CANNON'S ARE FOUND GUILTY

GRAND JURY RECOMMENDS BREAKING UP SLOT MACHINE RACKET

Roger Cannon Gets 18 to 24 Months, Johnnie Cannon Gets 12 to 18 Months in State Prison - Champion Required to Provide For Family - Many Other Cases Disposed Of Roger and Johnnie Cannon were found guilty of breaking into G. W. Murphy & Son Store in August, on Wednesday afternoon and were sentenced by Judge Frizelle to the State's prison, Roger getting from 18 to 24 months and Johnnie 12 to 18 months. This was a hard fought case with W. H. Yarborough, Hill Yarborough, G. M. Beam and E. F. Griffin representing the Cannons and Chas. P. Green assisting Solicitor J. C. Little in the prosecution.

"No man, unless he believes in law enforcement and is of unimpeachable character should be drawn as a juror," commented Judge Frizelle in his charge to the grand jury Monday. He did not go into an explanation of each crime as the judges did many, many years ago, stating that it was not necessary as there is hardly a ten year old child now that doesn't know what constitutes crime in North Carolina. He wanted each juror to fully understand the oath they had taken and impressed the importance of their keeping faith as it was upon them and other grand jurors upon whom the safety, peacefulness and prosperity of our country rests. He named only a few instances of crime and called special attention to slot machines being run contrary to law. His charge was unique in comparison with the average charge, and because of this difference was especially impressive and interesting.

The grand jury is composed of the following gentlemen: M. C. Gupton, Foreman, L. W. Mitchener, J. B. Parrish, J. E. Alford, W. H. Frazier, J. B. Hunt, N. A. Parnell, D. C. Gupton, Z. V. Johnson, D. T. Dickie, J. E. Perry, F. L. Davis, J. C. Champion, L. T. Insoe, S. E. Wilson, M. E. Bledsoe, Cecil Burnette, B. M. C. Mullen. Grover C. Parrish was appointed officer to grand jury. The grand jury was provided quarters in the Ford building to the rear of the Court room and after the completion of the charge the docket was taken up and disposed of as follows:

S. C. Holden having paid into Court $10 the case was continued under former order.

Peter Dickerson having paid into Court for the use of Pendergrass $15 this case was continued under former order.

Dock Young plead guilty to an affray and judgment was suspended upon payment of Magistrate's costs.

E. B. Lancaster plead guilty to simple assault and judgment was suspended upon payment of costs. J. W. Champion was found guilty of abandonment and non-support, and required to make provision for his family.

J. W. Hunt, carrying concealed weapons. Mistrial.

Charlie Gill plead guilty of forcible trespass and was given two years on roads, to be suspended upon payment of costs and remaining of good behavior for that period.

Fred Davis entered a plea of temporary larceny of an automobile and was given 2 years on roads, to be suspended upon payment of costs and to remain of good behavior and abstain from use of alcoholic liquors for a period of four years.

Henry Rogers was found guilty of reckless driving and not guilty of operating an automobile intoxicated, and was given 90 days in jail, execution not to issue till Dec. 16th, and not then provided the defendant pay a fine of $25 and the costs.

The case of larceny of an automobile against Zeb Collins was continued.

The case of seduction against Haywood Johnson was continued. Johnnie Cannon and Roger Cannon were found guilty of house breaking and were sentenced to State prison, Johnnie Cannon for 12 to 18 months and Roger Cannon for 18 to 24 months.

Eugene Yarborough, charged with rape, tendered a plea of assault with intent to commit rape, and was given a sentence of 14 to 15 years in State prison.

Charlie Smith, robbery from person, not pros with leave.

George Williams and Early Hargrove, house breaking and larceny, not pros with leave.

Zoll Tharrington, drunk and

Scenes As Federal Court Grinds Insull Grist

CHICAGO... Above are courtroom photos in the Insull case as the federal prosecution centers its fire on Samuel Insull and his son, Samuel Insull, Jr., (left), on the charges of using the mails to defraud investors through the sale of stock. At the right is Federal Judge, James H. Wilkinson, who is presiding over the trial of the Insulls and 16 co-defendants.

disorderly, not pros with leave. Miss Lil Faulkner, resisting of floor, not guilty.

