THREE WARE- HOUSES THIS SEASON

EXPECT TO SELL FIFTEEN MILLIONS

Southside To Be Run By Meadows
& Harris; The Planters By Ford,
Williamson & Pearce; The Union
By Beasley & Bullock—Full Corps
Buyers—To Open Sept. 22.

With three big warehouses manned by competent and well experienced tobacconists and a full corps of buyers the Louisville tobacco market is making big preparations to double last year's sales this season. A goal of fifteen million pounds is set by the warehousemen who claim that they will sell it because of the splendid services to be given.

The Southside will be operated again this year by Messrs. Sam Meadows and Grover Harris, and they will have with them this season Mr. W. Tom Burton as auctioneer and Claude Cheatham, as bookkeeper.

The Planters will be operated by Messrs. G. W. Ford, Pier Williamson and Rix Pearce, who will have with them G. M. Perry, in charge of sales and Carl E. Pearce, as auctioneer.

The Union will be operated by Messrs. Bud Beasley and Monroe Bullock. Mr. Cash will be with them and W. Tom Burton will do their auctioneering.

All of these parties were connected with their respective warehouses last year and most of them have had a life time experience in the tobacco warehouse business, both of which assure the growers of this section every effort possible for their interest in the coming season.

This market will open on Tuesday September 22nd, 1931 and it is contemplated that most all good grades will sell well. It is true the opening on the Southern markets indicated a very low price, but it is also understood the quality was in especially bad shape. It is reported that prices have advanced considerable since the opening and good grades are bringing pretty fair prices.

Watch for the announcements of the several warehousemen in the near future.

Recorder's Court

Although containing a few more cases than last week the docket in Franklin Recorder's Court Monday was rather small. In the absence of prosecuting attorney E. F. Griffin, Hon. W. L. Lumpkin, assisted Judge Malone in disposing of the several cases, which disposition was as follows:

Prayer for judgment continued till next Monday, in the case of Joe Mann Wheelless, found guilty of distilling.

Russell Williams was found guilty of distilling and judgment was continued to the first Monday in November upon payment of costs.

Kearney Williams was found guilty of distilling and upon payment of costs prayer for judgment was continued to first Monday in November.

Charlie Ball, failure to comply with order of the court, the court ordered execution issued, defendant to be sent to Roads for 60 days.

Kenton Whit, was ordered to the roads for 60 days, for failure to comply with a former order of the court.

Charlie Green was found guilty of distilling and fined $25 and costs. Appeal.

Bennett P. Perry was found not guilty of violating prohibition law.

E. A. Rogers, abandonment.
Lucy Jane Foster, larceny.
A. S. Harris, having in possession material for making whiskey.

Increased Post- age Rates

The local post office authorities informed the TIMES that the postage rates to Canada and Great Britain would have a slight increase beginning September 1st. Postage rates to Canada, including Newfoundland and Labrador will be three cents per ounce or a fraction thereof, and on single post cards two cents a single card. Air mail rates will be six cents for the first ounce and ten cents for each additional ounce.

Postage rates to Great Britain, including Northern Ireland and the Irish Free State will be five cents for the first ounce and three cents each additional ounce. A three cent rate will be on single cards.

This country will be improved a lot when the home wrecker is put in the same class with the hold-up man.

Mrs. B. H. Meadows Dead

Mrs. B. H. Meadows, wife of Chief of Police B. H. Meadows, died at their home on Elm Street early Tuesday night after a long illness. Besides her husband she is survived by two sisters, Mrs. J. W. Wiggins, of Charleston, W. Va., and Mrs. E. E. Dettler, of Hickory, and one brother, Mr. H. E. Hight, of Louisville. She was a member of the Louisville Methodist church and had lived a beautiful christian life. Before prevented by ill health she was actively interested in her community and church work. She was a great lover of flowers having an abundance about her home in all seasons.

The funeral was held from the home on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock conducted by Rev. A. D. Wilcox, pastor of the Louisville Methodist church and Rev. D. P. Harris, pastor of the Louisville Baptist church. The interment was made in Oaklawn cemetery. The floral tribute was especially large and pretty. The pallbearers were L. L. Joyner, E. L. Best, S. P. Boddie, C. E. Pace, F. W. Justice, E. C. Perry, D. F. McKinne, C. P. Harris.

Both services were largely attended, giving evidence of a deep sympathy to the bereaved.

