sunday afternoon, April 14, when the White Level Council Junior Order presented a Bible and Flag to the school.

"America" was sung by the audience, immediately after which prayer was said by Rev. J. S. Hopkins.

The Address of Welcome, by Miss Eva Cooke, Principal of the Cedar Rock Elementary School, was short and concise but directly to the point. There are sad words and glad words in the dictionary, said Miss Cooke. "Welcome," we know, is a glad word when we discover that the definition is "to receive with gladness." In welcoming the Juniors especially, she said that she welcomed them for two main reasons, because of the purpose for which they were organized, and because they presented the two things best loved by Christian America—the Bible and the American Flag. The Junior Order, said Miss Cooke, reminded her of a wedge which pushed closer together the four planks in the bridge of life, namely those of religion, education, of society and of politics, lessening to a great degree, the size of the crevices between them.

In the absence of Mr. C. E. Jeffreys, Mr. A. F. Johnson acted as Master of Ceremonies, and introduced to the audience Mr. J. I. White, District Deputy of the Junior Order for Eastern North Carolina, who made the address of the afternoon. First of all, Mr. White told those present how glad he was to speak to an audience 100 per cent American. Our nation has a wonderful record in peace, a glorious record in war; but these great facts should not make us feel satisfied with things as they are. Our forefathers sacrificed their lives that they might hand these things down to us, their inheritors, and it is up to us to leave them better than we have received them.

Every organization worthwhile has had opposition. Just so with the Junior Order. But Americanism and the flag which stands for Americanism had to be protected.

Those who live clean lives abiding by the three cardinal principles of the Junior Order, virtue, liberty, and patriotism, are a blessing to their community, and will leave the world better for having lived in it.

The Junior Order, said Mr. White, is lending a helping hand to those into whose lives shadows have crept. It is now maintaining an orphanage, there being two units, one at Tiffin, Ohio, and one at Lexington, N. C., the total number of children cared for being fifteen hundred. Helping others is the only real happiness in life.

It has often been asked, "How long will the Junior Order exist?" According to Mr. White, it will live, on account of its principles, as long as this nation exists, as long as human beings need assistance.

In presenting the flag, Major Bodie gave his own interpretation of its meaning. When he looked at the blue in the flag, he said he thought of the courage of our forefathers which made our country free; the white stars he said reminded him of the states to which the flag is forever an inspiration, the red stripes of the blood shed by our forefathers, and the white stripes of the purity of purpose in the drafting of the Constitution of the United States which guarantees liberty and freedom to each of its citizens. Major Bodie ended by saying that he thought that the Bible should come first above everything, and then the flag which stands for protecting everything in the Bible.

The flag was accepted by A. F. Johnson, Chairman of the County Board of Education, who assured the donors that he was delighted to accept the flag for Cedar Rock school and in the spirit in which it was given to bespeak the inculcation of its teachings in the generations to pass through this school.

Rev. J. F. Roach delivered the Bible to the school, speaking of the Junior Order as a companion to the community, and likening it to the companion of a child—its mother who will do nothing to hurt its life. Children should be taught the word of God that they may make it a companion through life.

The Bible was accepted with the deepest gratitude and greatest appreciation in behalf of the school by Supervising Principal T. H. Sledge, of the Edward Best School District.

Special music was furnished by the White Level Male Quartette.

As the last part of the program, the flag was raised in front of the building, while the audience sang the "Star Spangled Banner."

Rowan county has broken the record for the state in that 20,000 acres of small grain land was seeded to some kind of clover this spring. Sweet clover was planted on much of the acreage.

LANCASTER GETS STRONG SENTENCE

In disposing of the case of State vs. Lonnie Lancaster, for his Saturday's escapade in Louisburg, Judge Palmer stated in Franklin Recorder's Court Monday, that while he sympathized with his parents, and took due recognition of the evidence of his good behavior when not under the influence of whiskey, that it was his duty to enforce the laws that are intended to protect the public, however he was willing to make such a sentence that would give him a chance to overcome his falling and become a useful citizen if he wished to do so, otherwise he could pay the penalty of his folly. Quite a bit of interest was shown in this case as the Court room was packed with spectators. The docket Monday was small and was disposed of as follows:

State vs. H. A. McGhee, bad check, pleads nolo contendere, defendant having paid check judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

State vs. Chufus Loyd, unlawful possession of whiskey, guilty, fined $50 and costs.

