Prince in Panama

The Prince of Wales stopped off in Panama on the way to South America and General Preston Brown, U. S. Aviation Corps, commandant at France Field, showed him around. The Prince was very informal about it, as the photograph shows.

U. D. C. Entertained

The monthly meeting of the Joseph J. Davis Chapter U. D. C. was held at the home of Mrs. W. B. Barrow Tuesday afternoon March 3, 1931. It was a most enjoyable meeting, though very few of the members were present, some kept away on account of sickness. We were glad to have as our guests Mrs. Jones, mother of our president, and Miss Annie Green.

The meeting came to order and the Ritual of the U. D. C. used, led by the president and prayer read by our chaplain. The minutes of the January meeting were read by the secretary and approved, then the business for the afternoon was taken up. Letters of different matters read and discussed. Stratford, the home of Gen. Lee, Fort Fisher and Confederate Leadership Extension Work at Chapel Hill were the chief subjects. The payment of the assessment for Fort Fisher to be made this month. Cards of thanks for flowers had been received from Miss Mabel Davis and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bobbitt.

A committee was appointed to write resolutions in memory of Mr. J. H. Bobbitt, the last of the Confederate soldiers living in Louisville, who died February 26, 1931. A copy to be sent to the FRANKLIN TIMES, The Confederate Veteran and a copy placed with the minutes of the U. D. C.

The report from the treasurer stating that all payments up to March 1st had been made was very gratifying. The following program has been arranged:

"Honoring the President General," C. S. M. A. Mrs. A. McD. Wilson of Atlanta. The occasion being her seventy-fifth birthday and was observed at "Wren's Nest", home of the late Joel Chandler Harris, the South's own "Uncle Remus", read by Mrs. J. W. Mann.

"A Child's Recollection of War", by Mrs. Anne Banister Pryor, read by Mrs. W. B. Barrow. "A Tribute to General R. E. Lee", by Woodrow Wilson, read by Miss Sallie Betts. All of these were well written articles and enjoyed by every one present.

The hostess served delicious sandwiches, tea and home-made candy. After which the meeting adjourned. SUE T. ALSTON, Sec'y.

Farm To Make A Living In 1931

The maximum drought loan from the government for anyone landlord and his tenants has been increased from $600.00 to $2000.00. To those who are borrowing lets not be too optimistic and attempt to borrow the full amount if you do not need it. We have already experienced some difficulty and unpleasantness caused by individuals borrowing last year more than they needed and failing to pay it back. This failure to repay it is causing their applications to be cut more severely.

Don't forget the slogan "Farm to make a Living in 1931". Let's not change that to read "Farm to get rich in 1931" and attempt to do so by increasing our cotton and tobacco acreage. They will not grant money for an increase in acreage of either. I am not saying not to plant cotton and tobacco, but first plant sufficient feedstuff for your livestock and poultry, that is, hay and corn for your workstock so that old Dobbin have good soybean, cowpeas, or lespedeza hay to nibble on those cold windy nights next winter instead of corn stalks. Seed two acres of soybeans cowpeas or lespedeza for each cow so she will have a nutritious ration instead of cotton seed and meal. Don't forget that it takes about 12 bushels of corn properly supplemented to grow a pig to 20 pounds. So plant plenty of corn.

A farmer with two mules, one cow, three pigs and 50 hens should produce a minimum of 250 bushels of corn or about fifteen acres using last year's yield as a basis or 12 acres on the average would be sufficient. It is time now for seeding spring oats. Try an acre per head of workstock using 2 1/2 bushels per acre of seed and topdress not later than April 15th with nitrate of Soda.

"The government will finance the farmer for seed, feed and fertilizer, but nothing for food for his family, says someone, and I can't understand why they do it". Neither can the government understand why the people living in Franklin County with a climate so conducive for the growth of vegetables the year round, adapted to the production of poultry, and pork raising should have to call for food. Yes we had a very dry year, but did you produce your food the years before? This should not be.

Each applicant signs a sworn statement that he will produce sufficient food stuff for livestock and a home garden and we sincerely hope that each individual will do this to the fullest extent. Let's live, first, this year and forget about making money until after we have provided for our family and livestock. Without some misfortune should happen our way, we should be ashamed to admit next winter that we had to go to the groceryman for vegetables, eggs and meat.

Fire at H. W. Perry's Residence

The fire at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Perry on North Main Street on Thursday evening of last week did only slight damage as it was discovered in time to be extinguished before it was necessary to use water. The fire caught on the roof from a spark and the fire department was prompt in its answer to the alarm extinguishing the fire with chemicals. The damage was estimated at about $100 and was fully insured.

How Veteran Can Get Loan

Washington, Feb. 27.—Here's what a veteran has to do to borrow half the face value of his adjusted compensation certificate:

If he has obtained a loan he may present in person or mail to one of the 54 regional offices the record of it and the application for more.

Those who have not received loans must mail to the office or present a certificate note to that effect along with discharge papers and the certificate. Notes can be obtained from the regional offices and veterans' organizations. From there on the loan is in the hands of the veterans' bureau, which heretofore has issued loans within 10 days of receiving applications and hopes to continue issuing at about the same rate.