Creamery Wants Butter Fat

In their advertisement this week the Franklin Creamery is advertising for twenty-five thousand pounds of butter fat. Mr. R. G. Bailey, the President of this enterprise, informs the TIMES that they are receiving orders for many times more butter than they can supply and that they are anxious to get all the butter fat possible. This is suggested as a splendid source of income for the farm in Franklin County. This section is ideally situated to care for stock and a few cows on each farm will turn in a neat little cash account if given a fair chance. The butter fat sold to the Creamery the skimmed milk fed to hogs and chickens and sold will make it a great deal easier for the farmer to pay cash for his supplies, live well and have his returns from his cotton and tobacco as a profit. Save your cream and sell it to the Creamery and contribute your bit to feeding the masses good wholesome butter, and at the same time making another source of income to your family and farm.

Russell Identified By Man at Hertford

C. J. Mansfield Says That "Man Without a Country" Married His Daughter.

Hertford, August 17.—O. J. Mansfield, Hertford blacksmith, said here today that Peter Russell, denied admission to this country by immigration authorities because of uncertainty as to his birthplace, married his daughter, Vallie Mansfield, at Suffolk, Va., in 1927.

Russell told authorities at Baltimore that he had married a girl from Bear Swamp, in Perquimans county, N. C., but failure to give her maiden name prevented her immediate identification. Russell is now being shuttled back and forth between England and America while his case is being considered.

Mansfield, who moved here from the Bear Swamp section, said he received a letter in June this year from Rogers and Webb, managing operators for the Yankee Line at Boston, Mass., relating Russell's troubles with immigration authorities and asking aid in proving his nationality.

Mansfield said he neglected to reply to the letter. In the meantime, Russell was sent back to England, where he was refused admission and sent back to America where he was again refused admission.

Mansfield said his daughter was now living under the name of Mrs. J. E. Davis at 223 Butts street, Norfolk, Va. Davis he said was living at 285 Lipscomb street, Fort Worth, Tex. He did not know how she became divorced from Russell or when she married Davis, but said she had left Russell six months after they were married.

At the time of their marriage, he said, Russell was attached to the United States coast guard at Norfolk. They lived in Perquimans county for six months, he said.

Mansfield said Russell had written to him frequently in the past but the last letter he received was in December while Russell was in Texas.

He did not, however, know Russell's birthplace.

Faculty Line-Up

Louisburg Public School will open on Wednesday, September 2, with the following faculty:

Mrs. A. B. Perry, Miss Mary J. Best, Miss Louise Joyner, Mrs. A. B. Inacoe, Mrs. W. E. Uzzell, Miss Edith Bradley, Mrs. W. D. Jackson, Miss Mary Wilson, Miss Louisa Jarman, Mrs. O. Y. Yarboro, Miss Katherine Rogers, Miss Vivian Allgood, Mr. J. B. Trogon, and Mr. C. C. Bost. All of these people were with us last year, except Mr. Bost who comes to take the place formerly held by Mr. Holliday. Mr. Holliday goes away on a leave of absence for one year to do graduate study at Columbia University. We are all sorry to lose this fine, strong manly man from our school and from the community. But he expects to return to us in the fall of 1932 better prepared for his work than ever.

Mr. Bost who comes to take the work of Mr. Holliday is a graduate of Wake Forest College where he took high rank as a student and as an athlete. He is well recommended by those who know him, both as a prospective teacher and coach of athletics. He expects to attend the University Coaching School to better fit himself for this important phase of his work.

Book lists are now ready: Get a list, look over the books you have at home; such as you do not have, you may be able to get from a neighbor. If you need to buy new books, they are on sale at school strictly for cash. Nearly all the books are consigned and we are not allowed to sell on credit.

It is hoped that the patrons of the school will do all that is possible to equip the children with the necessary books before the opening day. No workman can work without tools, and it is very difficult for a child to get along without the necessary books.

The Supt. will be in the office practically all day each day till the opening and will be glad to try to answer any question any pupil or patron may desire to ask.

Fire Department Attend Tournament

Sixteen members of the Louisville Fire Department will leave Louisville Sunday for Hendersonville to attend the annual Firemen's Tournament.

Chief Howell, requests the TIMES to call the attention of the citizens of Louisville to the necessity for them to volunteer their services in the event that an alarm is sounded during the four days absence of the firemen. A driver for the fire truck will be on hand but the other work will have to be supplied. It is hoped no necessity for an alarm will arise.

Healthy girls getting healthy and tanned at the summer resorts will find trouble looking thin and interesting next winter.

Every now and then someone you haven't missed comes up and tells you he is back from his vacation.

Value Nitrogen For Corn

Gold Sand Department Of Agriculture Conducts Corn Fertilizing Demonstration

For the purpose of showing the value and the necessity of a liberal quantity of Nitrogen for corn growing, the Department of Agriculture of the Gold Sand High School is conducting a fertilizing demonstration in the interest of larger yields per acre in the community.

The demonstration plot is located on the farm of S. G. Marshall, who is cooperating in carrying on the test. It will be found about half way between Gold Sand High School and Gupton. The results of using different kinds and amounts of fertilizers are showing outstanding differences at the present time, and a number of farmers are frequently seen looking over the demonstration.

