The great EXTRA VOTE OFFER which is in effect this entire week, gives the real workers an opportunity seldom offered early in the campaign. Usually the biggest EXTRA VOTE OFFERS or inducements are made later on in the race and they are given at a time when subscriptions are harder to find.

The "Cash Offer" Campaign is conducted upon entirely different lines from the ordinary "voting contest". The Franklin Times is not attempting to decide the most popular man or woman by any means. In fact, there is very little similarity to a "contest" in this campaign.

The awards will be made strictly upon a basis of results the candidates secure during the campaign. "Results count" is a time-worn slogan and it applies forcibly in the "Cash Offer" Campaign. This is purely a business proposition wherein men and women enter into competition with each other on the same basis and the results obtained decide the size and nature of the reward.

The "Cash Offer" Campaign has made a hit everywhere. Those who wished to take a little time to study the campaign carefully before sending in their nominations have found that the Campaign offers the most equitable opportunity to obtain a rich reward that has ever been made in this section. Names of men and women, continue to arrive to be placed in the list of nominations.

Earnest Efforts Count
The importance of being earnest in everything one does, whether it is at work or play in order to obtain the most gratifying results is an exemplary idea that fits nicely into the policy that members adopt to advantage. Haphazard methods lead one on and on, and though one may seemingly accomplish things, one never attains an ultimate end.

A systematic canvass of your closest friends first will bring best results. Then, after you have seen your best friends and acquaintances you should spread out to new territory, so to speak, and make a canvass of the other fellows' friends and acquaintances. You have a lot of friends and hundreds of acquaintances after once you begin enumerating them. Every one of them is a prospect, for they all read newspapers. It is surprising, with what ease and how quickly you will be able to send your vote total soaring and place yourself in a commanding position in the race for the big awards.

Biggest Vote Offer
This is positively the very biggest EXTRA VOTE OFFER that will be made, and those who do their best work now will have much to be thankful for when the votes are counted.

Out of town members should bear in mind particularly that all subscriptions that are mailed Saturday and bearing a postmark to show that they were mailed that day will be accepted by the campaign department to apply on the big EXTRA VOTE OFFER. A very decided drop in the number of extra votes allowed for subscriptions will be made after Saturday, March 11. Now is the time for all earnest workers to put in their best efforts.

NOTE—All candidates are requested to make a cash report to the campaign manager on each Wednesday and Saturday during the campaign. This is imperative. The campaign office will be open on Wednesday until 6 P. M. and on Saturdays until 8 P. M. If you cannot call at the office in person, be sure to mail your subscriptions or send them in by someone.

ANTON J. CERMAK

Mayor Anton J. Cermak Dies

Zangara Went on Trial For First Degree Murder Tuesday

Miami, March 6.—Gulseppe Zangara, the diminutive hater of kings and presidents who tried to assassinate President Roosevelt last month, was indicted by the Dade county grand jury late today on a charge of murdering Mayor Anton J. Cermak, of Chicago.

Cermak, one of five struck by Zangara's wildly scattered shots at Bay Front park, succumbed after a courageous battle against death early today.

Cermak's body was removed from Jackson Memorial hospital to a funeral parlor this afternoon and there, dressed in a tuxedo in a flag-draped coffin, was viewed by hundreds of persons.

The Mayor of Chicago looked much as he did in life, except for a marked thinness in the face. His daughters sobbed as they viewed the body. "Oh daddy, dear daddy, he wanted so much to live," cried Mrs. Floyd Kenley, Cermak's youngest daughter.

The grand jury reached its decision after deliberating nearly four hours. There never was any doubt of the ultimate verdict as facts in the case were agreed upon by the State and Zangara. The erratic little Italian bricklayer had freely admitted the shooting. He said he took a revolver to the park the night of Feb. 15 to slay the then President-elect, Roosevelt, who was to address the citizens of Miami after returning from a yacht trip. Although Zangara had not intended to kill Mayor Cermak or injure the other four victims, the law permits him to be charged with wilful intent.

Raised To Eagle Scouts

Carey Howard, Jr., and Kenneth Davis Receive Scout Honor at Meeting in Louisburg Tuesday Night.

The rank and medal of Eagle Scout were awarded to two of the foremost members of the Louisburg Boy Scout Troop 20, Carey Howard, Jr., and Kenneth Davis, at the monthly Boy Scout Court of Honor for the Area composed of Franklin, Vance and Granville Counties, that was held in the Mills High School Auditorium in Louisburg, Tuesday night, March 7th at 7:45 o'clock.

A most interesting program at this Court of Honor was presented. The opening was made with the bugle call to colors by Al. Hodges, Jr., Bugler for the Occaneechee Council, which was followed by the Scout Oath led by Mr. Claude Humphreys, Scout Executive of the Council. The entire audience joined in the singing of "America". A word of welcome to the visiting troops and the audience to the Court of Honor was given by Professor W. R. Mills, Superintendent of Mills High School.

