In their vote of confidence to the Bishops against whom charges had been preferred the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church at Dallas, Texas, this week puts its approval and endorsement upon the political and other non religious activities of its Bishops and through it all members. Some religious elasticity.

Owen J. Roberts, of Philadelphia, has been appointed to the Associate Judgeship of the U. S. Supreme Court, to succeed the late Justice Sandford, and to which position confirmation of Judge Parker, was withheld by the Senate. No doubt this appointment will be confirmed without delay, and the South will still be without representation.

Generally speaking the action of the Court in the cases against the Commissioners Tuesday is meeting the approval of the public in Franklin County. Only a small per centage of the people really believed the Commissioners were guilty of any criminal act. The view of the Commissioners was one of justice and their act was one of legal authority. The Court took this view of the cases and ordered a non suit in the criminal charges, which seems proper and to meet the general approval.

Hon. Josephus Daniels is to be commended for his position to prefer charges against Bishop Cannon for his stock market activities before the general conference at Dallas. If he is sincerely interested in the future growth and influence of the Methodist church he will include political activities, not only of Bishop Cannon, but all others. Politics and religion won't mix. Churches can have their greatest influence on politics by adhering strictly to religious teachings, making their influence indirect.

The Board of Education is considering suggesting to the different school committees a plan whereby the number of holidays during the school term will be reduced to the minimum and during the months of December, January and February and possibly March that school be taught six days to the week instead of five as heretofore. These suggestions are being considered in the interest of letting the children out of school earlier in the Spring to help with farm work and at the same time not reduce their school opportunities. It is also being suggested that as far as possible all schools in the County begin and close at the same time. Each of these suggestions seem to be good and wise. The patrons of the schools should give them careful consideration in order to be in position to act wisely upon them when they are submitted.

Simmons Voted For Raskob

Senator F. M. Simmons has been voicing anew his opposition to John J. Raskob as chairman of the Democratic National Committee, the latest statements being timed, apparently, so as to have the greatest influence in the senatorial race in North Carolina, where charges have been made—without any basis in fact—that Simmons' opponent, J. W. Bailey, is the representative of Raskob.

Well, let's see about this Simmons' opposition to Mr. Raskob. When the latter was named chairman of the Committee on July 12, 1928, Senator Simmons was a member, having been re-elected only a few weeks before. He did not appear at the meeting which elected Raskob, but sent his secretary, Frank Hampton, who had with him the Simmons proxy. When Governor Smith expressed his preference for Raskob, the Committee took a vote and, according to press dispatches of that time, elected Raskob without a dissenting voice. In other words, Hampton as the representative of Simmons voted to elect Raskob to head the Democratic National Committee. The senator has never voiced, so far as newspaper reports show, any criticism of Mr. Hampton for his action. All of this may not be very important, but we may as well keep history straight. Simmons is playing the Raskob issue to the limit so it may be just as well to let the voters know that Mr. Simmons, through his proxy, helped to elect Raskob to the post he now holds.—Greensboro Daily Record, April 15, 1930.

Club Meetings

A shady place on the lawn at the home of Mrs. N. H. Griffin was a comfortable meeting place of the Centerville Club Tuesday afternoon. The club decided it would be a pleasant

place to meet throughout the summer.

One new member was enrolled.

Mrs. G. W. May told of standards for good butter. Standards for pickle, and other canned goods were discussed.

On account of some of the members

wishing to attend the water-in-the-kitchen demonstration at Gold Sand

the Mapleville Club met on Wednesday

instead of Thursday of last week.

Attendance fell off somewhat from

what it had been in the winter months

being this time 44 per cent of the enrollment. Mrs. Oliver Perry read an interesting paper on Butter Making,

showing what constitutes a high grade

butter and how it is made. Standard packs of pickle, preserves, and canned goods for exhibit and the fair was discussed.

The Mapleville Girls Club met in the shade of the school yard Wednesday afternoon. The secretary, being absent, Ernestine Perry, was elected acting secretary. The home agent discussed the four-H. Health. Most of the girls present had something to report. Ernestine Perry had some interesting riddles to ask and the meeting closed with games.

met the day before the Memorial Day celebration after a brief business meeting the time was spent in decorating the school building for the event. The club very much regrets losing its capable secretary, Mrs. Lawrence Miller, who is leaving the community for the summer. New members enrolled at this meeting were Mrs. Billy Bowden, Mrs. Joyner, Miss Effie May Joyner, Misses Thelma Harrison, Ethel Placid and Clara Hayes. Two new members, Mrs. G. C. Mullen and Miss Ruby Perry were enrolled at the meeting of Pine Ridge Club on Monday. This brings Pine Ridge's total of new members to seventeen. Mrs. Mac Mullen of Bunn was a visitor at the club. There were eleven members present. The program for May was carried out and arrangements made for representatives attending the leaders school at Bunn on the 30th.

