START DRIVE FOR EARLY AC-TION ON BONUS

Washington, Feb. 17.-A drive started today for Senate passage to-morrow of the World War veterans loan bill in exactly the same as it was passed by the House yesterday. Passage by Thursday appears cer-

A White House conference late in the day between Chairman Reed Smoot, of the Senate finance committee, and President Hoover led to mak ing of plans for passing the bill Thursday. This would place it on the President's desk Friday. Some leaders are urging President Hoover to sign the measure despite Secre-tary of Treasury Mellon's opposition and a veto is not regarded as a cer-Confers With Reed."

After the conference with Smoot, Mr. Hoover left his office at the White House proper an hour earlier than usual to meet Senator David A. Reed, Republican, Pennsylvania. It was understood they discussed a substitute veterare, bill stitute veterans' bill. Reed was with the President until nearly 6:30 p. m. When he emerged, he said he had been discussing several amendments which he hoped to have included in the bill, but that "the steam-roller is already working," and he did not have much hope for suc-

Reed's departure.

Two amendments were offered on the Senate floor to the loan bills. One was by Senator J. Thomas Hellin Democrat, Alabama, and would re-duce the interest rate. The other was by Senator Elmer Thomas, Democrat, Oklahoma, and would provide "that no interest shall be computed or collected by the government on loans made on certificates on which loans have already been made."

The leaders also plan to reduce the interest rate from 4 1-2 to 4 per cent, but House approval of this could be quickly obtained, they believe. Meanwhile, they held the Senate in session tonight in an effort to get fin-al action on some of the six pending appropriation bills.

Lively Debates.

The debate was interspersed with discussion of added drought relief proposals, and enlivened later by a oneman filibuster started by Senator Hugo L. Black, Democrat, Alabama, in an effort to force action on Muscle Shoals legislation.

Senator Reed said he wanted to propose some "horse-sense" amendments to make the plan workable. But the group led by Senators Couzens, Republican, Michigan, manifested impatience and made plans for the save of a published form to save Chairman Smoot promised on the Senate floor that the bill would be brought out for Senate action to-morrow. Under the rules, such circumstances require that the bill be held over for a day before being taken up. But the bill's supporters expect to be able to suspend the rules and take it up at once, insuring passage by Thursday at the latest.

NEW POLITICAL CRISIS IN SPAIN

Madrid, Feb. 17.—As King Alfonso strove today to give Spain a responsible government all indications that a new military dictatorship would be set up.

Long range guns were trained ominously on the city and machine guns had been placed strategically in preparation for any eventuality. Persistent reports gained credence that General Leopoldo Saro, former chief of the king's palace guards, would be the new dictator, Censorship was established again

Madrid, Feb. 17 .- A military movement, apparently intended to attempt the establishment of a military dictatorship, began late this afternoon.
Two artillery units near Madrid mounted long range guns and train-ed them upon the capital. Civil guards were being mobilized through-out the city this afternoon.

Machine guns were placed at all strategic points and troops were held in their barracks in readiness for acm their barracks in readiness for action if it should become necessary.

Madrid, Feb. 17.—A new political crisis, in which loomed the threat of a military dictatorship, was thrust upon Spain today at noon with failure of ure of Jose Antonio Sanchez Guerra to form a government on a basis of liberal constitutional devision.

Sanchez Guerra, designated by King Alfonso yesterday to get together a cabinet, went to the palace at noon today and informed the King that he had been unable to secure the colla-boration of the Republicans and Socialists, radical left groups, and would have to renounce his task.

He advised the King to call upon Melquiades Alvarez, another advocate of constitutional revision to limit the powers of the throne and leader of the "reformist" group of the Spanish conservative party. Alvarez, if anything, would be regarded as more radical than Sanchez Guerra, whose designation by the King yesterday was regarded by monarchists as a surrender to the extremists.

The development, which came with astonishing suddeness, threw the political situation into the utmost confusion and made developments extremely uncertain.

A large military elique is extremely dissatisfied with yesterday's events, which they consider constitutes an unnecessary surrender by the King of Royal perrogative, and it was within the rounds of possibil-ity today that some section of the group would attempt a coup d'etat to reestablish a dictatorship similar to that of the late General Primo de Rivera.

Sanchez Guerra failed to get together a cabinet on what probably was the most liberal program a premier designate has advanced since the days of the Spanish republic in the early seventies.

Before accepting the King's invitation to head a new government to replace that of General Damaso Berenguer which resigned Saturday, he exacted a promise from the King to call a constitutional convention which would rewrite the constitution of 1876 and decide what form the future Spanish government was to take.
