Pattern 8758

Designed in sizes 2, 4, 6 and 8 years. Size 4 requires 2½ yards of 35-inch material, plus 1/3 yard of 35-inch contrasting. Dress alone (size 4) requires 1½ yards. Bloomer alone requires 1 yard of 35-inch material.

DAIRY TOT'S FROCK

Pattern 8758: Mothers, spend a couple of hours on this appealing, comfortable model to please and "set off" that little miss in the two-to-eight group. Furnishing dress and panties and simplified sewing instructions, Pattern 8758 is certain to please you immensely. A little frock of this sort with the panties to match will be most wearable for play-time, and parties in the vacation time.

The frock, with soft, becoming Peter Pan collar, yoke waist, cut in one-piece with sleeves, and a cute, brief flared skirt, all conform to make a finished picture that is truly delightful.

Use a gingham, percale, print, calico or if you prefer a costlier material, tub silk, lawn, or dotted swiss might be suggested.

For PATTERN, send 15 cents in coin (for each pattern desired), your NAME, ADDRESS, STREET NUMBER and BILL to Patricia Dow, The Franklin Times, Patterns Dept., 115 Fifth Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

NOTICE OF SALE OF ASSETS OF THE CITIZENS AND COMMERCIAL BANK

FRANKLINTON, NORTH CAROLINA

In accordance with provisions of Chapter 5, Article 3, Subsection 7 of Section 218 (c) of North Carolina Banking Laws, the undersigned will offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash:

BEGINNING AT 12 O'CLOCK A. M. ON TUESDAY, JULY 7TH 1936 AT THE FRONT DOOR OF THE BUILDING NOW OCCUPIED BY THE FIRST CITIZENS BANK & TRUST COMPANY IN THE TOWN OF FRANKLINTON, NORTH CAROLINA

The hereinafter listed property in good faith as assets of the Citizens & Commercial Bank of Franklinton, N. C., but does not warrant title thereto and will sell all of said notes and judgments, without recourse, subject to any and all equities and defenses which may be plead against the same, including all equities and right of offset, which embraces the right and duty of the Commissioner of Banks, and or his Agents to withhold any and all dividends on debtors claims, or other bills against the Commissioner of Banks presented by debtors to said bank and apply the same to reduce the loss or losses sustained on their respective evidences of indebtedness, and or interest on either, and is subject to application of such credits prior to or after delivery of the assets to the purchaser thereof.

The hereinafter listed assets are subject to correction, application of credits and increases on account of advances or other legitimate charges, and are also subject to prior sale or settlement. The undersigned reserves the right to sell the various items of assets, item by item, in parcels, and or as a whole, right is also reserved to reject or accept any or all bids in said sale. The highest bidders will be required to deposit 10% of the amount of their bids at the time of sale as a guarantee of performance and bidding on no part of said properties will be deemed closed until such bidders have complied with this requirement.

Any and all bids made pursuant to the advertisement are subject to confirmation by the Superior Court of Franklin County, North Carolina.

After the sale is completed, on the date as advertised, the undersigned reserves the right to designate a day on which a report of the sale will be presented to the Court for its consideration and confirmation and at the same time advise all bidders with respect to upset bids, which might be entered subsequent to completion of the sale and prior to date of confirmation.

Accrued interest to April 1, 1936, on notes and judgments is shown herein but interest on principal balances from April 1, 1936 to date of sale to be added to total due in order to reflect actual amount due on date of sale.

The 23rd day of June, 1936.

REAL, OLD-TIME BOURBON RICHNESS

... at your price!

Even Kentucky Colonels of old never poured a finer, more velvety Bourbon than Col. Dixon. For its rich, glowing flavor—thank prime, ripe Southern Corn...and one full year of aging in wood. Take home a bottle of this mellow-tasting Bourbon—and marvel that Col. Dixon doesn't cost a whole lot more!
