THE FRANKLIN COUNTY FAIR

To Open Next Tuesday

Every inch of space has been contracted for in the Exhibit Hall of the Franklin County Fair for its twentieth annual exhibit. And the displays put on by the business men will be most interesting. Thousands will be here to attend the fair and the exhibits will be reviewed by them with much interest.

The Cetina and Wilson Shows, now playing the Greensboro Fair, will be on the midway and the famous Morrow Troupe of famed acrobats will be among the free entertainment on the midway. This troupe is booked by Geo. Hamid, the New York producer, and will be seen at the State Fair following our fair.

More interest than usual is being shown in the exhibits and the following ladies have charge of the exhibit space: Pantry Supplies, Mrs. Geo. Cobb; Canning, Mrs. M. S. Clifton; Needlework, Mrs. F. B. Leonard and Mrs. P. B. Griffin; Flowers, Mrs. H. C. Taylor. These ladies are all experienced and will no doubt have wonderful displays in their respective departments. The management informs us that the premiums will be paid Friday of Fair week at the Fair Grounds.

This will probably be the best and most interesting Fair Franklin County has had in many years.

Burglars Take Heavy Safe; Get Little

Early Friday morning, burglars broke into the store operated by Howell G. Jones at Katesville, five miles from Louisburg, and stole the safe containing $30.00, sugar and other supplies valued at about $150.00, and ten or twelve dollars from the cash drawer.

The marauders evidently used a bolt-cutter to cut away the strong wire over the front window, then raised the window, entered the store and unbarred the front door. The safe weighed 2,000 lbs., and it must have taken several men to move it. They carted it away on a truck stolen recently from Willie Wilson who lives near Ingleside. They abandoned the truck on an infrequently traveled road about two and one-half miles away, near Cedar Creek. The safe was discovered on the truck, but no trace of the sugar and merchandise has been found. It is supposed that the intruders broke the lock and then used sharp instruments to prize the safe open.

"Peeping Tom"

Quite a bit of excitement prevailed on Baker heights early Sunday morning when a "Peeping Tom" visited the home of Mr. C. C. Hudson and engaged in his nefarious crime. Miss Lucile Hudson was badly frightened upon seeing the negro's face at the window and gave the alarm. Mr. Hudson gave chase but could not see the party sufficient to identify him. Only saw him passing through the weeds as he made his escape towards the woods at the rear of the house. By this time a number of the neighbors had gathered and a person was seen on the street near the home and Mr. Hudson went to investigate and recognized Hoot Egerton, colored, who lives about a quarter of a mile back of the Hudson's home. Upon being requested to go down to the crowd and talk over the matter Egerton told Hudson "I haven't done anything, Captain" and ran, at which Mr. Hudson shot at him to stop him, but Egerton made his get away. Later officers visited the home of Egerton, secured one of his shoes and fitted it to a track made by the culprit under the window and a perfect fit was observed. Following this Egerton was arrested and bound over to Recorder's Court by Squire S. P. Boddie. A hearing was had in Recorder's Court and for the lack of sufficient evidence connecting the defendant with the crime, he was acquitted.

Allotment Cards

County Agent E. J. Morgan states that there seems to be a misunderstanding by a few growers in the county who signed tobacco reduction contracts, that after they sell their allotment they can go ahead and sell any surplus they have and pay the 25 per cent tax under an administrative ruling any excess above the 80 per cent must be sold under another contracting producers card.

Before a card can be used by another grower the owner of this card is required to go to the County Agent's office and have the card transferred to the party who is to get it.

Mr. Floyd, extension tobacco specialist, has several million pounds in allotment cards that have been delivered to him by Georgia growers who failed to make their allotments. These farmers are offering them at 5c per pound.

All growers in this county desiring any of these cards will please call at the County Agent's office and make application for the number pounds they will want to purchase from the Georgia growers.

Military Boys Return Home

Battery B, 113th F. A. N. C. N. G., Louisburg Military unit, which has been on strike duty stationed at High Point, since Sunday, September 16th, returned home Tuesday afternoon. The boys were all looking well and seemed to have enjoyed their "outing."

It is understood there is some one in this vicinity practicing the "Peeping Tom" stunt quite frequently and it is a pity that the right party can't be caught with a sufficient amount of evidence to rid the community of this menace.

Methods of rat-proofing buildings and premises, is the subject of a new farmers' bulletin.

TOBACCO PRICES ADVANCE

Market Averages $30.05
Wednesday; Many Averages Above 40 Cents

Prices have advanced steadily for the past week on the Louisburg tobacco market until today all grades are selling higher than since 1919. On Wednesday more than 80,000 pounds was sold for an average of $30.05 and many individual averages ran above 40 cents. A farmer speaking to a TIMES man said more tobacco is selling above forty cents a pound than is selling for less than forty cents.