State vs. Lonnie Lancaster, operating automobile intoxicated and assault with deadly weapon, pleads guilty to first charge, 12 months on roads and to pay a fine of $250.00 and costs, the road sentence is suspended for a period of two years conditioned upon his good behavior and to give a $1,000 bond for his appearance each first Monday during said period of two years and show to the satisfaction of this court that he has not violated the term of his parole, to-wit: that he has been sober and of good behavior for said term, and it was further ordered that the defendant refrain from operating any motor vehicle in the State of North Carolina for a period of twelve months. In the case of assault with deadly weapon, found guilty, prayer for judgment continued until Monday, April 22nd.

State vs. Dave Price, operating automobile intoxicated, pleads guilty, fined $50 and costs and not to drive a motor vehicle for 90 days.

ANOTHER BOXING
SHOW TO-NIGHT

Another good boxing card has been arranged for Friday, April 19th (to-night) at the Planters Warehouse. Six good bouts have been booked.

The main bout will be between Obie Davis, of the University of North Carolina and Jimmy Miller, of Henderson. Maynard Harper, of Wake Forest, who won his last bout here will meet the best boy obtainable at Carolina.

Big Bill Suggs, of Carolina will meet Billy Burgess, of Wake Forest College. They are heavy-weights. This should be a real treat.

Archie Parker, a very clever boy from Wake Forest, who is undefeated will meet Cohen, of Carolina, a Varsity man.

A real treat is in store for the spectators, "K. O. Terrapin" and "Battling Jaybird", two colored glove slingers, will decide who is the colored lightweight champion of Franklin County.

There will also be another good bout, making six good bouts. This card should be the best one so far.

From time to time boys from the various colleges will be tried out here and the public will get the best shows possible. The boxing fans in this section are enjoying the shows and the crowds are getting larger with each show.

Tickets have already been put on sale at the Rendezvous, and from the advance sale a very large crowd is expected.

WEBB-ELLIS

A surprise marriage of much interest was solemnized on Sunday, April 14 about 7 o'clock when Miss Myrtle Louise Ellis and Mr. William C. Webb were united in matrimony by Rev. Daniel C. Lane, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Mrs. Webb is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of the late Mr. E. W. Ellis and Mrs. Ellis, of Henderson and attended Henderson High School there. She has held a most responsible position with the Home Telephone & Telegraph Company here for the past two years, and has won the admiration and esteem of all who know her.

Mr. Webb is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Webb, of this city. He is a graduate of the Wake Forest Law School. Since his admission to the bar about a year ago, he has been practicing law in Raleigh.

This young couple enjoys the good will of a large number of friends.

There are plenty of men who never have any peace of mind because their wives are constantly giving them a piece of theirs.

Ten cars of hogs have been shipped from Beaufort County as a start in the swine work this spring.

Tests to determine the best fertilizer treatment for peanuts have been started in Hertford County.

DR. GILBERT T. ROWE

who will conduct Evangelistic Services at the Methodist Church beginning next Sunday morning and lasting through April 28th. Dr. Rowe is Dean of Christian Doctrine at Duke University, and is an Author, Editor, Educator, Humorist and Preacher of National Renown. Dr. Rowe will preach Sunday morning at 11 A. M. and at 7:30 P. M. throughout the week. All are invited to attend these services.

EXCITEMENT RAMPANT IN LOUISBURG SATURDAY

Quite a bit of excitement was created on the streets of Louisburg Saturday afternoon when Mr. Lonnie Lancaster, under the influence of whiskey, drove his car through the streets at a rapid and dangerous speed. He was stopped near the postoffice by Chief of Police Meadows who stepped upon the running board of Lancaster's car to get out of the traffic, when Lancaster started off, sideswiping another car and knocking Chief Meadows off. He drove to Church street, turned and returned through town going out Nash street until he collided with a Pontiac automobile owned by Mr. W. T. Gupton, parked in front of Mr. J. R. Williams. Officers arrived and took him into custody. Much damage was done both cars.

Chief of Police B. H. Meadows who was knocked from Lancaster's car at the beginning of the excitement received painful injuries and was taken into Dr. Perry's office for treatment.

