THE COOKE SOCIETY

The seventh grade of Epsom High School organized a society on January 16, 1935. The president of the class presided over the meeting. First, we decided on the name of our society which was "The Cooke Society," in honor of our home-room teacher, Miss Vivian Cooke. Second, the nomination of officers were voted on. The election was as follows: President, Harold Ayescue; Vice-President, Sarah Gill; Secretary and Treasurer, Ralph Pernell; Asst. Sec. and Treas., Juanita Rivers Ayescue; Chairman of Program Committee, Sarah Gill; Chairman of Social Committee, Elizabeth Hayes. After we had elected our officers the question arose, how should we get money for our society? It was decided that several members should bring homemade candy to sell. It was further decided that our regular meetings should be held on Friday afternoons of each week. Miss Vivian Cooke, who teaches at Epsom, spent the past weekend at her home near Cedar Rock.

MRS. LIZZIE STURDIVANT

On Thursday, December 13, 1934, the spirit of Mrs. Lizzie Sturdivant quietly took its flight from earth to Heaven. She fell on October 31, and broke her arm from which she never entirely recovered and about a week before her death she developed pneumonia.

Mrs. Sturdivant was formerly Miss Elizabeth G. Leonard—the daughter of H. G. and Penelope Leonard of Nash County. She was born October 14, 1869, being 65 years of age at the time of her death. She joined the Philadelphia Baptist Church at an early age. On March 19, 1890 she was married to Mr. J. B. Sturdivant of Franklin County, who preceded her to the grave fifteen months and five days. When the White Level Baptist Church was organized she moved her membership there from the Philadelphia Baptist Church and remained a faithful and consistent member until her death. She was always interested in the work of her church and the welfare of her community, a devoted wife and mother. To know her, was to love her. Well done, is the Master's welcome for she has done what she could to bless the world and glorify His name.

Mrs. Sturdivant leaves to mourn their loss, one sister, Mrs. Blanche Stallings, Bunn, N. C., four daughters, Mrs. J. J. Bobbitt, Mrs. W. N. Dickens, Miss Juanita Sturdivant of Franklin County and Miss Burlah Sturdivant of Raleigh, N. C., one son, Mr. L. L. Sturdivant of Franklin County, and six grandchildren.

The funeral services were held from White Level Church on Friday afternoon, conducted by her pastor, Rev. F. G. Walker, and was largely attended by friends both near and at a distance. Interment was made in the family cemetery near the home. Her nephews served as pallbearers. The floral tribute was profuse and beautiful.

MORALE RESTORED

The morale of the farmers of the third Farm Credit Administration district, comprising the states of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, has been restored, according to Julian H. Scarborough, general agent of the Farm Credit Administration of Columbia and president of the Federal Land Bank of Columbia, who is in Washington for a meeting of the General Agents of the Farm Credit Administration.

"The changed state of mind of our farmers," said Mr. Scarborough, "is best reflected in the annual meetings of the production credit associations now being held in our district. These meetings are being attended by large crowds of members and non-members. There has not been a discordant note at one of these gatherings; not a word of criticism of anybody nor a note of pessimism. The farmers have entered with enthusiasm into the proceedings of the meetings and are displaying their old-time fire and zeal as they plan for the future, where a year ago they seemed despondent or at a very best doubtful as to what was ahead.

"Collections in our district reflect the improved conditions and also the desire of the farmers to protect and perpetuate the credit

Nineteen of our production credit associations have already collected all production loans and many of the others are near the 100 per cent mark. In not a single association has the farmer-owned stock been impaired; on the contrary the value of the stock in every association has been enhanced.

"The Federal Land Bank of Columbia, the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Columbia Bank for Cooperatives likewise have made good progress. The Columbia Bank for Cooperatives did not have a single delinquent upon its books at the end of its first year's operations."
