

HUGE ARMY OF 15,000 DEMAND SARGON DAILY

Vast Growing Army of Sargon Users, Marching Single File, Would Encircle Globe in Only Few Years Time

(By RICHARD L. SIMMS)

Atlanta, Ga.—More like a tale from the Arabian Nights of the marvelous growth and development of Sargon, the New Scientific Compound which has become the sensation of the drug trade throughout the United States, Canada and other countries.

The old illustration of the pebble dropped into the pool best describes the phenomenal and unprecedented demand and its fame is rapidly spreading over the entire American Continent like a great tidal wave.

Recently compiled figures reveal that approximately 15,000 men and women are marching into the drug stores daily for Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills, the marvelous new treatment that is restoring health to countless thousands by new and remarkable methods undreamed of only a few years ago.

Already more than 5,000,000 suffering men and women have put it to the test and have told other millions what it has done for them.

Marching in regulation U. S. Army fashion—single file—this vast army of Sargon users would reach from New York to San Francisco and at the present rate of sale—would, in a few years time, encircle the entire globe.

The only explanation of Sargon's triumph in the Medical World is Sargon's true worth. Back of its triumph in the drug stores is its triumph in the homes and it is the grateful endorsements of its millions of users that has made it the most widely talked of medicine in the world today. Sargon is extensively advertised, it is true, but no preparation, no matter how extensively advertised, could possibly meet with such phenomenal success unless it possessed absolute merit and extraordinary powers as a medicine.

There can be but one possible explanation for Sargon's amazing success and it can be told in one word—MERIT!

WOMEN OUTNUMBER MEN AT FARM CONVENTION

With a proportion of about 70 farm women to 30 men, the 28th annual session of the State Farmers' Convention held at State College last week was attended by approximately 1200 persons registering and hundreds of others who attended only for some special session.

The Convention this year was a made in Carolina edition. There were few outside speakers or lecturers but the occasion was made notable by the deep thoughtfulness and constructive suggestions offered by the farm men and women present as well as by the speakers selected by the program committee. There was something of interest to every rural citizen. In addition there was music, recreation, sight-seeing trips, contests demonstrations and other activities to break the continuous round of lectures and speeches.

Probably the most enjoyable feature of the week, in the opinion of most visitors, were the vesper services held on the campus each afternoon. The 17th Field Artillery Band from Fort Bragg gave an hour's concert, followed by community singing and by short speaking exercises.

The joint sessions of men and women each morning at eleven o'clock in Pullen Hall were addressed by leaders in various lines of agricultural and governmental work in the State. These events coupled with the course of instructional lectures given in the class rooms each morning from eight until eleven o'clock gave the Convention the well balanced program which causes it to attract hundreds of North Carolina farm leaders each successive summer.

Lateness of the tobacco crop this season and the heavy infestation of boll weevil in the cotton fields was given as the reason for fewer men attending this year than last.

If you want a cigarette that is milder and of better taste..

Smoke Chesterfield

MILDER, YES—BUT SOMETHING MORE. Chesterfield offers richness, aroma, satisfying flavor.

BETTER TASTE—that's the answer; and that's what smokers get in Chesterfield in fullest measure—the flavor and aroma of mellow tobaccos, exactly blended and cross-blended. Better taste, and milder too!

that it is playing out. At the Thursday meeting of the budget advisory commission Governor Gardner discussed with his associates the proposed economics in state government, including the horizontal cuts of 20 per cent in maintenance appropriations to the state institutions. His excellency had conferred with all institutional heads prior to that meeting and found them ready to go ahead after their reductions.

On the present showing and based on prospective collections the state July 31, 1931, will have a debit balance of $582,000, but the latitude in collections and in the estimates of revenue is great enough to reduce that overdraft to a nominal figure with more than a far chance to wipe it out entirely. In round numbers the state had anticipated $19,000,000 in revenues. That did not come. A cut of 20 per cent will reduce the revenues near $15,000,000 and a good year will start collections upward.

Depression which has settled over the East like a pall for years goes westward, according to observers and beautiful crops in the East promise food and much of it, though no great monetary return. The late farmers and farm women's convention in Raleigh reflected a rising hope. The people of the East have been so long without ready spending money that they are accustomed to their distress. They have not had their food. They have it now.

The farmers at this convention asked the state to take over the school system for six months. On roads they were less direct, suggesting that so soon as the state can do so it take over the roads also. The convention was very largely of women, though the men resolved as to schools and roads.

Sunday School Lesson

International Sunday School Lesson for August 10
HANNAH, A GODLY MOTHER
1 Samuel 1:9-18, 24-28; 2:19
Rev. Samuel D. Price, D.D.

While throngs may go into the churches only some are real worshippers. One of very devout soul was found in the tabernacle at Shiloh at the close of the period of the judges. While harsh events are taking place in war and state there is always a cottage by the side of the road from which a great leader will come forth. Thus a setting is made for the sight that greeted the eyes of aged Eli, the priest, who ministered in the portable tabernacle which had been carried during the journey from Mount Sinai to the Promised Land. There had been replacement of parts but it was still the place where God met with His children.

Hannah was bowed in prayer as could be noted by her moving lips, though no sound was heard by the observer. Eli came forward in rebuke and foolishly said she was intoxicated. Bold in her assertion of innocence this woman told in part what she had just been telling the Lord. She was one of the two wives in the home of Elkanah. Peninnah had borne him sons and daughters while she was still childless, and like every Hebrew wife eager to have a son. Because she had not been a mother she was taunted by Peninnah. Elkanah loved Hannah and was glad to give her a double portion of tasty food to indicate his favor, but this did not take away her heart hunger to become a mother. With directness she makes the matter the subject of prayer and is discovered while in devotion by Eli.

This priest can speak for God and at once declares that her ardent petition will be granted. Samuel is the answer to her prayer and the babe is cared for in the utmost of loving devotion. Added affection must be lavished in the earliest years for she had vowed to give him as a son of the tabernacle as soon as he was weaned, which may have been between the ages of three and five. To keep her promise Hannah returns to the tabernacle at Shiloh and reminds Eli of her specific prayer and its glorious answer. Though this is a lesson about Hannah it is natural to at least glance through the life of the son. Note first how the little fellow responded to the thrice repeated call of God during the night season as he said, "Speak Lord; for that servant heareth." 1 Samuel 3:9. Then observe how prayer is his great life work, in chapter 12:23. He was forced to lay down his judgeship but he would never cease his prayers for Israel.

Great songs come out of mighty triumphs. Hannah gave expression to her joy and thanksgiving in the Song that is recorded in chapter two. Note how she repeatedly gives all the glory to Jehovah. Turn also to the Magnificat, the Song of Mary, Luke 1:46-55 and observe how the Mother of Jesus rejoices in often similar words.

While Hannah cannot have her boy, in keeping her vow, she can make love garments for him. Each year she visits Samuel at Shiloh and brings a little coat in her joy and for his comfort. One practical application of this lesson study is to observe another Mother's Day though we have passed the second Sunday in May. The scope of our prayer life is also suggested. We are to take everything to the Lord in prayer and ask for anything that is right for us to have. Often we are uncertain what would be best for us, and at such times we are taught to safeguard our petitions with the prayer that Jesus used in the Garden of Gethsemane when he said so devoutly, "Not my will, but thine be done." Samuel had every reason to always be proud of his mother. He evidenced his fidelity by the way in which he did his part to live out the prayers of Hannah. The Golden Text is an introduction to every child: "My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the..." Proverbs 1:8.