While the officers were locking Lancaster up at jail the excitement increased and several scraps ensued, during which Constable Frank Ayscough, of Hayesville township, who was assisting the officers, received a lick on the head with a hammer from Mr. Willie Pearce, a brother-in-law of Mr. Lancaster, and several minor scraps were in evidence before the excitement finally subsided.

TWO LOSE LIVES
IN AUTO WRECK

Miss Evelyn Perry and I. H. Freeman
Killed When Roadster Leaves Road.

Miss Evelyn Perry, employee of the Revenue Department, and I. H. Freeman, Wake Forest automobile dealer, who were killed when their speeding car turned over on Route 21, three miles south of Raleigh, late Friday night, will be buried today.

The body of Miss Perry will be carried from the Mitchell Funeral Home to the home of her grandfather, John Williams, in Louisburg and the funeral will be held at Louisburg at 4 o'clock this evening.

The funeral of Mr. Freeman will be held at Rolesville Baptist church, of which he was a member, at Rolesville this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Coroner L. M. Waring's jury, which held an inquest yesterday morning, attributed the tragic accident to the high speed at which the car was traveling when it swerved from the road and turned over three times, breaking the necks and crushing the bodies of both young people. F. M. Reigler, a Raleigh traveling salesman, testified that the car, which was headed to Raleigh, passed him just a few minutes before it left the road. It was, he stated, traveling at a high rate of speed.

Miss Perry, who lived at the corner of Lane and Person streets, was 19 years old. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Lucy W. Perry, and a brother, Robert B. Perry, both of Louisburg. She was educated at Youngsville High School and Louisburg College. At high school she was president of the senior class and was voted the best all round student. She also made a good record at Louisburg.

Ivey Homer Freeman was 29 years old. During his brief business career, he had given every proof of outstanding ability. He ran garages and sold cars at both Wake Forest and Youngsville, and was very popular in those communities.

He is survived by his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Freeman; a sister, Mrs. L. S. Rogers, and four brothers, Jessie, Listen and Lexie Freeman, of Wake Forest, and W. R. Freeman, of Youngsville.

Pallbearers for Miss Perry will be former high school class mates. The funeral will be conducted by Rev. C. B. Howard, pastor of the Youngsville Baptist church, assisted by Rev. Julius Hopkins, pastor of Castalia Baptist church.

The pallbearers for Mr. Freeman will be R. P. Rogers, George Mitchell, Chelse Williams, H. L. Miller, B. E. F. Bunn, all employees in Mr. Freeman's garage, and Willis Pearce, his room mate.—News-Observer.

The funeral of Miss Perry was held from the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Williams, on East Nash Street, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, conducted by Rev. C. B. Howard and J. S. Hopkins, and the interment was made at Oaklawn cemetery.

The pallbearers were classmates of the deceased. The floral tribute was especially large and beautiful and spoke a beautiful message of love and sympathy.

Large crowds attended both services to pay a last sad tribute.

The bereaved mother and relatives have the deepest sympathy of all.

Chief Clark Narrowly
Escapes Being Murdered

Chief of Police R. Z. Clarke, of Franklinton, narrowly escaped being murdered Sunday night about 9:30 o'clock by two unidentified negroes on the Seaboard yards at Franklinton. Chief Clarke was in Louisburg Monday and told of his trying ordeal. He stated that he had gone to the railroad yards looking for two escaped negroes who had killed a police officer in Virginia, and ran across two negro hoboes. He arrested them and was taking them to a nearby light to search them. A train was approaching and one of the negroes called "look out" and when he, Clarke, looked one of the negroes grabbed him by the throat and the other one caught him. The negroes scuffled with him to get the officer under the train and almost succeeded when Chief Clarke managed to get his gun out and shot one through the shoulder and attempted to shoot the other one but the gun wouldn't fire. The negro grabbed the gun, took it away from the officer and tried to shoot him with it but again it wouldn't fire. In the scuffle Clarke lost his black jack and his hat. He succeeded in getting loose and ran to safety. The negroes escaped. Bloodhounds were taken to the scene by Constable A. S. Wiggs, but could not track the negroes.

Chief Clarke wore evidence of a scuffle. His throat was bruised, his face scratched, his forehead skinned where he was evidently hit with some short instrument, and his hand and arm was bruised and skin broken.

Due to the steady increase in the sale of silk stockings, cotton stockings are about on their last legs.

It's a queer twist of this life that you always have plenty of time in old age when you don't need it.