Rev. I. W. Hughes, rector of Holy Innocents Episcopal Church of Henderson, was in charge of the awarding of the merit badges to the scouts qualifying for the various ranks, which included the following from Louisburg: Tenderfoot—Billie Clifton, Colin McKinne presented by Mr. Claude Humphreys; Second Class—Herbert Scoggin, Ernest Wells, Joe Macon Beasley, awarded by Mr. William Bryant of Henderson; Star Rank—Fisher Beasley, Jr., William Lee Beasley, Thomas Wheelless, Richard Yarborough, awarded by Mr. William Bryant of Henderson; Merit Badges—Fisher Beasley, Jr., personal health, firemanship, pathfinding, William Lee Beasley first aid and first aid to animals; Al Hodges, Jr., animal industry and automobile; Cary Howard, Jr., farm records and bookkeeping; Badger Joyner, first aid to animals, public health and reading; Reuben Kissell, pathfinding; James Person pathfinding and swimming; Thomas Wheelless, public health, pathfinding and wood work; Richard Yarborough, firemanship, reading and stamp collecting.

The Gold Eagle Palm was awarded to Allison Hodges, Jr., by Mr. —, Dixon of Henderson. Young Hodges has the honor of being the first eagle scout of Franklin County and Louisburg, receiving this rank at the Court of Honor on March 4th, 1932, and is also bugler for the Occaneechee Council.

The most impressive part of the Court of Honor was the awarding of the rank and medal of Eagle Scout to Carey Howard, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Howard, and Kenneth Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Davis. These two boys are honored in the fact that they are the recipients of the medals and ranks at the second ceremony for the awarding of Eagle rank to members of the Louisburg Boy Scout Troop, and their entrance into this rank increase the number of eagle scouts in their troop to three. Mr. E. H. Malone presented the medals which were pinned upon the boys by their mothers.

Following this service the program was continued by a trumpet solo by Brogden Spence, student at Louisburg College. The group was addressed by Rev. O. P. FitzGerald, pastor of the Louisburg Methodist Church and an ex-scout, who was introduced by Professor W. R. Mills. The program was closed with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner", followed by "Taps" by Bugler Hodges.

This Court of Honor was attended by scouts from Oxford, Henderson Troop No. 30 with 35 of its members, Franklinton, Stem, Epsom, and Creedmoor. The eagle scouts of Raleigh were invited guests to this Court of Honor. Aside from the many scouts of Raleigh were invited guests to this Court of Honor. Aside from the many scouts attending quite a large number of people of Louisburg and neighboring towns were present at this occasion.

MODIFIES BANK HOLIDAY RULING

Washington, March 6.—New life was pumped into the faltering pulse of the nation's financial structure tonight when the Treasury department ruled that banks closed by the modified holiday may reopen to accept new deposits which would be payable upon demand.

As Secretary of the Treasury William H. Woodin issued these orders, President Franklin D. Roosevelt addressing a conference of Governors at the White House expressed the hope that the public would be quick to take advantage of this opportunity.

Deposits made prior to the bank holiday and not held under special guarantee plans devised by institutions which restricted withdrawals, are not affected by the new Treasury ruling unless

President Calls Bank Holiday

Calls Congress Into Session To Work Out Plan To Relieve Financial Situation of Country

LATEST
Latest news dispatches from the banking situation indicate the idea of issuing national script has been abandoned and that instead from three to five billion dollars in Federal Reserve notes will be issued instead and put into circulation. President Roosevelt has agreed on certain legislation he hoped to put before Congress yesterday for immediate action and is credited with saying he intended to ask Congress to recess after Saturday for about three weeks to give him time to put his plans into action.

Most State banks were opened yesterday with generous modification and business continued as usual.

Washington, March 6.—A four-day modified bank holiday was declared by President Roosevelt in a proclamation effective at midnight.

It will last through Thursday. All bank and other financial institutions were ordered to suspend payments of gold and other forms of currency now on deposit.

The effect is to apply an embargo on export of gold also. Banks will be permitted to issue clearing house certificates in small denominations, which will serve as emergency currency.

Congress was called to meet in special session Thursday. President Roosevelt hopes emergency banking legislation can be rushed through at once.

Not Off Gold
Shortly after midnight Secretary of Treasury Woodin, emerging from a conference at the Treasury building with leading bankers of Chicago, and New York, declared orally to reporters that the "United States is not off the gold standard." He said this action by President Roosevelt would mark the turn of the tide.

Arthur Ballentine, Undersecretary of Treasury under Mr. Hoover was with Woodin.

"It is foolish to even think we are off the gold standard," Ballentine chimed in. "It would be just as logical to assume that we are off the currency standard as to believe that we are no longer on the gold standard."

New Accounts.
President Roosevelt's proclamation provided that the Secretary of Treasury may permit banks to accept new accounts, which will be handled as separate funds and be subject to withdrawal without restriction. These funds must be kept in cash, government securities or be deposited with Federal Reserve banks.

He also authorized the Secretary of Treasury to permit individual banks within his discretion, to resume normal banking operations — a modification intended to permit banks in insular possessions and exceptionally illiquid banks in the United States to function by special permission.

This drastic action, unprecedented in peace time, came at the end of a day of feverish conferences. President Roosevelt, sitting in his study, wearing a blue serge business suit, calm and conversing in his normal good humor with his advisers, signed the historic proclamation as of 12:05 a. m.