The demonstration consists of one half acre, which is planted to Registered Latham's Double seed corn. This half-acre is divided into five ten-acre plots, which consist of six rows each. There is an extra row separating the plots. The plots are marked to show the kinds and amounts of fertilizers used. A sign has been placed between the third and fourth rows to show the amounts used per acre. The plots are fertilized as follows: first plot, 200 pounds per acre of 8-3-3 at planting time; second, no fertilizer at planting—200 pounds Chilean Nitrate of Soda as side dressing; third, 200 pounds acid phosphate and 25 pounds muriate of potash at planting time—no side dressing; fourth, 200 pounds acid phosphate and 25 pounds muriate of potash at planting time—no side dressing; fifth, 200 pounds acid phosphate and 25 pounds muriate of potash at planting time—200 pounds Chilean Nitrate of Soda as side dressing.

The side dressing was applied when the corn was between knee and waist high. The land selected for this test was uniform in type, and the fertilizers were weighed accurately for each row.

This demonstration indicates the need of more Nitrogen in the soil. Many soils are required to give up their Nitrogen year after year by continuous cropping without having any returned even in a small quantity. Even the best of soils will wear out eventually under such conditions. Some of the farmers, best friends, such as crimson clover, lespedeza, cow peas, and soy beans will be glad to help out in the task of placing Nitrogen back into the soil.

Accurate records are being kept on this test; and, when the corn is harvested, the results will be published. At the time of harvesting a field meeting will be held. Details of this meeting will be announced at a later date.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE METHODIST CHURCH

There will be no service Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. This church will join in the union service at the College at 8 o'clock. Rev. D. P. Harris will deliver the sermon. Mr. Loftin a tenor evangelistic singer is expected to be present to sing some solos and lead the singing. This will be the last Union service to be held at the College this year.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation for the many kind deeds shown us by our friends and neighbors during the long illness of our husband and father. These many kind deeds make the dark hour seem brighter.

About School Books

Schools and school people are subjected to a good deal of undue criticism on the ground that the books used in school are changed too often. These changes may be too frequent, but when such are made they are made by those in authority in the State and not by local officials.

There is one fact too often overlooked by patrons; the children move from grade to grade and this of necessity calls for change of books at frequent intervals. The only way to keep a child from asking for new books is to keep that child in one grade until he wears out his books. It is somewhat like a child outgrowing his clothes; if he does not wear out his clothes, he outgrows them and must have new clothes; just so with his school books; he either tears them up, wears them out or outgrows them; that is he gets promoted to another grade calling for new books.

In our school we encourage children to purchase second hand books, but there is a serious drawback to this; no child is quite so enthusiastic about his school work when he has to carry along a book that has been used by some other child. He feels about it just as he would feel if he were called on to wear another child's cast of clothing. Apparent who would resent bitterly the suggestion that his child should attend school in second hand clothing, will expect his child to be happy in school with a dirty, ragged book that another child has used; children are not built that way; perhaps, it is well that they are not.

FRANK EDWARD LAYTON

(1866-1931.)

Frank Edward Layton, 65, of the Flat Rock Community passed Sunday, August 9, 1931, to his shining reward on high. Attended by several hundred of his friends and fellow-citizens, the funeral service was held from the Flat Rock Church Monday afternoon and interment was made in the Flat Rock Cemetery.

In the passing of Brother Layton, his church and community sustain a serious loss. He was a man whose goodness and integrity was an asset to all who lived about him. Setting himself against evil in every form, as he saw it, his life became a very positive, though somewhat quiet, force for righteousness. He was clean in mind, clean in speech, and clean in conduct. His heart was always warm towards his neighbors, his church, and the interests of his community. We need more men among us like Edward Layton to hate evil and love right. Though he had little to say in public, his life will speak eloquently in the years to come for truth and right living. His children and others may well remember the conduct of this good man's life and emulate it.

Brother Layton was born in May 1866 in the Flat Rock Community, where he lived and died, the son of Norfleet and Octavia Ayscue Layton. In youth he joined Flat Rock church by baptism and remained a devoted member to his death. On December 16, 1890, he was married to Miss Maggie Winston of the Flat Rock Community, who survives him. Three children also survive: Richard Layton of Louisville, Mrs. David Wheeler and Mrs. B. I. Cash, of Franklinton. There are three brothers: W. H. Layton, Spring Hope, J. S. Layton and N. B. Layton, Franklinton; and four sisters: Mrs. H. H. Wheeler and Mrs. Joe Bunn, Spring Hope, Mrs. J. H. Wiggins, Raleigh, and Mrs. Ida Riddick, Louisville. There are ten living grandchildren.
