U. D. C. ENTERTAINED

The Joseph J. Davis Chapter U. D. C. was entertained by Mrs. Thornton Jeffers at her home Tuesday afternoon, September 3, 1935. The new Ritual was suggested and used, which was later voted on and adopted. Mrs. Yarborough, president, not having fully recovered from her illness, was not present and Mrs. Jeffers was in charge.
 After the Ritual the Lord's prayer was repeated in unison. Minutes of the May meeting were read by the secretary and approved. Unfinished and new business was discussed. The dedication of Stratford is to be in October.
 Mrs. Jeffers presented the Convention Call. The Convention will be held October 16-17, in Winston-Salem, but no delegate was appointed as those present could not attend.
 "Our goal for the year" and a letter from Mrs. Parker, stressing Stratford, were partly read by Mrs. Furgerson; Stratford being our major problem for the year. A report on the scrapbook was made. New members and blanks given out were discussed.
 The program consisted of an interesting selection from the "Southern Magazine," read by Mrs. Cooke. Subject: "Virginia's Capitals—Jamestown, Williamsburg and Richmond." Williamsburg was the first incorporated city in America.
 The hostess served delicious sandwiches, iced tea and mints, after which the meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. Cobke in October.

North Carolina farmers are showing a great deal of interest in the soil erosion control program in connection with the CCC camps.

Interest in alfalfa growing is spreading among Stanly County farmers. Some are starting with small patches, while others are seeding 10 or more acres each.

According to Charley Husband, a new government policy is like a visit to the dentist. It never hurts as badly as you thought it would.

Teacher—The doctor is coming tomorrow to vaccinate you all—mind you wash your arms well at the top.

Another way to shorten life is to drive 30 miles to a good fishing place and then see a "No Fishing" sign on the property.

It is possible to be happy without a fortune. But no one can be happy without a friend.

When a girl starts calling a man by his first name, you can depend on it, she has an eye on his last one.

A woman can do almost anything she pleases with a man unless she happens to be married to him.

Designed in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48 and 50. Size 38 requires 3 yards of 44-inch material for skirt and jacket; and 2 1/2 yards of 39-inch material for blouse, also 2 1/2 yards of 39-inch material for jacket lining.

SLENDER AND CHIC
 Pattern 8625—Designers and pattern-makers are turning out some exceedingly attractive apparel for the more mature figure. At one time it may have appeared that Paris designers were only for the perfectly built woman who had not an ounce of weight to spare. Not so today.

The style sketched is one of those smart styles designed especially for the larger woman. The casual jacket and skirt are perfect in their easy and slenderizing lines to wear most anywhere, most any time.

The simple notched collar of the jacket goes with any type of blouse, either tailored or frilly. The collar which goes with the pattern shown in the sketch is attractively feminine. The skirt is ample but slenderizing.

For PATTERN, send 15 cents in coin (for each pattern desired), your NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER and SEND to Patricia Dow, The Franklin Times, Pattern Dept., 115 Fifth Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.
