MAKES RAIDES

Sheriff F. N. Spivey reported making raids and destroying beer and whiskey on Wednesday of last week as follows. He was assisted by officers John P. Moore and George P. Foster.

Destroyed 500 to 600 gallons of beer back of Shady Grove colored church.

Two big stands of beer near old May place south of Louisburg.

A lot of beer on branch back of Thomas Nelms.

A lot of beer and a container of whiskey back of Palmer Foggs. At this place the still was in operation, but watchers gave the signal and the operators escaped with the cap.

Crop Production Loan Borrowers Of Franklin Co.

I am satisfied that there will be Government money available for those who need to borrow in the year 1934. It will be necessary for each individual to put forth the proper effort to help himself.

There are a great number of individuals in the County who owe the Government money on old loans. It will be helpful to those persons to pay those old balances. If you are not in a position to pay in full, come to see me. I will do all I can to help you keep your credit standing.

I cannot tell how long my office will remain open to aid you people; therefore, it is important for you to attend to this matter at once.

Please accept my hearty thanks for the many courtesies extended me during the past year by the good people of Franklin County.

Wishing you one and all a Happy, Prosperous year in 1934, I am

Cordially,
HARRY P. STEVENS,
Field Supervisor.

Dead

Our hearts were saddened last Sunday night, December, the seventeenth, at eight o'clock, when the Death Angel entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Cottrell, and took from them their darling baby boy, Elliott Alexander.

His short little life, of just two months, was so sweet, and full of good cheer, that it seems but yesterday he was here. We know that a mother's arms feel so empty when her baby is not there, but why should we weep and mourn, when we know that little Alexander, has gone from his suffering here, to those bright mansions above.

Everything was done for him that possibly could be done, but God knew best, and choose to take him home to Him.

The burial service, conducted by Rev. E. H. Davis, Monday, December the eighteenth, at twenty-three, was largely attended, and the floral offering was beautiful.

The deepest sympathy of their many friends, goes out to the bereaved father, mother, grandparents, and other relatives.

A FRIEND.

Heralding The New Year

Dies of Wounds

Melvin Hartsfield, colored, died Monday at the Community hospital in Louisburg from wounds he said were inflicted by Ben Whitaker, colored, on December 12th, when he was robbed of twenty-five dollars and taken up the railroad and hid out in an old field and the straw set afire. He claimed he was clubbed and robbed on Cripple Creek. Several days later he got back to his home and was taken to the hospital. As a result of his statement Ben Whitaker was arrested and placed in jail to await the developments of the wounds. On Friday night he decided he didn't care to spend the Christmas holidays as a guest of Franklin County and saved his way to freedom, but took time before leaving to write a note to the officers stating that he would be back in time to attend January Court.

Milk Bottles

The 1933 Legislature passed the following bill relative to milk bottles:

An Act to prohibit the wrongful use of milk bottles, crates, cans and other containers of dairy products.

Section 1. No person, firm or corporation shall use, or permit to be used a milk bottle, or other receptacle designed as a milk container, or container of dairy products, and having the name, brand or trade mark of any other person, firm or corporation thereon, for any purpose other than as a milk container, or as a container of dairy products.

Section 2. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to use or permit to be used any milk bottle, can, crate, or any other container for milk or milk products which has the name, label, trade name or inscription of any other person, firm or corporation blown, embossed or marked thereon.

Section 3. That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to purchase milk bottles except from a wholesale dealer, retail store or dairyman having the same for sale and it shall also be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, other than dealers having the same for sale, to sell any milk bottles: Provided, that this act shall not apply to judicial sales.

Section 4. Any person, firm or corporation or agent willfully violating any of the sections of this statute shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be subject to a penalty of a fine of not more than fifty ($50.00) dollars, or imprisonment of not more than thirty days for each and every violation thereof.

Section 5. All laws and clauses of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 6. This act shall be in full force and effect from and after its ratification.

Ratified this 20th day of April, A. D. 1933.

Auxiliary Meets

The American Legion Auxiliary met on Tuesday, December 19th for the regular Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. C. A. Ragland. Co-hostesses were Mrs. J. R. Allen and Mrs. F. B. Leonard. As is the custom the children of the members were invited to this meeting. The home was decorated with holly in real holiday manner and guests were welcomed in like spirit.

The meeting opened with the Auxiliary as a whole pledging allegiance to the flag followed by prayer, Mrs. R. W. Smithwick read the preamble to the constitution to the assembly, Mrs. T. C. Alston gave a comprehensive report of work done at the lunch room showing that ex-service men's children were being cared for. Two letters of appreciation were read by Mrs. J. E. Malone, Jr., the president. The matter of sending the requested money to the men at Oteen was taken up. Mrs. H. W. Perry, the vice president moved the fund be allotted as formerly, with the balance, that will be left after the unit has sent the state allotment to our Ward, being sent to Miss Adams for further use along the same rehabilitation lines. Mrs. D. W. Spivey seconded the motion.

The program was then turned over to the children who sang Christmas Carols and gave Christmas readings, after which they had a treat all their own while the rest of the unit were served tea. Adjournment followed.

T. C. Harris Dead

Mr. Turner Clifton Harris died at his home in Youngsville on Sunday morning at the age of 53, following declining health for some time. Besides his wife he leaves two daughters, Mrs. J. G. Allen, Jr., of Raleigh, and Miss Bettie Clifton Harris, of Youngsville. He is also survived by one brother, Mr. J. Edgar Harris, and six sisters, Miss Nannie Harris, Miss Marguerite Harris, Mrs. J. P. Timberlake, Mrs. J. T. Baker, Mrs. E. J. Cheatham, Mrs. J. G. Morris.

Mr. Harris was one of Franklin County's most substantial and straightforward citizens. He was always interested in his community, his government and his fellowmen and in his death his community, county and state sustains a great loss.

The funeral services were held from the home on Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. C. B. Howard, and the interment was made in the family cemetery at the old home place about 5 miles east of Youngsville. Each of the services was largely attended and the floral tribute was especially pretty.

The pallbearers were S. C. Hadfield, Elton Mitchell, Pet Faulkner, Jimmie Wiggins, H. M. Green, J. W. Winston.

The deepest sympathy is extended the bereaved family.
