

"In a letter of August 31, 1931, to Mr. C. M. Johnson, director of local government (dealing primarily with another, but related subject), I said: "It will be observed that this chapter 342 limits the postponement of sale of land for delinquent taxes, large or larger than good sized mar-les and completely covered the ground. In places where they drift-ed in piles they were a foot deep on Monday morning, according to re-ports from that section. The wind estroyed a two story dwelling for Ma as therein permitted, to such sales for the year 1931.'

the year 1931.' Postponement Only to Nov., 1931. "A further examination of the chapter this morning confirms the view then expressed. You will note that the postponement authorized was to 'not later than the first Mon-cay in November 1931.' All refer-ences in the act are to taxes and pro-cedure with resent to the tay year cestroyed a two story dwelling for Mr. Willis Tant, two tobacco barns for Mr. J. O. Williams and a number of sheds and shelters along its path up highway 90. No one was injured ac-cording to reports received here. This storm passed on through the Spring Hope section doing much damage cedure with respect to the tax year 1931. Selection two also seems to be conclusive 'that this act shall apply only to such taxes as are now due along its course. It is understood high winds did much damage to property in the wild ton section on Sunday afternoon, de-molishing barns, sheds, etc., and kill-iug a number of mules and other and unpaid.'

"Chapter 160 has no relation to your inquiry. Neither does C. S. 8012, as carried forward in Michie's North Carolina code of 1931. "Sale of land for taxes for this year is governed by C. S. 1334.48 of chap-ter 213, public laws of 1927, as amendcd. The statute, still in force, sets out the duties of the sheriff with respect to report of taxes collected and ordered of commissioners for sale of land, the sale to take place on the first Monday in June.

"Yours very truly, "D. G. BRUMMITT, "Attorney General."
