In announcing this campaign the publisher feels that he is doing his part to help promote prosperity by offering prizes and a substantial Twice a Week Pay Check on Tuesday and Friday of each week. This Plan is Definitely New, Decidedly Different and Perfectly Dignified so that no one may have any fear in entering this drive as it is being conducted on a very high plane and has been used successfully on many newspapers throughout the country. It has been endorsed and recommended by many young women and housewives as a means of earning big dividends for any effort put forth.

A. B. C. STORE OPENS

The formal opening of the A. B. C. Store in Franklin County at Louisburg was on Saturday morning, although in reality it had opened about 6 o'clock Thursday afternoon when ten pints were sold in order to make its opening a reality. Sales were made all through the day Friday, although the removal of the drugs and fixtures of Mr. W. A. Andrews was going on and carpenters were at work on remodeling the store for the A. B. C's. The best of order prevailed among the large crowds who visited the store, some to make purchases and some through the curiosity to see whiskey sold legally in Franklin. Friday sales amounted to $116.15 and Saturday sales amounted to $287.65. At this time the higher priced whiskeys had not been received.

Chief of Police C. E. Pace commenting on the store stated that he saw no disorder occasioned by it and was satisfied that if any change at all was brought about it was for the better conditions.

Discussing the question of the store with Mr. W. N. Fuller, County Auditor, who is also secretary to the Board of Control, the TIMES reporter was informed that in each case of the purchase of whiskey the Board demanded and received a contract from the manufacturer or distributor setting forth the agreement that no whiskeys were to be paid for until sold and relieving the County of Franklin of all liability in connection with the sale.

It was rumored around town Thursday that an injunction to stop the opening was being prepared and later that the officers in charge had been cited to appear before the court for contempt, but neither of these rumors could be confirmed and from all information the TIMES could get were only rumors.

Y. W. A. ANNOUNCEMENT
The Y. W. A. of the Louisburg Baptist church will meet Monday evening at 7:30 with Miss Louise Williams. Every member is urged to be present.

False Alarm
The fire alarm that was sounded around four o'clock Sunday morning proved to be a false alarm. Upon investigation by the fire company it was determined that possibly the cause of the alarm was due to a fire at the Theatre while it was being cleaned from a late show.

Our Subscription Campaign Plan In Brief

The object of this big New Year Campaign is to increase the already large subscription list of this newspaper; to collect arrears and advance subscription payments from present or old subscribers, and at the same time to afford the live-wire, energetic men and women of this territory, an opportunity to profit in a BIG way through their spare time during the next few weeks.

Let it be understood at the very outset that this is not a "Beauty" or "Popularity" contest, but a legitimate proposition for enterprising men and women, and one in which no element of chance enters. Each active participant will receive a Pay Check every Tuesday and Friday night.

To The Married Man or Woman
Enough cash can be earned in this campaign to start a business, lift a mortgage, help build a home, refurnish or remodel your present home or enable you to realize the many ambitions that cash alone will make possible. This cash can be earned with a little effort in your spare time between now and Feb. 29th.

To The Young Man or Woman
This campaign can mean that big opportunity you have been waiting for—a college education, a trip, some cash to set aside for the big event of your life. It can be the means of lifting that big load from Mother and Daddy. If you use a little effort in your spare time you can have your share of this cash on Feb. 29th.

How to Enter—What to do
The first thing to do is to clip the entry coupon, fill in your name and address and mail or deliver to this newspaper at once. This coupon entitles you, or the person whom you might wish to enter, to 10,000 credits. Only one such entry coupon will be accepted for each participant.

The next step is to call or write the Campaign Department for supplies. Thus equipped you have but to see your friends and acquaintances and have them subscribe to this newspaper through you. That's all there is to it. However, you will never get anywhere unless you make the start—the earlier the better. Once started let no one discourage you. Anything worthwhile is worth working for. Seven short weeks and you may be adding $500 to your bank account and you know that is big money these days.

How Credits Are Secured
It takes credits to win, and they are secured in the following way; first by clipping the Free Credit Coupons appearing in this newspaper. Get your friends to save them for you. The other and faster way to accumulate Credits in this Campaign is by securing new or renewal subscriptions to this newspaper. On each order secured, credits will be issued, the number varying according to the amount paid during the "period" same are received at the Campaign Department. (See schedule of credits in full page Ad.)

Early Start Means Easy Finish
The advantages of an early start are manifest. This campaign is of such short duration that immediate action is necessary. Then, too, the first in the field will undoubtedly get the "cream" of credits and subscriptions, while those who put off entering until a later date will have to take what is left. Don't lose valuable time "waiting to see what the other fellow is going to do" but pitch right in; show the other fellow how to do it.

Painfully Injured

Miss Cranford, daughter of Mr. H. P. Cranford, was very painfully injured in an automobile collision which happened at the crossing of Church Street and Sunset Avenue early Tuesday morning when the car in which Cranford was riding and the one that Mr. Lee Bunn was riding collided. From what the TIMES could learn it seems that Mr. Cranford's car was on its way down town on Sunset Avenue while Mr. Bunn's car was traveling on Church Street and the drivers of both cars misjudged the meeting point. The Bunn car, we understand, struck near the rear end of the Cranford car. Both cars were damaged.

