Opportunity Comes To College

And Musicians in County Who Wish
To Co-operate—Noted Band Master
Wishes To Locate in Louisburg.

Louisburg College has an opportunity this year to secure a real genius as a Band Master. His name is J. Robert Moore of London, England. His father is organist and director of music in St. Paul's Cathedral in London and is a British composer of national fame. Robert Moore is a master of the Cornet and other wind instruments and is rated a real genius as a band master.

He is a graduate of three of the great universities in England. He has the highest musical degrees granted in that country. He is in this country in the hope of establishing himself in his chosen field in which he has already won considerable fame.

President Armour David Wilcox, of Louisburg College, in speaking of this opportunity, said, "I can get Mr. Moore to come to Louisburg if I can get the support of the musicians in Louisburg, Franklin Co. and the College. Under his leadership a band of real merit could be organized in this city which would function on all occasions calling for such music. We can secure Mr. Moore if I can get a satisfactory response from the musicians of the town and county."

President Wilcox also makes this request, "Please call me and let me know whether you will be willing to join the band. If I even get a halfway response to this appeal, Mr. Moore and I will take the risk and he will come on to Louisburg and do his best. An immediate response is necessary for we must get him now if at all."

Recorder's Court

Only a small docket was before Franklin Recorder's Court Monday and most of those were continued. The disposition of the docket was as follows:

A jury was requested in the case of J. S. Place for drunk and disorderly and nuisance, and a continuance was granted.

J. S. Place, unlawful possession of whiskey, continued.

Henry Crudup was found not guilty of being drunk and disorderly.

Clifford Crudup was found not guilty of public drunkenness.

Lumas Williams was found guilty of being drunk and disorderly and using profane language on the highway and was given 30 days in jail on each count to run concurrently.

Pate Davis, assault with deadly weapon, was found guilty and fined $5 and costs. Appeal.

Community Gardens

Mrs. S. P. Burt, assisted by Supt. E. C. Perry, of the Welfare Department and Chief of Police B. H. Meadows, is especially anxious to make provision for assistance to the needy this fall and winter and are asking all who have vacant lots in or near Louisburg not in use to give them the privilege of planting them to food crops for winter use. Any one willing to allow their vacant lots to be used in this way will please call or see one of the above and offer the use of such lot. Also any one having any team that can be used for the cultivation of these lots and seed for the sowing that they would be willing to donate kindly advise this committee. It is hoped that enough food crops can be made on the lots offered to relieve a large portion of the suffering that might otherwise occur in Franklin County this winter.

This is a splendid movement and should meet the hearty and enthusiastic response of the people.

Green Hill Golf Course Open To The Public

The directors of the local course decided at their last meeting to open the course to the public so that any one may play upon the payment of a small green fee. Previously the club has followed the custom, as elsewhere, of requiring local residents to become members before allowing them to play. It is felt that a larger number of Louisburg people will avail themselves of the privilege of playing this excellent little course under the new arrangements which go into effect at once.

Realizing that a slight financial stringency is prevailing at this time it was also decided to offer to the citizens of Louisburg a special membership for the remainder of the year (until March 15th) at half the usual fees.

To promote interest in golf among the younger group the club is to open its course to all children between the ages of twelve (12) and sixteen (16) inclusive, without cost, every morning until one P. M. It is believed that a large number of boys and girls will be eager to take advantage of this opportunity to learn this splendid game whose popularity has increased by leaps and bounds the past few years.

Bondsmen Pay Up

Franklin County Receives Checks For Holden Shortage—All Claimed Recovered Except $300 to $400—Perry Reversed.

Franklin County received checks for $3,313.68 on Monday, July 11th in settlement of the judgment against the Commercial Casualty Insurance Company, of Newark, N. J., bondsmen of S. C. Holden, former Register of Deeds of Franklin County who was adjudged short in his accounts with the county and upon which he resigned his office in September 1931, according to the information given out by Mr. Hill Yarborough, County Attorney. This settles the liability of this company. Mr. Yarborough continued, although the amount is between $300.00 and $400.00 short of complete settlement of the claim. The lack of the complete settlement was due to a judgment in the Federal Court against Mr. Holden for failure to properly cross index a certain Chatelet Mortgage which came in to share in the funds from the bond, covering the first period.

The case against Mr. Holden by the county, when brought up for hearing, it was explained, was referred to B. H. Perry of Henderson, who, after hearing the evidence and making his examination held that the greater portion of the County's loss was during the period of the first bond of Mr. Holden. The county appealed and Judge W. A. Devin held with the county's contention that the county's lesser loss was during the period of the first bond, of $5000.00 covering the period of office from 1928 to 1930. From this bond Franklin County received $816.00, leaving only a few hundred dollars uncollected on account of the Federal Court judgment. The other bond of a like amount covering the period of 1930 to 1931 when the shortage was discovered, was held liable for $2,497.68 including interest, the full amount sought to be recovered, under this bond.

The audit figures upon which the suit and the county judgment was brought and based were made by R. L. Steele and Company, public accountants of Raleigh, and was a most complete and exhaustive document, receiving much commendation from the attorneys.

Franklin County was represented by County Attorney Hill Yarborough, assisted by his father, W. H. Yarborough.

The attorneys for the county are confident that the county will recover the entire amount as it still has more resources from which it can recover.
