Hurls No-Hit Game

CHICAGO — Vernon Kennedy of Missouri, (above), is the first American League pitcher to enter the "no-hit, no-run game" hall of fame in more than four years. The first-year Chicago White Sox pitcher scored his no-hit game on August 31st against the Cleveland Indians.

Laurel, Hardy Turn Scotch In New Laugh Hit

"Bonnie Scotland," Feature Length Comedy, At The Louisburg Theatre Monday, Sept. 16th

"Bonnie Scotland," will be shown at the Louisburg Theatre, Monday Sept. 16th, is rated as the funniest and most ambitious of the feature-length comedies co-starring Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy.

With a wee bit of delightful romance and heaps of good old-fashioned Laurel and Hardy hilarity, the production serves to bring the two famous funsters together again after a brief separation which, for a while, threatened to end disastrously for their legion of fans throughout the world.

With Scotland and India as the background for most of the action—of which there is plenty—the story advances through seven reels of almost continuous laughs, punctuated occasionally by a smile or a sigh. For there is a thread of pretty romance in this sparkling presentation—a love story interpreted by June Lang and William Janney, two screen youngsters of unusual promise.

Enlist in Regiment But it is Laurel and Hardy—the Laurel and Hardy of old—who make this Hal Roach-M-G-M picture an outstanding evening's entertainment. During the greater part of the picture the boys frolic through their inimitable scenes in the characters of Scotch Highlanders, attired in kilts and otherwise bedecked in the manner of the "laddies from hell." This strange departure from their usual habit is wrought when Stan and Ollie regiment while visiting Scotland to claim a share in a fortune left by Stan's wealthy uncle.

Assigned to patrol duty in the desert wastes of India, the boys encounter adventure in the raw, so to speak. Spotted with a number of new and hilariously funny gags, "Bonnie Scotland" offers a laugh festival par excellence for young and old alike.

Among others in the cast are Anne Grey, Vernon Steele, David Torrence, Jimmy Finlayson, Maurice Black, Daphne Pollard, Mary Gordon and Lionel Belmore. The story is an original by Frank Butler and Jeff Moffitt. James W. Horne directed.
