"Cash Offer" Campaign Will Get Under Way This Week

First And Biggest Extra Vote Offer Of Entire Campaign Is Announced—300,000 Extra Votes On Every $30 Club of Subscriptions

MORE WORKERS WANTED

Many Communities Not Represented—Invitation Extended Energetic Men And Women In These Sections To Enter And Compete For Big Awards. Candidates Must Report Wednesdays And Saturdays

The entrants in The Franklin Times "Cash Offer" Campaign are gradually swinging into action. The public is daily becoming more and more interested in this great profit sharing event and in the progress of the "live wires" entered in the race for the big awards. New entrants are coming in every day—people who realize the generosity of the "Cash Offer" as an easy way to make some real money during the next few weeks. Most of those who have entered so far have had no particular experience in soliciting subscriptions. None is needed. They are people from all walks of life—people who, for the most part, are occupied with their regular work during the day, but who appreciated the possibilities of making their spare time pay big dividends.

Big Extra Vote Offer

For each and every $30 club of both old and new subscriptions sent in on or before Saturday, March 11, 300,000 extra votes will be given in the "Cash Offer" Campaign. These votes are in addition to the regular votes allowed for each subscription as shown on the back of the receipt book. Just think of it! Two ten-year subscriptions constitutes a "club" and entitles the contestant to 300,000 extra votes. Of course, smaller subscriptions count to make up the $30 worth just the same.

Members are not limited as to the number of subscriptions they may obtain. Any contestant may get as many of these big vote ballots as they choose—depending on their ability to sell The Franklin Times subscriptions.

This 300,000 extra vote offer can be the means of placing you safely on the winning list. Remember, this offer closes Saturday night, March 11, and there will be a big drop in votes after that time. They go down—way down.

NOTE—Each member must make a subscription report on Saturdays and Wednesdays until this time. The Campaign office will be open each Wednesday until 6 p. m. and Saturday, until 8 p. m., during the campaign for the convenience of candidates in making their reports.

More Candidates Needed

There is still ample room for more live wires. The campaign is just starting. The chance for new entrants to step in and win the biggest awards is good. All it takes to win is the initiative to enter and solicit your friends and acquaintances for subscriptions to The Franklin Times. They will be glad to help you win one of the big awards that are to be given away. Everybody has an equal chance in this campaign.

The race is short, lasting only six weeks, and closing Saturday, April 15th. Think of winning one of these big awards in such short time. Just 37 working days from this date and yet many of the best towns and rural routes in the field covered by this newspaper are not represented by a live wire candidate. The Franklin Times extends a special invitation for nominations from these communities.

No Losers! Everybody Wins

There will be no losers in this campaign. Besides the wonderful list of awards there will be a twenty per cent cash commission paid to all active members who fail to win an award. Everyone who enters and turns in subscriptions according to the rules, will be paid for their efforts. The commission itself is extremely liberal, yet you have a chance to win awards that will net you more than the income of any business or professional man in the territory for a like period of time.

Sen. Walsh Dead

According to information received here yesterday morning from Rocky Mount Sen. Thomas J. Walsh, died on the train en route from Cuba to Washington City. Sen. Walsh had been selected for appointment as U. S. Attorney General in President Roosevelt's Cabinet.

Funeral Largely Attended

Possibly the largest crowd ever to attend a funeral in Lousburg was present at the last rites of Mrs. W. E. White, both at the Methodist church and at Oakwood cemetery on Friday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. O. P. Fitzgerald, pastor of the Methodist Church, assisted by Rev. A. D. Wilcox, President of Lousburg College. Rev. O. W. Jowd, of Goldsboro, both former pastors, and Rev. J. D. Miller, rector St. Paul's Episcopal church. A wonderful tribute was paid the deceased by Dr. Wilcox in his remarks.

A profusion of beauty does not half-way express the visibleness of the wonderful tribute of flowers, and no words could express the loving impulses hidden in the hearts of the many who had remembered her with flowers.

Thus the body of a woman greatly loved by all Lousburg for her many virtues and sympathetic spirit was laid to rest, while her memory will remain with those who loved and admired her indefinitely.

John Glenn Buried Here

The interment services of the late John Glenn, of Gatesville, were held in Oakwood cemetery yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, quite a number of friends and relatives of the families attending. The funeral services were held at Gatesville Thursday morning.