Now is the time to sell. Get your primings ready first. Louisburg is proving itself the place for you to sell your tobacco. Come to Louisburg where everybody WELCOMES you.

Discontinue N. C. E. R. A. Work Projects

Raleigh, Sept. 25.—Due to the seasonal increase in farm employment in harvesting and marketing cotton, tobacco, and other crops all work projects under the NCERA in rural sections of the State will be discontinued immediately. Mrs. Thomas O'Berry, State Relief Administrator, announced today.

Mrs. O'Berry said that hundreds of calls for farm workers have been made at local relief offices by private employers during the past several days indicating the need for work and direct relief to care for unemployed farm workers has sharply declined.

The State Administrator said that all farm workers in the State classified as "employables" will be removed from the relief rolls not later than September 26.

"During the height of the harvesting season," Mrs. O'Berry said "when the need for additional farm workers is so urgent, the need for work projects and direct relief to care for unemployed people is reduced to the minimum."

"With few exceptions, we are suspending all work projects in the rural areas and removing farm laborers from relief rolls in order that farmers and others offering private employment may be assured adequate help during the harvesting season."

DANCE

There will be a dance held in Louisburg on Tuesday, October 9th, at the New Franklin Street recreation hall. This is the first dance to be given in the new hall and will be given under the auspices of the Green Hill Golf Club. Preparations for accommodating a record attendance are being made and a delightful occasion is anticipated.

Recorder's Court

The main interest shown in Tuesday's session of Franklin Recorder's Court was due to the case of "Peeping Tom" against Hoot Egerton, in which the State failed to develop sufficient evidence for Judge Malone to hold the defendant responsible. The disposition of the docket was made as follows:

William Tant was found guilty of violating prohibition law, and given 60 days on roads, upon payment of costs and $30 to Fuller, execution of sentence to operate only upon order of this court.

J. H. Medlin, operating automobile intoxicated, drunk and disorderly, continued.

Edward Winston plead guilty of deadly weapon and was given 90 days in jail, upon payment of costs and $30 to Fuller, execution of sentence to operate only upon order of this court.

Hoot Egerton, was found not guilty of trespassing and "peeping Tom."

All members of Youngsville Council No. 273 are urged to be present on Tuesday night, Oct. 2, and all other councils are welcome. Refreshments will be served, and also there will be a string band. Be sure and don't forget the date, Oct. 2, at 7:30 o'clock p. m.

America's Youngest Mother is 11 Years Old

GREATER HENDERSON DAY

Raleigh, Sept. 25.—Manager Norman Y. Chambliss is certain that North Carolinians will be convinced that the comeback of the State Fair last year was no flash in the pan but a permanent revival of the real display of North Carolina's agricultural and educational resources.

Finishing touches are now being put on the fair which will open here Monday, October 8, at noon to last through Saturday night. Farm and home exhibits as well as livestock and probably the best collection of entertainment features ever before seen at the State Fair bid fair to make State Fair Week a gala one for North Carolinians.

"Agriculture and the home must always come first in the plans for any fair of which I am manager," said Mr. Chambliss, "and they always have been the backbone of American fairs and must continue to be if the fairs are to survive."

For the first time, the fair is restricted to North Carolina products and out-of-State exhibitors will not be allowed to compete for the $10,500 in prize money.

Manager Chambliss says there will be a clean and good midway for the fair. Max Lindemann's World of Mirth Shows carrying 20 different shows and 15 thrilling rides will hold forth on the midway. The grandstand attractions will be headlined by the Winter Garden Revue, a New York musical comedy show, in addition to some of the best free acts now making the fair circuits.

"We are really proud of the entertainment features we have booked for this year's fair," Mr. Chambliss said. "The entertainment will be clean and wholesome and none should have any hesitancy about visiting any shows we have."

The fair will be featured shortly after its opening by the State Fair Marshals' Parade under the sponsorship of the Raleigh Junior League. Monday night of Fair Week will be featured by the presence of civic club members living within a radius of 60 miles of Raleigh who will be guests of the fair management opening night.

To exchange jelly with school lunch room for lunches for underprivileged children of veterans or others if a satisfactory arrangement could be made.

To donate to the College library and to the High School library a copy each of the "History of the American Legion" and the "History of the American Legion Auxiliary."

To collect magazines from unit members to be given to the High School library.

A motion was carried to sponsor the Red Cross membership campaign and committee was appointed to confer with Miss Susie Meadows, county Red Cross chairman.

Mrs. C. A. Ragland then gave her report of the A. L. A. State Convention. It was decided to have the unit's name engraved on the membership cup before it is turned over to this year's winner.

