"THE DYNAMO" Published by Pupils of Edward Best High School

BOYS SPORTS With the happy old basketball days over the boys of Edward Best are now entering the field for rack training. Each one seems highly interested in the events and are extending every available help to put forth a good track team for our school. The weather is now getting to be ideal for track training and we hope that every. One will put forth his very best in order to make a winning team.

GLEE CLUB NEWS

Our Glee Club is working very hard on the contest songs. Every-one is doing his best. We are hav-ing rehearsals separately instead of everyone practicing together. Later an after each group learns their part we expect to work to-gether and do some of the best work that the Glee Club has ever done. We are hoping the contest will be held at Bunn this time as it has never met there.

IN MEMORY OF PATTIE MAE FAULKNER

On Thursday night February the 28th, 1935 Pattie Mae Faulkners spirit departed from this world through the hands of the known.

Her death came as a terrible shock to both the Gold Sand and Alert communities. She lived in the Gold Sand community and was attending school there at the time attending school there at the time of her death.

She leaves to mourn their loss, her father and mother Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Faulkner, one brother, Davie Lee Faulkner, older than herself and one sister younger than herself, and a lost of friends around both Gold Sand and Alert. She was thirteen years and five months old on the day of her death. She united with the Mountain Grove Baptist Church in the Summer of 1934 and has held membership with that church

Summer of 1934 and has held membership with that church since that time. She was much devoted to her home and especially to her mother; and her host of friends were numbered among both old and young in each of the two communities.

A very sad and touching funeral was held at Mountain Grove church, conducted by her pastor Rev. Carl Ousley and assisted by Rev. Charles B. Howard pastor of Mt. Zion Baptist church. The large auditorum of the Mountain Grove church, we have the same and case and pleasant action. Your druggist has it.

Just as the railroads turned to the new steamlined, high speed trains to afford travelers the utmost in service so must a bank recognize its responsibility to its depositors and patrons by making available a financial service which meets all of the requirements of the day.

This institution offers its customers every phase of banking service that is consistent with sound business dealing. It solicits your patronage and invites you to avail yourself of a modern banking service/which includes deposits, saving accounts, checking accounts, safety deposits, trust department, industrial and commercial banking.