Messrs. G. W. Ford and R. A. Pearce, visited the horse and mule markets at Atlanta and other points the past week.

Sockholders To Meet

Louisburg Production Credit Association To Hold Open Annual Meeting.

A very large crowd of farmers is expected to attend the annual meeting of the Louisburg Production Credit Association serving the county of Franklin, which will be held at Louisburg in the Old Opera House on January 16th at 2:30 P. M. o'clock, according to N. C. Phillips, secretary.

At this meeting the annual reports of the officers will be made and two directors will be elected. One of the speakers will be Mr. Ernest Graham, President of the Production Credit Corporation of Columbia.

Not only are all of the members invited and expected to be present at the meeting, Mr. Phillips said, but a most cordial invitation is also extended to all non-members who are interested in securing short-term credit for production purposes.

"Our association is anxious that every farmer in our territory shall have the opportunity of knowing of the credit service which we have to offer," said Mr. Phillips "and also are anxious that they shall attend this annual meeting to see how the business of the association is conducted. "We will have complete reports of our year's work at the meeting and our members will be acquainted with all of the details of our operation. It is the policy of our association to keep our members thoroughly posted.

"We feel proud of the record which we have made in the two years in which we have operated. Our business the second year showed a very substantial growth over the first year and we are anticipating another substantial increase next year as more and more farmers learn of the service we have to offer.

He also told of how the funds from last year assisted in buying braces and shoes and giving other assistance.

A more complete announcement will be made next week.

He was a law abiding citizen never having been in Court or in contact with the law, and was honest and industrious and liked and respected by all, both white and colored.

AAA HELD INVALID

Supreme Court's Ruling Practically Eliminates All Farm Legislation Pertaining to The Agricultural Adjustment Act

Washington, Jan. 6.—The Supreme Court splintered the AAA—second cornerstone of the New Deal—so completely today that previously-planned patchwork was all but forgotten.

An uncompromising 6-3 opinion not only wiped out President Roosevelt's cherished farm-aid program, but threw a shadow of doubt over other recent major legislation.

The treasury tonight halted all processing tax collection under the law, and said that "for the present, no checks will be issued for benefit or rental payments, or refunds, or for administrative purposes."

Treasury officials interpreted the order, issued after a three-hour conference with its counsel, as halting further salary checks to AAA's 6,500 full-time employees as well as part-time workers throughout the nation.

Farmers have received $1,127,000,000 since 1933 for reducing crop production under AAA's plan of federal control.

Shocked Silence
In shocked silence, the administration leaders were called to the White House. They talked it over with the President for two hours. They emerged saying no decision had been reached on what to do.

The White House conferees said Mr. Roosevelt hoped to find means under the decision to pay farmers who have fulfilled existing contracts—up to their invalidation today.

Proposals for a constitutional amendment were heard immediately—just as they were last spring when the high tribunal unanimously struck NRA's death blow.

Senator Costigan (D-Colo.) said that "unless convinced that other early action will more definitely serve the public good," he will press for action on his amendment to give Congress the right to regulate agricultural production—and business and industry as well.

Bankhead Irate
The opinion of the court majority, read by Justice Roberts, was called a "political stump speech" by irate Senator Bankhead (D-La.), whose cotton control act awaits a ruling by the justices on its validity.

Calling the decision "poor law," Bankhead said he had no doubt but that the court also would throw out the cotton act. There was similar fear for survival of the Kerr-Smith tobacco law, the potato control act, and similar farm measures, as well as the more important social security, Guffey coal control, and Wagner labor disputes laws.

Justice Roberts held that AAA—as the Agricultural Adjustment Act was called—invaded the "reserved rights of states" and was "beyond the powers delegated to the federal government."

In a vehement dissent, Justice Stone, Brandeis and Cardozo declared that "courts are not the only agency of government that must be assumed to have the capacity to govern."

Important questions went unanswered in the initial confusion surrounding the court's action. As organized farm leaders proposed amending the Constitution, and stock and commodity markets reacted irregularly to the news, there was immediate speculation on the fate of New Deal legislation still to face the court's scrutiny.

What will happen, lawyers wondered, to such measures as the social security, Guffey coal control Wagner labor disputes, and other laws based on the power of Congress to legislate "for the general welfare"—which until today had never been defined or limited by the high tribunal.

Holding that "Justice Story's theory" of this power "is the correct one," Roberts added that "he makes it clear that the powers of taxation and appropriation extend only to matters of national, as distinguished from local welfare."

Get City Tags
Chief of police C. E. Pace is very anxious that all persons in Louisburg who are required to get city license tags get them at once and display them on their cars and trucks. He informs the TIMES that beginning on the fifteenth of January he will cite all who are not displaying their tags before Mayor Webb to be dealt with. He thinks this will cost the owners more than the tag and therefore is anxious that the embarrassment be saved the owners as well as himself.