Regional offices are in: Atlanta, Birmingham, Charlotte, N. C., Columbia, S. C., Little Rock, Nashville, New Orleans, and Richmond.

61,417 State Vets Eligible For Loans

North Carolina Has Large Quota of Ex-Service Men - Checks Given To 1,000

Washington, Feb. 27.—Five minutes after the senate enacted the veterans' loan measure over President Hoover's veto the first check had been issued.

Within an hour 400 more had gone out from the Washington office of the veterans' bureau and at nightfall at least 1,000 were on their way to veterans' most in need.

Senator Reed of Pennsylvania announced in the senate that the first check had gone to a Baltimore veteran for a badly needed operation on his eldest son. The name was not given.

A similar announcement was received with cheers in the house.

The 54 regional offices of the bureau were notified to go into action immediately and $17,750,000 was sent them to meet checks.

Louisburg College News

Louisburg College won the prize for having the most representatives, according to the enrollment in the school, at the Students' Volunteer Conference held in Chapel Hill the past week-end.

The conference was one of splendid fellowship where delegates from twenty-nine Colleges of our state met to discuss world problems.

There were representatives from all foreign lands also, who contributed much to those present.

The lecturers were excellent, some of them were Dr. Elbert Russell of Duke University, Dr. Paul Harrison, a returned Missionary from Arabia, Dr. E. McNeill Poteat, an outstanding Baptist minister.

The Louisburg College Music Department will present its students in a recital Tuesday night, March 10, 1931. All outsiders are cordially invited to come.

The Y. W. C. A. of Louisburg College will have as its guest Hagop Hagopian, an Egyptian student, who is at present in North Carolina, sometime in the near future. He will speak at one of the regular Sunday afternoon Y. W. meetings.

The Louisburg College Music Department will send three delegates to Flora MacDonald, Red Springs, North Carolina, March 7 to enter the annual music contestants. Misses Miriam Whedbee and Ruth Cathey will try for voice, and Miss Laura Nell Thrift for piano.

For the past two years Louisburg College has had the winner of the piano contest. In 1929 Miss Mary Cramer of Southport, North Carolina won, and in 1930 Miss Annie Lee Cutchin of Whitakers, North Carolina, both are pupils of Miss Harriet M. Crenshaw, head of the Music department of Louisburg College.

LOOK! WHO IS COMING

The Oxford Orphanage Singing Class will give a concert in the Mills High School auditorium Wednesday night Mar. 18, at 8 o'clock. Everybody come. Admission 25 and 35 cents, which goes to help the orphans. I wonder if I have the right.

To be myself forget to care. How children shiver in the night. Where all is dark and cold and bare.

My little ones are free from dread. And sheltered safely from the storm. Their eyes are bright, their cheeks are red.

Their laughter glad, the clothing warm.

I have no need to share the blame. If pallor dims the orphan's cheek. I have not made the cripple lame.

Nor taken from the poor and weak.

Put knowing how they weep at night. Where all is dark and cold and bare. I wonder if I have the right.

To let myself forget to care.

Basket Ball Tournament

The Franklin County High School Basket Ball Tournament was brought to an appropriate close before the largest crowd that has ever attended a basket ball game in Franklin County. The Franklin County gymnasium was filled to overflowing with those who were interested in the teams which had fought their way through to the finals.

According to programme prophesies the Franklin Girls were scheduled for a victory, and the Gold Sand Sand Giants were expected to step away with the boys' honors; however the "ole dope" bucket was upset all around.

Evidently the Epsom girls had been practicing some for they showed much of their familiarity with the court and seemed to know exactly where the basket was. Misses Ayscue and Pace shared honors in ringing the basket netting fourteen and six points respectively. The Epsom guards were on their toes and held Franklin's best forward, Misses Hagwood and Jenkins to 3 and 4 field goals respectively. It was a 23-17 victory for Epsom.

Franklinton Hagwood R. F. Jenkins L. F. Hicks J. C. Browne S. C. Frazier R. G. Maye Wilson L. G. Conyers

Substitutions: Epsom—Wilson for Stainback; Ayscue for Wilson; Edwards for Frazier; Stainback for Wilson.

Glenn, Umpire; Edwards, Referee. Bunn's Irish Quintet" rode the "Gold Sand Prospectors" for a 23-20 victory. Jennings' proteges seemed to be perplexed, and not working smoothly. His most threatening forward scored only four field goals; and the same, Astor Parrish, scored only 3 gratis points out of 14 trials.

The greenclad Irishmen from Bunn exhibited good form and floorwork, being good on offense and defense. Jones and Dickerson shared honors at forward position scoring 10 and four points respectively. Winstead proved himself good at the defense position of guard.

Gold Sand Conn Jones R. F. Parrish L. F. Griffith Mitchell C. Cottrell Winstead R. G. Raynor Cheves L. G.

Substitutions: Gold Sand—Harper for Parrish; Bunn—Poole for Winstead, Land for Dickerson. Glenn, Umpire, Estes, Referee.
