MRS. R. C. COLLINS DEAD

Mrs. Roger Collins died at her sisters' home, Mrs. J. R. Moore, near Hickory Rock Baptist church Monday afternoon Sept. 23, 1929. The deceased had been in ill health for about four years or more. She was a great lover of home, and a devoted wife, therefore devoted most of her time with her home.

Mrs. Collins before her marriage was Miss Clara Bradshaw Bobbitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reddin Bobbitt who died two years and three months ago. Mrs. Collins was born April 16, 1897, died Sept. 23, 1929.

She was united to the church at the age of twelve. In 1916 she moved her membership from Sandy Creek to Hickory Rock Baptist church, where she remained until death.

Clara, as we called her, was a most estimable woman, having won friends of all her acquaintances through her sympathetic and pleasing disposition.

She was a Christian woman, who got much pleasure in bearing witness for her Savior. She greeted everyone she met with a smile, and had a word for everybody. Clara felt as if she hadn't ever done enough for her friends, always had a willing hand to help in anything she could do.

Jan. 18, 1920 she was married to R. C. Collins, to this union no children were born. She leaves three sisters and two brothers, Mrs. P. D. Gupton of Henderson, N. C.; Mrs. O. F. Ball, Mrs. J. R. Moore, C. E. and J. J. Bobbitt, of Louisburg, N. C.; and husband.

The funeral services were held from the old home place on Wednesday afternoon. Conducted by her pastor Rev. Clyde Yates of Wake Forest N. C., who spoke words for the living, how we should live. It was responded by Rev. G. W. May of Centerville, Rev. J. J. Murray and S. L. Blanton of Louisburg. The interment was made in the family cemetery at home. The pall-bearers were P. D. Gupton, O. B. Ball, J. R. Moore, Haywood Ball, Walter and Royal Strange, Honorary: P. E. Dean, Arthur Inscos, Obie Bartholomew, John Inscos and J. J. Dean. Kind and tender expressions of love and sympathy was shown by the many friends in attendance.

She will be long remembered by her many friends.

The floral tribute was profuse and beautiful and carried by her neices and girl friends, Misses Mildred Bobbitt, Cora Bobbitt, Josephine Ball, Mary Helen Gupton, Vivian Gupton, Lillian Johnson, Ruby Tharrington, Genevia Bartholomew, Mamie Swanson, and Zenobia Baker. The bereaved family has the sympathy of the entire community. A. L. B.

DORIS MARIE JENNINGS

On Monday, September the eighteenth, in nineteen-hundred and twenty-seven, God sent a little bud to earth, to live with Willie and Mattie Jennings. This little flower was in the form of a baby girl. They called her Doris Marie.

Little Doris was bright as a sunbeam in the home. It seemed that her mission here was to scatter light and radiate happiness wherever she went. Always she was ready to smile for those she loved, and all who knew her loved her.

But her mission here was short, making her stay on earth a visit. That visit will always be remembered with tenderness, for the sunshine that she spread.

Little Doris had been slightly ill for about a week when she calmly closed her eyes in sleep to awake in Jesus. At this time she was two years, twenty-two days old. Her death occurring on the ninth day of October.

To us it is a mystery that one we love so well should be taken from us. But, "God works in a mysterious way. His wonders to perform."

She leaves to mourn her loss her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Jennings and little infant brother, Willie Junior, of Franklinton, besides a number of relatives and friends.

The little body was laid to rest in the cemetery of Maple Springs Baptist church. Rev. Stamps of Louisburg and Rev. Mr. J. O. Ball of Franklinton conducted the funeral services.

Friends and relatives gathered around the little grave of Doris, to pay a last sad tribute. The many flowers were tokens of love to her.

The family has the heart-felt sympathy of friends.

EPSOM SCHOOL NEWS

Community Fair
The Community Fair held on the school grounds, Thursday and Friday Oct 3-4, was a great success. The exhibits were very good and showed that our community is getting the idea of living at home, more and more.

Girls Baseball Team
Because the weather is to hot to start Basket Ball, and as most schools in the County have girl baseball teams, the girls decided to try their luck at it. They have only practised one week but showed up splendid at the preliminary held at Gold Sand last Friday, October 11, to see which schools would play at the County Fair. Epsom played Franklinton,

The scores being 28-31 in favor of Epsom.

Better Speech Club
The tenth and eleventh grades have organized a Better Speech Club. Mary Eleanor Jones is president. Everytime a student hears a mistake in someone's English, he writes it down on a slip of paper which is handed to the president. Once each week the class period is used in discussing these mistakes. This makes the mistakes more noticeable.

Glee Club
Miss Elizabeth Fuller, our music teacher, organized a Glee Club about two weeks ago. Many showed interest and everything seems to be progressing nicely because their voices penetrate most every nook and corner of the building, when they are practising.
