REV. FEW DELIVERS ADDRESS At Graduation Exercises College

REV. E. L. HILLMAN PREACHES BACCA- LAURATE SERMON

Dr. A. D. Wilcox, President of The College Preaches Sermon To Y. W. And Y. M. C. A.—All Exercises Were of High Order and Largely Attended—Many Graduates in Class of 1935—Banquet Well Attended

Rev. E. L. Hillman, pastor of the Methodist church of Durham and ardent worker among the young people of his church delivered the baccalaureate sermon to a large student body and to a host of friends of Louisburg College Sunday, May 26 in the Louisburg Methodist church.

"Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect; but I follow after, for that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus"—Phil. 3:12 was the text used. Graduation is an outstanding occasion. We have only a few of these in life; High School graduation, Junior College graduation, College graduation, marriage, hence we should appreciate them and grasp the full meaning of each. This graduation which you are now celebrating offers you a problem, one which you as an individual working in a group must face and solve—You are facing a new world, this is your responsibility. How shall you accept it? Attainable information in any line is not sufficient to its solution; face it with God and in His Spirit and the way will be made light. "He died that we might have light. The life and Spirit of God may seem to some of us as attached to no part of our daily life but, friends it is as grounded and attached to our lives as is that beautiful Mount Fujiyama to the isle of which it is apart.

"Is your mind opened to the breeze of truth?" Do you gather information, sift the truth, and stand firm by it? Have an open mind. Again you have come through Louisburg College; but to reverse the question has Louisburg College come through you? If the answer is affirmative, then you should be liberal, square-minded, a true incarnation of the spirit of adventure and have a definite goal in front of you.

"There is a new day facing this world—a day in which you must render justice and liberty to all alike—not by some tricks of politicians but rather by reality of the responsible citizenship. Paul's problem that he faced and sought to solve was the building of a character that Christ may use. The promise that whatever good work is begun is going to be finished gives each of us a purpose in living. It may be that we will not finish the task we begin and think it a failure but a master hand will take it up and complete the good works. So, let's give ourselves unreservedly to God who took away the sins of the world.

The service was begun by the singing of "Come thou Almighty King" and a prayer led by Rev. O. P. Fitzgerald. Rev. Fitzgerald read as a Scripture lesson the third chapter of Philippians beginning with the thirteenth verse—Following this Miss Amelia Bruns, voice teacher of Louisburg College sang beautifully "The Ninety and the Nine" accompanied at the piano by Miss Drusa Wilker, piano teacher of the College.

After Rev. Hillman's sermon the doxology was sung and Rev. E. H. Davis gave the benediction.

Sunday evening at 8 o'clock in the Methodist Church the Young Women's and Young Men's Christian Association of the College joined in a service conducted by Miss Mary Ethel Wynn.

The service began with the singing of "Onward, Christian Soldiers". Mr. Ubey Crowell read Scripture from Acts after which Rev. O. P. Fitzgerald offered prayer. Mr. Lloyd Early rendered well a solo as an offertory.

After a few words of introduction by Miss Winn, Rev. A. D. Wilcox, president of the College, addressed the associations. Acts 9:6 was his text—"And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do." Paul's actions had been questionable to himself as well as to others. He had been journeying from city to city persecuting those professing Jesus Christ and now after being blinded by a light while on the road into the city and lying prostrate on the ground heard a voice say, "Arise and go into the city and it shall be told thee what thou must do." Arise, go, and receive orders. Arise—this is the first essential, we never gain ground by being down. We must stand in order to go somewhere. So Arise, stand, be firm on your feet and go, and it shall be told thee, what thou must do. Paul's orders were to change the world, to overthrow the Roman Empire of which he was a citizen and your orders, students, are face the new-day problems, be an individual if necessary, stand up if you think your convictions right and don't follow the crowd. Have a purpose, a goal and stand up for Jesus."

Immediately the hymn, "Stand up for Jesus" was sung and the Associations watchword said as benediction.

Banquet

Louisburg College Commencement began with the Alumni Banquet on Saturday night, May 25 at 7:30 o'clock in the College dining halls.

After thanks were offered by Rev. D. P. Harris the guests and particularly the new members were welcomed by Mrs. J. E. Malone, Jr., who presided. The response to the welcome was made by Fred Hoyle, president of the graduating class.

