CHARMING TOWN FROCK
Pattern 8724: Here you have a dress model which runs the gamut in general utility wear. Good for any day time occasion on which you want trim, sporty, unstudied appearance.

The slenderized hip and waist lines give way to freedom in the skirt through the use of the popular kick pleat in center front. Especially of interest to the sports girl is the inverted center pleat in back which allows for a full swing, a hard drive or whatever activity one's bent follows. Women who like the button shoulder trim (and who doesn't!) will be more intrigued with the one piece sleeve and yoke in this model. A shirtwaist - skirt combination which requires a minimum of sewing experience; it will serve well on many occasions this spring and summer.