Roosevelt Alston plead guilty to assault with deadly weapon, 12 months on roads.

Al Crudup plead guilty to manufacturing whiskey. The case against Twitt Robbins was thrown out—he being dead.

This is only a one week term and will no doubt clear the docket of quite a number of cases before the term closes.

The grand jury completed its work on Wednesday afternoon and after making the following report, were discharged with the thanks of the Court:

To the Hon. J. Paul Frizelle, Judge Presiding:

We, the members of the Grand Jury for the October Term of Court, 1934, beg to submit our report as follows:

We have passed on all bills that have come before us and have visited the various county offices and find them well kept and properly indexed for speedy references.

We have also visited the County Jail and find same in good condition except in need of window lights, some of the beds were not in a sanitary condition and some of the inmates did not have sufficient bed covering.

We have visited the State convict camp and found same in perfect condition.

We have also visited the County Home and find same in good condition but recommend a larger cook stove and some arrangement be made to keep water out of the boiler room. The inmates say that they are satisfied and that they are well fed and cared for.

We further recommend:

1st: That the township constables and county officers break up the slot machine racket in Franklin County according to the present laws governing same.

2nd: That Franklin County have and keep the same Grand Jury for a six months term.

Respectfully submitted,

M. C. GUPTON,
Foreman of Grand Jury.

Installs Sprinkler System

Mr. J. S. Howell is installing a sprinkler system in his Cotton Storage House on the Seaboard tracks for better fire protection. He tells the TIMES that quite a big lot of cotton is being stored by members of the Cotton Association and by others who are drawn into the government 12 cents a pound instead of selling on the open market. "DAMES"

Mammoth Musical Comedy At The Louisburg Theatre Thursday and Friday, October 25th and 26th

"Dames," Warner Bros.' newest and most spectacular musical comedy romance, comes to the Louisburg Theatre for two days, starting Thursday, October 25th, with an all star cast headed by Joan Blondell, Dick Powell and Ruby Keeler.

Three hundred beautiful girls dance and frolic in beautiful and complicated ensembles that are said to be the most novel and most sensational yet created by that master of special numbers, Busby Berkeley.

The picture is said to contain a number of the catchiest songs of the year, written by three teams of ace songsters, Warren and Dubin, Fain and Kahal and Dixon and Wrubel. These are sung by Dick Powell, Ruby Keeler, Joan Blondell and Phil Regan, radio's "Singing Cop."

The story, by Robert Lord and Delmer Daves, carries a definite plot which is said to be one of the most hilarious on record. Joan Blondell heads the cast in the role of a chorus girl mad cap who delights in embarrassing dignified gentlemen, and who eventually weds a millionaire moralist.

Dick Powell and Ruby Keeler furnish most of the romance as a pair of lovers whose match is anathema to their families. Three famous comedians, ZaSu Pitts, Guy Kibbee and Hugh Herbert, provide a large share of the comedy.

Others in the cast include Arthur Vinton, Sammy Fain and Arthur Lylesworth.

LOUISBURG BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday, October 21.
9:45 A. M. Sunday School.
11 A. M. Preaching by the pastor.

7:30 P. M. Preaching by Rev. L. B. Reavis, of Henderson.

Pastor D. P. Harris will preach at Cedar Rock Sunday night at 7:30.

Bro. Reavis will be in the meeting of our young people at 6:30, and will make a short talk to them. We urge our young people to hear Mr. Reavis in their B. Y. P. U. meeting, hope a large congregation will hear his sermon at our regular preaching hour.

Cedar Rock is one of our fine country churches, and we are glad to exchange pulpits with their pastor.

