The Best From Edward Best
Our eight grade class A is very proud of the attendance. During the new year we have had twenty-five present for several days, and hope to continue to do so. We had a visitor on Thursday, Mr. Glenwood Hill. He made an interesting talk in English class. Our boys are liking their new Agriculture teachers, Mr. Eagle and Mr. McLean.

Dramatic Club Entertains at a Weiner Roast

On Wednesday evening January 15, 1930 at 7.30 o'clock the Dramatic Club of E. B. H. S. entertained the faculty and other guests, at a weiner roast. Due to the bad weather, it was held in the Home Economic rooms.
An interesting program was enjoyed by all present. Professor T. H. Sledge spoke on "Spirit." He said that he thought the Edward Best boys and girls had a very good spirit. After his talk every one assembled in the kitchen and roasted weiners and toasted marshmallows.
Having spent a delightful evening of fun, the club members left hoping that in the near future they would meet again on another weiner roast.

Chapel Program—Jan. 18.

On Monday, January 13, Mr. Hopkins made a very interesting talk on "Others". Some of his points were taken from the "Biblical Recorder" and Matthew 7:12: "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do you even so to them." In obeying this verse we are living lives of helpfulness to others.
There is a pathetic story told by great John Booth, leader of the Salvation Army. He wanted to get one word to his army. This word was "others". Why should our lives be spent in brotherly activity? Because it is a debt which we owe. Others have made us largely what we are. "Others have labored and we have entered into their labors. The good school systems of today were made possible by "others." Also roads, modern inventions and other things were done by others. Great men learned to control diseases. All these things could be appreciated.
A life of helpfulness to others is an investment. We should not only live for ourselves but for others. Jesus lived for others and he died for others. The investment of life begins in the home with the father and mother. A life of helpfulness to others is a test to show the faith of our lives.
Thus the reason why we should help others are (1) a debt; (2) an investment and a sure test. How might we do it?
"Do unto others as we would have them do unto us."
"That men may last, but never lives, Who much receives, but nothing gives,
Whom none can lose, whom none can thank
Creations blot, Creations' blank.
But he who makes from day to day
In generous deeds, his noble way,
Treads the same path the Savior trod,
The path to glory and to God.

Glee Club News

English Class
In 1930 it is the aim of each Junior to have a better appreciation for good literature than before. Most of the Juniors are already learning to enjoy literature.
January 15, a very interesting English lesson was taught by Miss Guppen. The class began when three girls sang a song. We were greatly surprised to learn that Elizabeth Southall was among our best singers. Congratulations, we expect to hear your musical voice in later years.
After the song Ruby May gave a

Since Christmas we have studied plays. As a whole "Enter the Hero" was enjoyed more. From day to day talent is displayed by members of our class in portraying some character studied or in singing or drawing.

WHAT DR. CALDWELL LEARNED IN 47 YEARS PRACTICE

A physician watched the results of constipation for 47 years, and believed that no matter how careful people are of their health, diet and exercise, constipation will occur from time to time. Of next importance, then, is how to treat it when it comes. Dr. Caldwell always was in favor of getting as close to nature as possible, hence his remedy for constipation, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a mild vegetable compound. It can not harm the system and is not habit forming. Syrup Pepsin is pleasant-tasting, and youngsters love it.
Dr. Caldwell did not approve of drastic physics and purges. He did not believe they were good for anybody's system. In a practice of 47 years he never saw any reason for their use when Syrup Pepsin will empty the bowels just as promptly.
Do not let a day go by without a bowel movement. Do not sit and hope, but go to the nearest drug store and get one of the generous bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, or write "Syrup Pepsin," Dept. BB, Monticello, Illinois, for free trial bottle.
