Scout Drum And Bugle Corps Parade

Under the direction of Mr. J. Robert Moore, Band Master at Lousburg College, the Lousburg Boy Scout Drum and Bugle Corps gave a very interesting parade in town last Friday night. Mr. Moore began the parade at the Graded School, leading the Corps over to the College where they paraded a while and then down Main Street and around Court Square. Mr. Moore has been kind to the local Boy Scouts in giving them much aid and instruction in their Drum and Bugle Corps in preparation for the annual meeting of the Boy Scouts in Raleigh which occurred last Saturday. In the parade the boys showed a great deal of improvement in playing and especially in marching. In the short time of his service Mr. Moore has made wonderful improvement in the Corps.

Tonsil Clinic To Be Repeated

The tonsil clinic to be held Friday at the local hospital has had so many registrants that it will be necessary to repeat it next week—probably on Friday. Those who failed to register in time to be included in the first 25 will be notified and taken care of next week since it is not possible to arrange two days Clinic this week.

Those who desire to have their children operated next week should register early in the week because it is probable that many more will register than can be taken care of. Registrants will be accepted in the order in which they register—first choice being given those who registered too late to be taken care of in the first clinic. Details can be obtained from the Hospital Staff, also any change of plans if any.

LOUISBURG METHODIST CHURCH

A deeper consecration and a more determined effort on the part of the membership of the church of God is the need of the world today. God wants and needs workers that His Vines may be saved, and the foreign elements destroyed. What are you doing? Are you doing what God wants you to do; are you staying away from church services? Why don't you fill your place in the house of God?
All regular services next Sunday.
T. A. SIKES, Pastor.

Tennis Tournament Popularity For Franklin County Contest Awards

Arrangements have been completed to hold an open tournament for the tennis championship of Franklin County by the Lousburg Tennis Association, October 8th, has been set for the beginning of play and it is hoped that a large number of the players of Franklin County will participate. If sufficient interest is shown this year it is expected to make this an annual event and the trophies and prizes offered will be in keeping with the number of entrants.

Two championship flights will be played, one for the ladies and one for the men. The losers in the first round of play qualify for the consolation flight in which prizes will also be offered the winners. One for the lady winner and one for the man, four prizes thus being given. Play will start at 8:00 A. M. on the local courts and the matches will be posted not later than Friday in some public place in Lousburg and any other of the surrounding towns who have sufficient entries to make it necessary.

Each entrant will be required to register with Dr. Johnson, the association secretary, either in person or by mail not later than October 5th and an entrance fee of twenty five cents deposited with him—the money to be used to help defray the expense of the tournament.

In the ladies' matches 2 out of 3 sets will be played both in preliminary rounds and finals. In the mens matches 2 out of 3 matches will be played up to the semi-finals—3 out of 5 sets for both the semi-finals and finals in the championship flights, 3 out of 5 sets in the consolation matches for finals only.

Play will continue thru the week the matches being arranged in the afternoon to suit the contestants. Those matches remaining unplayed will be completed the following Saturday, play resuming the following week with the finals being played Saturday Oct. 22nd if possible.

Golf In Lousburg

By FORREST L. BARDELON, Jr., Golf Pro.
Things are about to come to a climax in the annual Greenhill Golf Championship with the three best players left in competition. Dr. Harry Johnson, Coy Cox and Frank Wheelless. Dr. Johnson and Mr. Cox will play each other on Sunday for the right to play Mr. Wheelless who automatically went to the finals by drawing a bye.

Bill Perry lost a close match to Coplin on the 19th hole. It was one of the closest played matches since the tournament started. Bill won't be with us very long as he is going to Emory University in Atlanta.

Don't see much of Douglas Perry any more but guess he is making the rounds at Wake Forest where he is attending College.

W. E. White, Jr., beat L. W. Henderson on the 18th hole. The last 7 holes had to be played in the rain. As well as I can understand, they weren't trying to sell each other anything.

Jimmy Allen, the big Chevrolet man, lost to Frank Wheelless, the big Clothing man on Sunday afternoon. As well as I can understand, they weren't trying to sell each other anything.

The kiddies had a nice time in their tournament last Saturday. Wayne Simmons won first prize. Let us see more of you out this Friday afternoon at 4: p. m.

To Be Made at Lousburg Theatre Saturday Night, September 24th

The Popularity Contest among the kiddies of the town, which has been sponsored by the Lousburg Theatre with the co-operation of several of the local merchants, has come to a close and the most important and interesting event in connection with it, the announcement of the winners and the presentation of awards, will take place at the Lousburg Theatre Saturday night, September 24th. Mr. Edison House, the copyright holder of the Green Square deal, will be present to make the awards, of which there are four. The first award is a bicycle which will be given to the boy or girl receiving the greatest number of votes, and also a certificate of popularity for 1932. The child getting the second largest number of votes will receive a Theatre pass for eight consecutive weeks and a Certificate of Honor; the third award is a certificate of Merit and a six consecutive week's pass to the Theatre; and the fourth is a Certificate of Commendation and a Theatre pass for four consecutive weeks.

This Popularity Contest has created much interest among both the children and grown folks. Much activity has been shown on the part of both sets and it is exceedingly evident that a great deal of interest and enthusiasm is wide-spread among the people of Lousburg in the outcome of this contest. We wonder who has been voted the most popular Kiddie in Lousburg. It is expected that quite a crowd will be present Saturday night at the awarding of the prizes.