D. P. Harris, Pastor.

KILL COTTON STALKS

Cotton growers should cut the stalks just as soon as picking is finished, says C. H. Brannon, of State College, and plow them under. Boll weevils thrive in the stalks and are better able to survive the winter if allowed to feed on the stalks till frost.

KILLED IN ACCIDENT

Twelve Year Old Colored Boy Run Over By Oil Truck After Being Knocked Down by a Car

Weldon Denton, 12-year-old colored boy, was accidentally killed on Main street in Louisburg about 6 o'clock Tuesday evening when run over by a Ford oil truck belonging to the Home Oil Co., and driven by Mr. Edward Bartholomew. The accident was said by observers to be entirely unavoidable and no one was censured or burdened with the responsibility.

Information received by the TIMES reporter shows that Weldon attempted to cross Main street in front of Wheeler's barber shop and was struck by an automobile driven by a colored preacher named Neal as he emerged from between the parked automobiles and was thrown directly in front of the passing oil truck and was run over before it was possible to make a stop. Several saw—the accident and acclaimed it entirely unavoidable.

The remains were removed to the home and prepared for interment which took place on Wednesday.

FRANKLIN COUNTY AT WAKE FOREST

Wake Forest, Oct. 17.—Twenty-one sons of Franklin County citizens are among the 1,000 students enrolled this semester at Wake Forest College. Representing five different communities, they are:

From Louisburg—E. L. Best, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Best; J. F. Parrish, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Parrish; Douglas Perry, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Perry; B. B. Pruitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Pruitt; J. C. Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Taylor; H. L. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Williams; and J. W. Wilson, son of Mrs. J. S. Wilson.

From Franklinton—J. B. Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Allen; W. P. Dement, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Dement; R. U. Hicks, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Hicks; G. T. Stroud, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Stroud; and J. L. Supman.

From Zebulon—J. H. Cheves, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cheves; L. G. Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Cook; Ennis Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Murphy; J. O. Pearce; B. A. Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Perry.

From Youngsville—J. H. Parrish, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Parrish; and C. V. Timberlake, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Timberlake.

Mr. Perry is in the Graduate School. Allen and Taylor are Law School men, and Hicks is taking the pre-law course. Both Cheves and Supman are contemplating going into medicine, the others doing purely academic work leading to the Bachelor's degree.

YOUNGVILLE CIRCUIT

Everyone is invited and urged to attend the charge Rally Day services held at Bunn this coming Sunday, beginning at 11 A. M. with a sermon by Rev. Paul Root, assistant in Sociology at Duke University. Everyone who has ever heard this exceptionally fine speaker will be pleased to hear him again.

After the morning service a picnic dinner will be served on the church grounds. Bring your basket and enjoy a good meal.

The dinner will be followed by an interesting and instructive service at 2 o'clock, conducted by the laymen of the charge. I am asking that every member of your church be present at these services.

Charles E. Vale, Pastor.

BOY SCOUTS AT RALEIGH

The following Boy Scouts from the Louisburg Troop had an enjoyable time at the State Fair in Raleigh the past week acting as traffic cops and being on duty every two hours. The Scouts were Kenneth Davis, Carey Howard, William Barrow, Richard Yarborough and John Holden.

The Lindbergh Case Moves Into New Jersey

TRENTON, N. J. . . . Above are pictured new faces which appeared in the Lindbergh case when New Jersey returned an indictment against Bruno Hauptmann, captured in New York with some $14,000 of the Lindbergh baby ransom money in his possession. . . . Upper left, Anthony M. Hauck, Jr., youth prosecutor of Hunterdon County, who will handle the state's case. Upper right, Sheriff John Henry Curtis who now has Hauptmann in charge. Lower left, Bruno Hauptmann, charged with "murder". Lower right, Warden Harry O. McCrea of the Flemington County jail.

SENATOR JOSIAH W. BAILEY will speak at Franklinton Community Fair at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. All are invited to hear him.

