DEVELOPING GRADE A FARMERS

Raleigh, N. C., July 22.—Sixty-seven farmers of North Carolina are proud of the honor conferred upon them by the North Carolina Bankers Association and the State College in designating them as "Grade A" farmers for the past year and are striving to continue to merit that distinction again in 1931. "Grade A" farmer, as designated by the association with the cooperation of the State College of Agriculture and Engineering, means that the farmers so chosen conduct a well-rounded type of farming and that their operations are on a business-like basis. The farmers chosen last year are located in every part of the state and form a representative body of progressive, successful farmers who have demonstrated by their activities during the year that they not only know how to farm according to the best established methods but diversify sufficiently to assure themselves sufficient food and feed for the family and the livestock respectively.

H. M. Cox, president of the Citizens Bank at Mount Olive, chairman of the Agricultural Committee of the North Carolina Bankers Association, says "there is no reason why the number of "Grade A" farmers in North Carolina can not run into the thousands in the future, and he expects the additional energy which is to be thrown into this project by the association to result in a much larger number at the end of this calendar year. Mr. Cox explains the choice of the farmers so honored as follows:

"The 'Grade A' farmer program was first tried out by the association in 1926-7 and last year we secured the approval of the association to carry it forward for a five-year period. Farmers are not selected by preference of pull of any kind but on actual results of the previous year's work graded by the State College as a disinterested party. Any farmer white, black, landlord or tenant is eligible if he can make the grade. Early in 1930 all banks were supplied with questionnaires to be given to good farmers to fill out and, of the 77 questionnaires returned, 67 were graded by the college authorities as eligible to receive the certificate of merit and button presented jointly by the bankers association and the State College. These questionnaires were handled by all 16 groups and the one securing the largest number of 'Grade A' farmers was awarded the agricultural cup for the year. Last year the cup went to group 2 which secured 18 'Grade A' farmers. This group consisted of: Hugh B. Bryan, R. B. Brake and F. P. Phillips of Battleboro; R. C. Moore and J. H. Moore of Bowden; M. C. Moore of Hohnod; W. W. Eagles of Macfield; F. R. Wilstead and W. T. Woodruff of Nashville; S. T. Pace of Sims; F. G. Ward and J. W. Moore of Rocky Mount; W. E. Smith, R. D. House, John D. Temple and J. O. Whitehead of Scotland Neck; E. F. Shelton of Speed; R. M. Moore and L. L. Draughon of Whitefork.

"The points covered by the questionnaire filled out by the prospective 'Grade A' farmers cover practically the entire field of farming and living at home. The first deals with the growing of feed, the second with hogs, third the garden and then follow the orchard, soil tilling, home improvements, diversified income, growing several crops instead of one and the last deals with the keeping of records covering the entire field of farming and is designed to interest the farmer in every phase of farm life.

movement to the goal so ably described by that distinguished Southern orator and statesman, Henry W. Grady, when he said: "When every farmer in the South shall eat bread from his own fields and meat from his own pastures; and disturbed by no creditors and enslaved by no debt shall sit amid his teeming gardens and vineyards and orchards and dairies and barnyards, pitching his crops to his own wisdom and growing them in independence; making cotton his clean surplus and selling it in his own time and in his chosen market and not at a master's bidding; getting his pay in cash and not in a receipted mortgage that discharges the debt but does not restore his freedom, then shall be breaking the fullness of our day."

The 1931 questionnaires will be in the hands of the bankers of the state about the first of the year and will be given out to the farmers and then returned by them to the bank which will turn them over to the State College where they will be graded. Awards will be made on the results of 1931 operations and I am confident that the increased interest on the part of both the farmers and the bankers will result in a much larger number of candidates for the honors than last year and that the number should increase annually throughout the five-year period of the program.

The latest list of "Grade A" farmers and their addresses (exclusive of Group 2 which was given above) is as follows:

QUOTATIONS FROM THE HEALTH BULLETIN PUBLISHED BY THE STATE BOARD OF HEALTH

"Pasteurization is the best method at present available for obtaining safe milk on a large scale. Most public health authorities consider Pasteurization necessary in order to prevent milk-borne epidemics of disease.

The important result of Pasteurization is that if properly done it kills any disease germs present, such as the germs of tuberculosis, diphtheria, typhoid fever, septic sore throat, or scarlet fever."

"NO EPIDEMIC OF DISEASE HAS EVER BEEN TRACED TO PROPERLY PASTEURIZED MILK."

Insist upon pasteurized milk because "PASTEURIZATION PROTECTS."