Water Works Demonstration
A demonstration in installing a simple water system was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Parrish at Gold Sand Thursday. Mr. Parrish had everything ready and the ditch dug from the well to the house when Mr. Weaver, Agricultural Engineer from State College and Mr. Winchester, agricultural student who helped him arrived. The pitcher pump over the sink, sink drain and pipe to the well were soon installed. Mrs. Parrish is happy that she can get water into her kitchen without opening screen doors, and without going but into the cold in winter or the hot sun in summer. The total cost of materials used, including sink, pump, and pipes was sixteen dollars (retail prices, Louisburg).

At 2 o'clock club members and others interested met to see the demonstration and hear Mr. Weaver discuss "Inexpensive methods of getting water in the farm home." At the conclusion of the meeting the club served lemonade and ginger cakes. There will be another demonstration, this time on the installation of hydraulic ram, at the home of Miss Ethel Holmes in the Pope community on Saturday the 24th of this month.

J. C. LITTLE Candidate For Solicitor of the Seventh Judicial District

Through his supporters answers the attack and comparison, made upon him by certain members of the American Legion in the Franklin Times of May 3rd, 1930, and says:

1. Mr. Little, like all true, patriotic men, who, unfortunately, were unable to serve their country under arms during the World War, served as a humble citizen giving aid and support to the men at the front, and with the good men and women who, by force of circumstances, had to remain at home, prayed earnestly, suffered silently, and gave of his substance to his country until "IT HURT". Every citizen, young and old, rich and poor, high and humble, did his "BIT" in that terrible hour of trial and peril, and neither Mr. Brassfield or anyone else ought to capitalize patriotic service to their country and seek a reward therefor. Mr. Little does not ask your support because he met that crisis along with all citizens of this country bravely and unflinchingly. He did no more or less than all patriotic men and women.

Mr. Little seeks the nomination for Solicitor in response to the demand of the people of this District for a prosecuting officer who will serve the people free from the domination of any Wake County Political Boss.

2. The Wake County Political Ring that sponsored Mr. Brassfield four years ago and defeated Evans, against the solemn protest of the voters of Franklin County, AT THE END OF EVANS' FIRST TERM, is the same political ring that still supports Mr. Brassfield.

It is the same Political Ring, headed by Buck Jones, that bitterly fought the nomination of that immortal leader of Democracy Woodrow Wilson and assailed and challenged his Democracy because the RING alleged Wilson refused to support William Jennings Bryan when Bryan was a candidate. This Ring, headed by Buck Jones is what Woodrow Wilson called the "SINISTER INFLUENCE" in American political life, and Wilson drove its like from the capitol of the Nation. And its influence will be driven from the Seventh Judicial District of North Carolina by the people. It does not, therefore, lie in the mouth of the supporters of Mr. Brassfield to question the Democracy of any man anywhere.

3. MR. BRASSFIELD'S SUPPORTERS CANNOT RAISE THE ISSUE THAT HE OUGHT NOT TO BE OPPOSED FOR A SECOND TERM. In response to the demand of the Wake County Political Ring he opposed EVANS FOR SOLICITOR AT THE END OF EVANS' FIRST TERM. The people of Franklin County were against Brassfield then and they are against him now. The people of Wake County are against Mr. Brassfield in this fight, and facing defeat he cannot in desperation appeal to the people of Franklin County by raising a spurious issue.

4. Mr. Little is a candidate of the people. He will not and by reason of his well known integrity cannot take orders from "fixers" and "manipulators". When nominated and elected he will do justice to all men—the rich and the poor, and even those provided with funds to employ lawyers who make a business of politics and brag of and advertise their ability to "fix things"—they will receive even handed justice and no more—but that is generally what they do not want.

5. The supporters of Mr. Little hoped that this campaign could be carried on free from personalities and mud slinging. It seems not; the supporters of Mr. Brassfield have started it, let them henceforth take the consequences.

WE FACE A PRESENT WAR. THE PEOPLE OF THE SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT ARE AGAINST THE WAKE COUNTY POLITICAL RING.

(This space paid for by loyal Democratic members of the American Legion of the Seventh Judicial District.)
