—Next Wednesday is Christmas Day.

—Cotton sold for 12 cents a pound in Louisburg yesterday.

—THE FRANKLIN TIMES force wish all a Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year.

—Are you ready for Christmas? You have only three more days in which to do your shopping.

—Perry & Earle have rebuilt the cellar door on the side walk in front of their place of business.

—Mr. H. M. Pridden is erecting a new store building next to the Southside Warehouse on South main street.

—The fire alarm Saturday night was caused by a chimney at Beasley Lunch room burning out. No damage was done.

—The fire early Friday morning was at Jessie Hill's, where a chimney burned out. No damage was reported. The fire department answered promptly.

Every time the microbes begin experimenting they are sure to invent something, and it remains with the medical profession to give it a name.