Among the delightful and entertaining numbers on the program were: a musical number "In the Gay Nineties" sung by members of the College quartet assisted by Miss Ruth Jenkins, soloist, all of whom were dressed in old-fashioned costumes; a humorous reading by Miss Marguerite Lipscomb; solo, "Ole Man River", by Al Hodges; Remarks at random by Rev. O. P. Fitzgerald; a very unique and original talk by Mrs. A. M. Hall comparing "The Old Time and Now"; a solo, "Indian Love Call", by Miss Ruth Jenkins.

Just before the group joined in singing "Alma Mater" Pres. A. D. Wilcox spoke for a few minutes concerning the College mentioning the new plan to be used at the College next year and assuring the alumni that this plan would in no way lower the standards upheld by the College.

The banquet tables were attractively decorated with vases of pink ambler roses.

A delicious three course dinner was served.

Music was furnished during the banquet by the Louisburg College Orchestra.

Immediately after the banquet the school of music presented its annual concert in the "Little Theatre", under the direction of Misses Drusa Wilker and Amelia Bruns. The program as presented is:

BOARD ADOPTS RESOLUTION

The Board of Town Commissioners met in special session, May 27, 1935, upon the call of the Mayor.

Upon roll call the following members were present: W. B. Barrow, H. G. Perry, F. H. Allen, J. S. Howell, and Mayor W. C. Webb.

Absent: W. E. White and W. J. Cooper.

The Mayor stated to the Board that the object of the meeting was the discussion of the recent dismissal of certain members of the faculty of Louisburg College and of the College Physician.

Mr. F. N. Egerton, Jr. was invited to appear before the Board and give the Board some information concerning the dismissals in question. Mr. Egerton informed the Board that certain members of the Louisburg College faculty, together with the College Physician, had been dismissed by the College President for no specific or good reasons.

After thorough discussion of the business in hand, a motion prevailed that the Board instruct Mayor Webb, H. G. Perry and J. E. Malone, Jr., to act as a special committee. This committee was instructed to draft a suitable resolution, addressed to the Board of Trustees of Louisburg College, requesting that the dismissal of certain members of the faculty of Louisburg College and the College Physician, be reconsidered. The Board instructed this special committee to forward a copy of the resolutions to each member of the Board of Trustees of Louisburg College.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

The Resolution follows:

Whereas, it has been brought to the attention of the Commissioners of the Town of Louisburg, N. C., that Louisburg College has, at the end of its current term, made certain changes in its faculty, which will result in a loss not only to said Institution but to the Town of Louisburg and this entire Community;

And whereas, the individuals affected by such changes, including certain citizens of the Town of Louisburg, have for years rendered to Louisburg College and this Community, unselfish and valuable services and through their unstinted efforts and loyalty have proven a big factor in enabling said Institution to weather the storm of financial adversity and to keep the doors of this ancient and honored seat of learning and education open;

Now Therefore Be It Resolved by the Commissioners of the Town of Louisburg, N. C.:

1st. That the President of Louisburg College and its Board of Trustees be, and they are hereby requested, to reconsider the discharge of these members of its faculty to the end that, if possible, their services may be made available to said Institution and this Town in the future.

2nd. That this Resolution is passed in no spirit of attempting to dictate to the management of Louisburg College or its Board of Trustees, or to criticize or attempt to control its policies, but in recognition of what this Board believes to be the splendid service rendered by the persons affected and with a desire and spirit of cooperation in the welfare of said Institution and this Community.

Duly adopted at a meeting of the Commissioners of the Town of Louisburg, N. C., called and held May 27th, 1935.

Expected to Announce For Lieutenant Governorship; Sees Cooley Unopposed

Washington, May 27.—W. L. Lumpkin, Franklin county member of the House during the last four sessions of the North Carolina General Assembly, indicated here today that he will in all probability enter the race for Lieutenant Governor subject to the 1936 primary, at an early date.

Mr. Lumpkin, who has also been mentioned as a possible candidate for Congress next year stated positively that he will not offer for Congress and expressed the opinion that Representative Harold D. Cooley will have no opposition. Mr. Cooley has also had the assurances from State Senator Carroll Weathers, of Raleigh, also mentioned as a possible candidate for Congress.

Mr. Lumpkin was accompanied here by Dr. Ralph McDonald, of Forsyth county. The two men led the anti-sales tax bloc in the recent session of the legislature.