Community Fair At Franklinton

The Franklinton community will hold a community fair for the first time in several years at the Franklinton High School, October 19-20. The different committees have been hard at work and much interest has been manifested. All indications point to a successful fair. Quite a number of prizes have been donated by different commercial enterprises.

BRINGS $12,500.00

The Spot Cash Store building offered for sale at auction by the W. F. Ross, Inc., on Tuesday morning was bid off, so we understand, by Mr. C. A. Stuart, of Henderson, at $12,500.00. Quite a big crowd was present and enjoyed the music and the crying of the auctioneer. The building was offered as a whole rather than in thirds as advertised.

Ranking Position

Oxford, Oct. 17.—The end of sales last Friday found Oxford in a ranking position in regard to prices and pounds of tobacco sold this season and the current week began with banner sales when $90,000 pounds was offered and brought an average of $36.00.

It is an old saying in this part of the country that tobacco sells better after frost and that proved true here the first of this week, when a heavy break of ordinary tobacco brought increased prices.

Warehouse operators are urging their friends to bring their best tobacco to market now. Quality tobacco is beginning to turn up on the Oxford market in increased volume.

Statistics for the Oxford market follow: The past week the average was $34.55 for 2,068,748 pounds. The season's average is $30.45 for 8,291,704 pounds, warehouses having paid out $252,943.32 for leaf tobacco marketed in the first 20 sale days.

TOBACCO IS SELLING HIGH

Louisburg Market Making Big Averages For Growers Selling Here

Tobacco was still selling high on the Louisburg market as the sales closed yesterday, making big averages for the many growers selling on the local market. With entire market sales averaging around 36 cents and individual averages up to 50 cents the many growers visiting Louisburg have shown the greatest of satisfaction.

The buyers are all anxious for all grades and the buying each day is lively and spirited. The quantity brought in while not as great as could be handled by the facilities, is very encouraging, and gives time for that personal attention so necessary for the full value of the weed.

Louisburg merchants are cooperating and making it greatly to the advantage of the growers to sell in Louisburg by offering merchandise at very attractive prices.

Bring your tobacco to Louisburg and join the throng of satisfied sellers.

SIMILAR HONORS TO GRANDFATHER AND GRANDSON

There appears in a recent Greensboro Daily News the picture of Walter C. Stallings, newly elected Commander of the Henry K. Burton post of the American Legion at Greensboro. This is of deep interest to the people here and at Justice since W. C. Stallings, the grandson of J. L. Bowden a resident of Justice and one of the few Franklin County Confederate veterans yet living.

Election for the Greensboro post was held in August, but the official installation exercises did not occur until Tuesday evening. They took the form of a Dutch supper, several entertainment features and a business session at the Legion hut at the corner of Lindsay and Forbis streets.

The appointment Mr. Stallings received is one of the most important given to young veterans, and the highest honor in his local community. He succeeds A. C. Davis.

There must be a strong patriotic strain running in the family for young Mr. Stallings' 88 year old grandfather, J. L. Bowden, is head of the Confederate Veteran Chapter of Franklin County. The grandson served in many countries overseas as a member of the navy and transport service, braving the dangers of submarines and torpedoes while the grandfather was a private in Company K, Regiment 32 of the Confederate forces and tramped hungry and half clad among the loyal veterans under command of General Early.

He was captured on March 25, 1865, and was in Point Lookout Prison when surrender was made.

Two very different scenes of service but long live a race of such heroes; and as the Arabs say, "May their shadow never grow less."—Nash County News.

DAIRY GRADUATES FARM IN STATE

More than 85 per cent of the students who have graduated in animal husbandry and dairying at State College are putting their college training to practice in North Carolina.

Of the 153 students who have graduated during the past 15 years, says Fred M. Haig, associate professor of animal husbandry and dairying, 16.3 per cent are county agents; 19.4, livestock and dairy farmers; 16.3, superintendents of dairy manufacturing; 9.4, in commercial live stock work; 7.6, managers of livestock and dairy farms; 17.6, state and government agricultural workers and 12.2, per cent college and vocational agricultural teachers.
