Aviation

Mr. Seldon Hunns, who comes recommended as one of the best young pilots in the United States visited Louisburg Tuesday. He was accompanied by Mr. John D. Wells and his dog "Skipper". The object of this visit to Louisburg was to promote aviation and had been much encouraged. Mr. Harris assured them the probabilities of securing cooperation is good and it is expected that in the very near future a training school will be conducted from the Harris aeroplane field.

W. W. WEBB DEAD Examination For Postmaster

Mr. Walter William Webb died at his home on Kenmore Avenue about 3 o'clock Sunday morning, following a long period of ill health, developing seriously only a few days before the end. Mr. Webb was 64 years of age and besides his wife, who was Miss Leonora Hawthorne of Lunenburg County, Virginia, is survived by four children, Edmond B. Webb, of Burlington, Mrs. J. R. Gardner, of Warrenton, Mayor W. C. Webb and Mrs. E. F. Thomas, of Louisburg, one brother, Mr. U. E. Webb, of Blackstone, Va., and one sister, Mrs. L. B. Sims, of Richmond, Va.

Mr. Webb came to Louisburg about twenty-five years ago and for many years, or until his health failed, was prominent in the timber and milling business in Franklin County and Louisburg. He was a member of the Louisburg Methodist Church and was active and interested in matters of public interest. Through his contacts he made many friends who will learn of his going with much sorrow.

The funeral was held from his home on Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, conducted by Revs. O. P. Fitzgerald, his pastor, Frank E. Pulley and D. P. Harris and interment was made at Oaklawn cemetery. The services at both the home and the grave were largely attended—many coming from out of town—showing a deep esteem and respect for the deceased and the floral offering was exceptionally large and beautiful.

The pall bearers were as follows: Active—W. H. Allen, W. J. Cooper, H. G. Harrison, G. M. Beam, S. P. Boddie, H. M. Stovall. Honorary—R. G. Person, Kenneth Collier, O. J. Hale, W. E. Bartholomew, N. C. Mullen, S. C. Holden, A. F. Johnson, D. F. McKinnie, L. H. Turner, J. E. Malone, W. B. Spivey, F. H. Allen, W. E. White, J. S. Howell, W. B. Barrow, T. K. Stockard, J. C. Harkins, Drs. R. F. Yarborough, J. E. Fulghum, H. G. Perry, W. C. Perry, S. P. Burt, H. H. Johnson.

The bereaved family has the deepest sympathy of the entire community.

Send us the news.

TOBACCO SELLING GOOD

Sales and Prices Both Increasing at Louisburg

With entire market sales averaging around 24 cents and individual averages reaching strongly for the 50 cent mark warehousemen on the Louisburg market are enthusiastically reporting high prices and better sales as the season advances. The golden weed is being marketed rather fast at this time, indicating fairly general satisfaction with the price level.

Louisburg facilities for handling the sales of growers in this section are not excellent anywhere and every grower of tobacco is invited to bring his tobacco here where tobaccoists, warehousemen and business men are co-operating to make your visit profitable to you.

Buys Storage Business

The Vance Storage Co., Inc. of Henderson, N. C., has purchased the storage warehouses and business of J. S. Howell and are announcing in a half-page advertisement in this issue that they will continue to operate these warehouses in Louisburg under the same name as in the past. They will handle Co-op and other cotton and make immediate advances on all cotton stored in the government loan department. This deal was completed the past week and places Louisburg in a broader field for storage facilities. The new firm will maintain offices in the offices formerly occupied by Mr. Howell and are now ready to handle your 1935 crop. Louisburg extends a welcome to this new firm.

MRS. W. D. WESTER DEAD

On October 3, 1935 God's finger touched into sleep the pain wearied body of Mrs. W. D. Wester and beckoned the spirit triumphant through Heaven's portals into the "House not made with hands".

She had been in bad health for quite a while but had been confined for four months and four days. She was 69 years of age and leaves to mourn her going one son, Mr. Bennie Wester of Hickory Rock with whom she was making her home, one daughter Mrs. George Fulcher of near Henderson, one sister Mrs. Arch Burnette of near Castalia, 10 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

She was a kind neighbor and a gentle mother, her character was so pure and beautiful that those who knew her best loved her most. Again the death angel has come and taken our most precious jewel.