Robert P. Holding, president of the First Citizens' Bank and Trust Co., of Smithfield, with branches at Raleigh, and several other places was here today in opposition to some features of the pending banking bill. He called upon both Senators and Representative Frank Hancock, North Carolina member of the House Banking Committee, but found them all out of town.

Effect of NRA Ruling

Washington, May 27.—The effect of the Supreme Court's decision on the NRA today is shown by the following question and answers:

Q. What did the court decide?
 A. That NRA has no authority to impose codes on business men. Q. Why?
 A. Because Congress exceeded its powers under the Constitution when it gave President Roosevelt the right to sign and promulgate codes.

Q. What is the effect of the court's decision on NRA?
 A. Some lawyers say it means the death of the Blue Eagle. Others say NRA can be amended to meet the Supreme Court's objections.

Q. What did the court say about the NRA's powers to regulate wages and hours?
 A. It said NRA had no authority to regulate wages and hours in a business that only indirectly affected interstate commerce.

Q. What will be the effect on pending legislation to extend NRA?
 A. No one is certain. The House Ways and Means Committee was ready to report a bill extending NRA two years when the Supreme Court's decision was announced. It stopped work immediately.

Q. Can business men now ignore codes?
 A. Yes, until and if Congress enacts new legislation.

Q. Does the decision stop the salaries of NRA employees and destroy the organization?
 A. NRA officials believe it does not. The organization itself, it was said, continues under the law until NRA's charter from Congress expires on June 16.

FRANKLIN TIMES POLICY IN COMING ELECTION

THE FRANKLIN TIMES has been called upon to ascertain how much space it will donate to the Drys in their campaign against the forth coming whiskey Control election. As yet no committee from the Wets has called upon it for space to conduct a campaign for carrying the election.

The TIMES' position is clearly this. It costs money and a good bit, to publish a paper and while we will be glad to donate a very limited amount of space to each side of the question when we have the space to spare, we do not feel it our duty to bear the burden of financing the advertising expense for either side. Therefore any space of any consequence furnished to either side will be classed as advertising and will HAVE TO BE PAID FOR.

All advertising and all communications will have to be signed by some responsible person or persons.

All communications and, or advertising will have to be presented in time to be properly handled for publication—not later than Wednesday morning of each week.

All copy MUST be so written as not only to be easily read by the printer, but MUST be such as will comply and conform with postal mailing requirements, newspaper ethics and common fairness.

ROADS JUNE 29TH NEW DATE

He told them he saw the need of better construction on the Bunn road and hoped the Commission would soon remedy it, feeling sure it would.

Mr. Waynick was introduced by Attorney Chas P. Green.

Mr. Waynick expressed much pleasure at his visit to Franklin and Franklin County was delighted to have him visit our County and County Capital.

Quite a number were present among whom were a committee of Drys. Mr. G. M. Beam presented the argument for this committee, whose objections to the calling of the election were based upon the cost of holding the election, the unconstitutionality and unworkability of the law.

After hearing all who wished to be heard the Commissioners unanimously passed the following resolution:

Whereas a meeting of the Board of Commissioners of Franklin County was held on the 17th day of May, 1935 at which time a referendum was called in respect to the alcoholic Beverages Control Act known as House Bill 1491, and

Whereas it is deemed advisable in order to exercise an abundance of precaution to comply with the provisions of Revisal Section 1317, Code Section 708 in reference to called meetings of the Board of Commissioners of Franklin County, and whereas the Chairman of the Board of Commissioners of Franklin County, duly called a further special meeting of the Board of Commissioners of Franklin County to be held on the 24th day of May, 1935, after due notice as required by law, and

Whereas it is desired by the Board of Commissioners of Franklin County that all parties have proper notice and be heard in respect to this matter; and

Whereas the Board of County Commissioners in its discretion thinks it best to submit the question as provided for in the bill above referred to, to the voters of Franklin County to decide;

Now Therefore, be it resolved by the Board of Commissioners of Franklin County that a special election by the qualified voters of Franklin County be called and held on the 29th day of June, A. D. 1935, for the purpose of voting upon the exemption of Franklin County from the provisions of the Turlington Act and upon the Control of the sale of alcoholic beverages in Franklin County by a Commission to be known as the Franklin County alcoholic Beverages Control Board as provided for in the said alcoholic Beverages Control Act, known as House Bill 1491; and that the Board of Elections of Franklin County be authorized and directed to hold the said special election on the 29th day of June, A.