At this time the president read a letter from the president-elect, Miss Annie Perry Neal, who, having accepted a position out of the city was forced to resign. The unit congratulates Miss Neal but regrets deeply that she will not be able to serve.

PRICES HIGH AT OXFORD

Oxford, Sept. 26.—Prices on the better grades of tobacco offered on the Oxford market skyrocketed Friday and the reopening Monday after the week-end holiday found prices firm on all grades.

The word is getting noised about that Oxford has led the belt in prices for several days and new patrons are coming daily, many of them from distant tobacco-growing counties.

Sales began Monday without a block in any of the six large warehouses, which have a daily selling capacity of more than 500,000 pounds. Two full sets of buyers representing all the manufacturers and exporters and a number of independent buyers bid spiritedly and keep prices highest in Oxford, every day.

The bulk of the offerings to date have been ground primings, but a greater volume of wrappers have turned up on the floors this week and this type of tobacco is easily bringing from $40 to $80 the hundred. The average for the entire market the past week when 1,767,574 pounds sold, was near $27.00 per hundred.

Oxford is the only market in the belt which offers government grading. Farmers are confident this service is helpful in getting higher prices.

Joe Cronin To Mary Daughter Of His Boss

Nats' Manager and Mildred Robertson to Be Married In Capital Today

Washington, Sept. 26.—Joseph Edward Cronin, likeable young Irish manager of the once-up-but-not-down Washington Senators, is going to marry his boss' daughter.

A romance that began six years ago and blossomed this spring.

After announcing the find, Cronin jumped into an automobile and sped toward the district attorney's office.

Persons who got a glimpse of the bag as it was rushed to the district attorney's office, estimated that the bundle was three feet in length and about six inches wide.

Later it was reported the money was found in four rolls back of a board on the side of the garage, having been rolled to fit the holes.

Back of the board also was found a .25 caliber automatic pistol.

HAUPTMANN SUSPECTED LINDBERGH KIDNAPPING

Bronx County Grand Jury Indicts Bruno Richard Hauptmann on Charge of Extortion as Alleged Receiver of $50,000 Lindbergh Ransom; More "Blood Money" Is Found In Garage, Every One of Bills Being a Lindbergh Certificate; Lindbergh Testified Before Grand Jury Earlier In Day; Hauptmann Said Money Was In Garage

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 26.—Doubt was expressed today whether Bruno Richard Hauptmann, indicted in New York on a charge of extortion in the Lindbergh kidnaping, could be tried in this state on a charge of kidnaping.

From a High official source, which declined to be quoted, it was learned that the kidnaping charge might be outlawed under the statute of limitations.

New York, Sept. 26.—Four rolls of bills amounting to $840 were found today in Bruno Richard Hauptmann's garage, and District Attorney Samuel J. Foley said Hauptmann told him it was part of a bundle of money given to him for safekeeping by the late Isidor Fisch.

"Every one of the bills is a number of independent buyers bid spiritedly and keep prices highest in Oxford, every day.

The Bronx county grand jury today indicted Hauptmann on a charge of extortion as the alleged receiver of the $50,000 Lindbergh ransom.

The indictment was handed up to Supreme Court Justice Charles B. McLaughlin in the Bronx county building in less than an hour after the grand jury had returned from a luncheon recess.

At the morning session, the grand jury had heard from Col. Charles A. Lindbergh his own story of his futile attempt to ransom his kidnapped son two and a half years ago by the payment of $50,000 through Dr. John F. Condon, the "Jafsie" of the negotiations, to a supposed emissary of the kidnapers in St. Raymond's cemetery in the Bronx.

The ransom money just uncovered was found tightly rolled and stuffed into five small holes bored into a two-foot two-by-four.

In a hollowed-out space below the holes, police found a small automatic pistol, fully loaded and apparently of German make. It would fit in the palm of a man's hand and bore the inscription "lilliput kal—4.25."

Foley made his announcement during a luncheon recess of the grand jury. The district attorney said that Hauptmann told him there was $600 to $800 in the garage and Foley said the prisoner added "that is part of the money which I now know to be Lindbergh money."

The money was found by Lieut. Martin Tobin ten minutes after a police crew of two carpenters and three laborers had begun to dismantle the garage.

After announcing the find, Tobin jumped into an automobile and sped toward the district attorney's office.

Persons who got a glimpse of the bag as it was rushed to the district attorney's office, estimated that the bundle was three feet in length and about six inches wide.

Later it was reported the money was found in four rolls back of a board on the side of the garage, having been rolled to fit the holes.

Back of the board also was found a .25 caliber automatic pistol.
