WORLD WAR VETERANS

Hold Adjusted Compensation Rally in Court House Tuesday Night

A crowd of World War Veterans estimated in number at one hundred and fifty met in the Franklin County Court House, Tuesday night, for the purpose of discussing the immediate payment of the Adjusted Compensation Certificates.

The meeting was presided over by Major S. P. Boddie. Brief talks were made by Dick Wells, Tracy Stockard, Weldon Egerton, and Mrs. Hugh W. Perry. Mrs. Perry, a past Department President of the American Legion Auxiliary, assured the men that the American Legion Auxiliary was with them one hundred per cent, and stated that she objected to the word "bonus."

Every speaker stressed the fact that the Government had misled the Veterans two years ago, when they were led to believe that the payment of the Adjusted Compensation would endanger the credit of the United States. On the heels of this action the Government has spent billions like a drunken sailor, on everything from C. W. A. to X. Y. Z.

Resolution were adopted to forward letters of thanks to Honorable Robert R. Reynolds, and Honorable Harold D. Cooley, for the staunch support that they have given to the Bill calling for the immediate cash payment of the Adjusted Compensation.

"Whereas, the immediate cash payment of the Adjusted Service Certificates will increase tremendously the purchasing power of millions of the consuming public, distributed uniformly throughout the nation; and will provide relief for the holders thereof who are in dire need and distress, because of the present unfortunate economic conditions; and will lighten immeasurably the burden which cities, counties and states are now required to carry for relief; and

"Whereas, the payment of said Certificates will NOT create any additional debt, but will discharge and retire an acknowledged contract obligation of the Government, now therefore, be it

"Resolved, that since the Government of the United States is now definitely committed to the policy of spending additional sums of money for the purpose of hastening recovery from the present economic crisis, The Jambes Post of the American Legion together with a great number of assembled World War Veterans, recommend the immediate CASH payment at face value of the Adjusted Service Certificates, with cancellation of interest accrued and refund of interest paid, as a most effective means to that end."

The assemblage listened with great interest to the speech of Department Commander of the American Legion, Hubert E. Olive, which was broadcast.

BUNN DISTRICT TEACHERS' MEETING

Last Wednesday, Jan. 23, the teachers of the Bunn district held the third of a series of meetings dealing with a study of Character Education. This third meeting was concerned with a consideration of "Character Education in the Elementary School."

The entire program was given over to Mrs. A. R. Wilson, Principal of the Lakewood School in Durham. Mrs. Wilson gave a very interesting talk, emphasizing the value of character training in the elementary school. She is of the opinion that much more time should be provided in the course of study for character education. She showed the Bunn faculty several new books dealing with character training. These books she later presented to the Bunn library. We appreciate this contribution to our library, and we feel greatly helped by Mrs. Wilson's discussion of character education.

N. S. CATLETTE DEAD

Nelson Scott Catlette, prominent Franklin County farmer, died at his home near Louisburg at 11:30 o'clock Saturday morning following a long period of illness. The funeral was conducted from Prospect Methodist Church, of which he was a member, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. A. M. Williams, his pastor. Mr. Catlette was born near Mt. Olive Church, Franklin County, and was 58 years of age.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Hettie Evans Catlette; nine children, German, John and Melvin Catlette of Louisburg, Sylvester Catlette of Scotland Neck, Mrs. Will Carter of Bunn, Gladys, Pauline, Ina, Pearl and Frankie of Louisburg; six grandchildren and four sisters, Mrs. W. F. Beasley of Louisburg, Mrs. P. M. Bennett of Louisburg, Mrs. W. D. Weather of Apex, and Mrs. H. Nowell, of Coats; two brothers, George Catlette of Fuquay Springs, and Charlie Catlette of Ingleside.

The following nephews of Mr. Catlette acted as pallbearers: Paul Beasley, Foltgrew Pierce, Bud Catlette, Glyn Catlette, Cleveland Nowell and Perry Beasley.

My good friend and kind neighbor Bro. Scott Catlette has gone into the great beyond. After months, even years, of struggle against incurable disease, his brave spirit yielded to the superior and better will of God and he quietly fell on sleep. The end came at the home of the family near Louisburg, Saturday, Jan. 26. These things are true about this plain, hard-working man and everybody who knew him knows they are true. He was a hard worker, an incessant worker. Just how far his fatal disease may have been traceable to the fact that he was at it and always at it is more than we can tell. He was a kind neighbor, even like the one of whom the Master tells who ministered to the wounded stranger with his own hands and out of his own substance. Many others besides this writer will always have occasion to remember his presence and his help in times of real need. He was a good man, upright in his life, chaste in his speech, clean in his conduct, not owing any man anything except to love him. He loved Prospect Methodist Church of which he was a member, whose every service he attended when he could. There close to the grave of little David, his youngest son to whom he was devoted and who preceded him into the Glory world by a year or more his body finds its resting place. A large concourse of sorrowing friends filled the old church that bleak Sunday afternoon and laid his body to rest in ground that was dear to him. After appropriate and tender services had been conducted by his pastor, Rev. A. M. Williams. E. H. DAVIS.

MRS. NANCY WHITFIELD

Franklin, Mrs. Frances Foster Whitfield, age 66, died at her home this afternoon at one o'clock after an illness of four days from pneumonia. She was the widow of F. J. Whitfield who passed away in 1930. Mrs. Whitfield had spent practically her entire life here and was well known throughout Franklin County. She was a member of the Methodist church here. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Caldwell, of Winston-Salem, and Mrs. Reuben Holliday, of Franklin, one granddaughter and several nieces and nephews. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock, and will be conducted by her pastor, Rev. E. D. Weathers, burial will be in Fairview cemetery. — News-Observer.
