

Watch Label On Paper
Send In Renewal
When Time Expires

THE FRANKLIN TIMES

An Advertising
Medium That Brings Results

A. E. JOHNSON, Editor and Manager

The County, The State, The Union

SUBSCRIPTION $1.50 Per Year

VOLUME LXIII.

LOUISBURG, N. CAROLINA, FRIDAY, JANUARY 6TH, 1933

(EIGHT PAGES)

NUMBER 16

DISCONTINUE HOME AGENT DEPARTMENT

HUGHES AND MINOR RE-ELECTED

Refuse Payment For Turkeys Killed By Dogs—Receive Steel's Audit—Ask Privilege to Reduce Salaries Register of Deeds, Clerk of Court and Sheriff.

The Board of County Commissioners met in regular session on Monday with all members present. The usual routine of opening business was transacted as follows:

Mr. Brown was before the Board to report on a road in Youngsville. The Board decided to let the road be built by the State.

Mr. Mason's report on the department was read.

Mr. Max was excused from the meeting.

Mr. Taylor presented a bill for the purchase of turkeys killed by dogs. The Board refused to pay for them.

Mr. Steel's audit was read and approved.

Mr. Taylor asked for a reduction in the salaries of the Register of Deeds, Clerk of Court and Sheriff. The Board refused the request.

GOV. J. C. B. EHRLINGHAUS

EHRINGHAUS INAUGURATED YESTERDAY

ASSUMES DUTIES AS GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA WITH IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES

Other State Officials Inaugurated Also—Much Pomp And For Formality Big Parade Staged on Fayetteville Street—Large Crowd In Attendance—Military Takes Part In Exercises

John Christoph Ruchter, Ehringhaus, fifth North Carolina Governor, will take over the reins of the State Government and together with nine other elected officials will make the oath of office at noon today in the new Memorial Auditorium, which is expected to be packed to capacity. The exercises will be held in the new building, which was recently opened to the public.

The inauguration was conducted at the capitol in 1877, when it was the first of two inaugurations. The second inauguration was held in 1895, when the capitol was burned and the inauguration was held in the new capitol building.

O. MAX GARDNER

GENERAL ASSEMBLY GOING

Enacts 29th Amendment to National Constitution and Reduces Constitutional Officers and Legislative and Bond Help.

The General Assembly adjourned on Monday at 12:30 p. m. after enacting the 29th Amendment to the National Constitution and reducing the salaries of constitutional officers and legislative help.

The amendment provides for the election of a new President and Vice President in 1936. It also provides for the election of a new Speaker of the House and a new Chief Justice of the Supreme Court in 1936.

The amendment also provides for the reduction of the salaries of constitutional officers and legislative help. The salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and members of the General Assembly will be reduced by 10 percent.

F. W. JUSTICE ELECTED CHIEF

Police Chief To Retain Night Patrolman Place, S. W. Young Assistant Night Patrolman—To Request Reduced Telephone Rates

The Board of Town Commissioners met in regular session on Monday. The Board elected F. W. Justice as Chief of Police and S. W. Young as Assistant Night Patrolman.

The Board also requested the telephone company to reduce the rates for the town's telephone service.

BANKING FACILITIES FOR LOUISBURG

First Citizens Bank & Trust Co. Amends Charter and Renames a Bank of Louisburg With Agency At Conditon

The First Citizens Bank & Trust Co. has amended its charter and renamed itself the Bank of Louisburg. The bank is now a member of the Federal Reserve System.

The bank's assets are estimated at $1,000,000. The bank has a long history in the community and is well known for its service to the public.

BANKING FACILITIES FOR LOUISBURG

First Citizens Bank & Trust Co. Amends Charter and Renames a Bank of Louisburg With Agency At Conditon

The First Citizens Bank & Trust Co. has amended its charter and renamed itself the Bank of Louisburg. The bank is now a member of the Federal Reserve System.

The bank's assets are estimated at $1,000,000. The bank has a long history in the community and is well known for its service to the public.

Judge Timberlake Dies At Wake Forest

Funeral Services Were Held At Baptist Church There Wednesday Afternoon

Judge Timberlake died at Wake Forest on Monday. Funeral services were held at the Baptist Church there on Wednesday afternoon.

The judge was a well-known figure in the community and was highly respected for his work in the law.

Judge Timberlake Dies At Wake Forest

Funeral Services Were Held At Baptist Church There Wednesday Afternoon

Judge Timberlake died at Wake Forest on Monday. Funeral services were held at the Baptist Church there on Wednesday afternoon.

The judge was a well-known figure in the community and was highly respected for his work in the law.

W. O. Joyner Dead

Funeral Services Held At Church

W. O. Joyner died on Monday. Funeral services were held at the church on Wednesday.

Mr. Joyner was a prominent citizen and was well known for his contributions to the community.

Recorder's Court

The Recorder's Court met on Monday. The following cases were heard:

- Case No. 1: Plaintiff vs. Defendant. Judgment for Plaintiff.
- Case No. 2: Plaintiff vs. Defendant. Judgment for Defendant.
- Case No. 3: Plaintiff vs. Defendant. Judgment for Plaintiff.

At The Louisburg Theatre Next Week

The Louisburg Theatre will present a new production next week. The production is expected to be a hit with the audience.

Install Kiwanis Officers

The Kiwanis Club will install its new officers on Monday. The new officers are expected to lead the club in its efforts to improve the community.

Christmas Weddings

Several couples were married on Monday. The weddings were held at the church and were attended by family and friends.

Daddy of Beer Bill

Continuation of Recorder's Court and other news items.

Continuation of Recorder's Court and other news items.

Continuation of Recorder's Court and other news items.

Continuation of Recorder's Court and other news items.

Continuation of Recorder's Court and other news items.

Continuation of Recorder's Court and other news items.