While we feel it our loss it is Heaven's gain the Lord doeth all things well even though his ways be beyond our understanding. We are looking for that great day when we shall meet in full accord doing business for the king just as he wishes.

Her body was laid to rest in Hickory Rock Cemetery, Rev. John Edwards her pastor conducted the funeral service. The profuse floral tribute attested the affection and respect of hosts of kindred and friends, beauty above that grave and underneath.

Father in thy gracious keeping Leave we now thy servant sleeping.

A Friend.

Hallowe'en Carnival

Everyone is invited to go out to one of the biggest and most complete amateur carnivals ever put on by an elementary school. The parade will feature over 100 animals, including elephants, giraffes, ostriches, ponies, trained dogs, rabbits, bears and goats, and other animals of marked ability in imitation. There will be 50 beautiful chorus girls, clowns to furnish fun, spooky ghosts, witches and goblins, plays, recitations, singing, dancing and fun galore.

This carnival is being given by the Hickory Rock White Level School, Monday night, October 28, at 7:30 p. m. Everyone is invited to go. Be sure to go early and not miss the grand parade which will open the nights fun.

The proceeds will be used for the benefit of the school.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our greatest appreciation to all who rendered so many kindnesses and expressions of sympathy in the recent illness and death of our husband and father. They will be long and tenderly remembered.

"Oh, Professor"

The P. T. A. of Epsom High School is sponsoring a musical comedy the 31st of October in the school auditorium. The leading roles are being taken by the very talented members of the faculty and local talent. The chorus will be made up of 50 high school girls. There will be chorus boys and a chorus of small girls and boys.

One of the outstanding features is a chorus made up of the business men in the community.

"Oh, Professor", being a Wayne P. Sewell production of Atlanta, Ga., speaks for itself with laughter and pep.

This play is under the direction of Miss Marie Huff from Tuscaloosa, Ala.

Do not fail to see this good entertainment October 31, 1935.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

On Saturday evening, October 12 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Gupton of Mapleville, N. C. Mrs. Gupton and Miss Ollie Wester entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wester who were married on October 8 at Middleburg.

Mrs. Wester was formerly Miss Mae Fleming of Middleburg.

During the evening a contest was held and following this all of the guests penned messages to the couple in small notebooks.

The hostesses assisted by Miss Mildred Gupton served a delightful salad course.

Mr. and Mrs. Wester received many beautiful and useful gifts.

"No matter how many fine clothes you have," says Arch Cook, "it's the kind of expression you wear that is most important."

WESTER-FLEMING

On October 8 at high noon, in the Baptist Church at Middleburg, Miss Sadie Mae Fleming, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Fleming became the bride of James Earl Wester of Louisburg, N. C.

The groom's best man was Willie Boyette Hinnant of Zebulon.

Messrs. Ben and Palmer Wester, brothers of the groom, and George B. Blum, of Middleburg, were ushers.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Carl M. Watkins rendered several selections of nuptial music and Mrs. Sturgis Collins sang "I Love You Truly" and "Oh, Promise Me".

The bridal party entered to the strains of the bridal chorus from Wagner's "Lohengrin".

The ushers, Messrs. Ben Wester and George B. Blum entered first.

Miss Ollie Wester, maid of honor and sister of the groom entered next. She wore a gown of rust friendly crepe with black accessories. She carried an arm bouquet of variegated dahlias and plumrose fern tied with tulle.

The accomplished bride entered next on the arm of her father who gave her away, met her betrothed and her pastor, Rev. E. R. Nelson at the altar.

Her gown was of brown metal shot crepe with satin and brass trimmings and brown accessories. Her bouquet was of Joanna Hill roses, Bobbardia and Plumosa fern tied with gold tulle.

The church was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns, large baskets of golden rod, and tall candelabra with yellow cathedral candles.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left for a wedding trip to points in Virginia.