Mr. Glenn was a prominent attorney of Gatesville. He is survived by his widow, who was Miss Camilla Yarborough, of Lousburg, and two children. Mr. Glenn was widely known in eastern North Carolina, being active in the public life of his town and County. He had made many friends here upon his several visits to Lousburg.

The local store will be in charge of Mr. John Lancaster, son of Mr. J. S. Lancaster, a former Lousburg boy. See their advertisement on another page in which many opening attractions are announced.

Solution For Low Prices

Lousburg, Feb. 28.—Rural North Carolina's greatest need, according to E. L. Best, superintendent of Franklin County schools, is "some solution for the low prices of farm products."

Mr. Best's statement appears in the sixth annual essay contest booklet of the North Carolina Cotton Growers Cooperative Association which carries the views of 52 leading North Carolinians on "Rural North Carolina's Greatest Need," subject of the contest this year.

"The necessities of life must be provided for a community before churches, schools and living conditions can be improved," Mr. Best said. "To my mind this is the first law of nature and God. The actual necessities cannot be provided with the present prices of cotton and tobacco."

Mr. Best said he believes the essay contest, in which more than 7,000 students participated last year, is "pregnant with fine opportunities for good in rural North Carolina."

'Henry's Wedding'

TO BE STAGED BY 125 LOCAL PEOPLE

"The Beaus and Belles of Grandma's Time" Portrayed by Prominent Men To Be a Big Feature.

Tonight, at eight o'clock the big social and entertainment event "Henry's Wedding" will be staged at the Mills High School under the auspices of Lousburg College. This promises to be the biggest event of the season and the only public wedding of the year. At this time three couples will take the big step into matrimony. They are Dean D. H. Stowe, playing the part of Uncle Henry and Mrs. H. G. Perry taking the part of Samantha Green; also Robert Klare, as Jack and Billy Phillips as Mary, and Nancy Lea as Susan Christopher and Charles Green as Lawyer Brown.

Henry's Wedding is a story of a bachelor bridegroom of 55 getting married to a widow of 49. This in itself brings enough comical and funny situations to keep the crowd in an uproar but to make things worse, Jack, Henry's nephew, planned to get married on the day of the show and collect on the next day, his twenty-fifth birthday, $100,000 from his Grandfather's will. However, the sudden announcement on the part of Uncle Henry of his marriage will cut Jack out of $100,000 and give it to Uncle Henry. Jack with his two boy friends, Tejl and Harris, played by Herbert Clark and Arthur Robertson, attempt to kidnap Uncle Henry. Two Chicago bandits, Pap Horton and Able Edwards take him away and O'Flarely the hard-boiled detective, played by Robert Fearing and Mugs, his dumb assistant played by David Lewis are called in to help solve the mystery.

Eliza played by Mrs. James King, the negro cook and her lazy husband Rastus, played by John King afford a lot of the comedy of the production.

Other characters who add much to the plot are: Virginia played by Lydia Person, Marie played by Miriam Thompson, Rev. Turnipseed played by Dr. Fitzgerald, sister Sadie played by Ruth Parker, brother Jones by Dr. Fleming, Sambo Sax played by Lawrence Weidon, Brother Brown, played by Robert West.

The following men take part in the special feature "Beaus and Belles of Grandma's Time": Traffic Cop Announcer, Dr. S. P. Burt; Bicycle Beau, Dr. H. G. Perry; Broadway Butterfly, Hayward White; Highstepping Johnny, Frank Egerton; Miss Bustie, Bob Smithwick; Swain of 1890, George Ford; Pantalette Girl, Ross Earle; Shiek of 49'er, Frank Wheelers, Jr.; Miss Hoopskirt, Clifford Hall; Beau Brummell, Spencer Matthews; Colonial Gentleman, T. Bowery Girl, Arthur Person; Gas House Harry, Ernest Thomas; Merry Widow, Norward Fuller; Celluloid Collar Bemie, Emmett Swinson; Floradora Beauty, Herman Murphy; Floradora Boy, Harvey Bartholomew.

An outstanding feature is the meeting of the colored brethren and sisters to solve the mystery of Uncle Henry's disappearance. The College Glee Club sing the old Negro spirituals in this special feature. The following are listed in the "Mystic Shrine": Doris Strange, Betty Valentine, Evelyn McCullers, Frances Copeland, Iola Lewis, Ralph Stevens, Ruth Parker, Bruce Culbert, Jesse Cole, Brogden Spence; John W.
