

TO THE VOTERS OF FRANKLIN COUNTY

HON. CLYDE R. HOEY

ON JULY 4th NEXT,

WE WILL HAVE THE PRIVILEGE OF VOTING FOR THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE FOR GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA. WHOEVER RECEIVES THIS HONOR WILL, NO DOUBT, BE OUR NEXT GOVERNOR; AND FOR THIS REASON WE SHOULD GIVE THE MATTER A GREAT DEAL OF THOUGHT BEFORE CASTING OUR BALLOT. THERE SHOULD BE ONLY ONE QUESTION IN OUR MINDS: WHICH ONE OF THE CANDIDATES IS BETTER QUALIFIED TO SERVE THE PEOPLE IN THIS HIGH OFFICE? WE SHOULD LAY ASIDE ALL PREJUDICE, ENVY AND SELFISH DESIRES AND THINK ONLY OF THE BEST INTEREST OF THE ENTIRE STATE.

Our Governor should be a man whose ideas of life and living truly represent those of the good people of our State; one who not only knows the history of the struggles of our people, but who has himself had a part in the progress made by our State—one whose purpose it is to improve rather than destroy, a builder rather than a knocker. It is easy to knock but hard to build. In other words, we need a man filled with wisdom gained through years of experience and hard work.

We have carefully studied the life of MR. CLYDE R. HOEY and are thoroughly convinced that he is in every way qualified to fill the high position as GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA, and can assure you that you will make no mistake if you vote for him on July 4th, 1936.

MR. PETE DEMENT DEAD

Mr. Pete Dement died at his home near Centerville in Gold Mine Township on Monday evening, June 15, about 9 o'clock, after two week's suffering with pneumonia. He was 34 years of age.

He leaves to mourn their loss a widow, who before her marriage was Miss Nellie Radford, and five small children, a mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. John Dement, three sisters, Mattie and Lucy Dement, and Mrs. Joe Burie, two brothers, Joe and Garland Dement all of Franklin County.

The funeral services were held from the Centerville Baptist church where he had been a faithful member for many years, conducted by Rev. F. G. Walker, and the interment was made at Mt. Zion cemetery. Large numbers of friends attended the services, and the floral tribute was especially pretty.

In the passing of Mr. Dement his church and community sustain a great loss. He was a man that was loved by all who knew him, because of his bright smile and kind words to everybody. He was clean in mind, clean in speech, and clean in conduct. His heart was always warm towards his neighbors, his church, and the interest of his community. He was a neighbor that was loved and appreciated. His children and others may well remember the conduct of this good man's life and emulate it.

Active pallbearers were Messrs. R. Y. and E. G. Gupton, Johnnie Leonard, J. W. Thompson, Lewis Neal and Sam Thompson. Honorary: N. H. Griffin, J. W. Neal, J. L. Williams, J. D. Alston, W. D. Fuller and P. M. Sykes.

To the bereaved family we extend our sincere sympathy and ask God to teach them by grace to say, "Thy will be done."

MR. MOORE IS HONORED

Mr. Butler Moore was entertained with a weiner roast on Saturday evening, June 13th at Laurel pinning grounds near Gold Sand in celebration of his 23rd birthday.

Weiners was roasted over a fire and delicious leomanade served.

Those present were: Misses Virginia Moore, Bertha Nash, Annie Lee and Edna Collins, Messrs. Butler Moore, Birt May, Jack Collins and John Gracie Davis. All were from White Level except John Gracie Davis of Rocky Mount.

In spite of us getting frightened at the storm and running to a hut near by, we all returned home about 11:00 o'clock declaring we had a very enjoyable time and wishing Butler many more happy birthdays.

A Friend.

FREE INSPECTION SERVICE OFFERED TOBACCO GROWERS

Tobacco growers of eastern Carolina who may sell any or all of their cured leaf on the markets at Farmville, Goldsboro and Smithfield will hold a referendum during the eight days of July 23 to 30 as to whether they favor the inspection at government cost of all tobacco sold at auction on these markets.

The Agricultural Extension Service of State College is cooperating with the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture in assisting growers to vote on the matter. Any grower who sold tobacco at auction on one of these three markets in 1935, according to Internal Revenue records, will have the privilege of voting in the referendum.

For any market, two thirds of the growers voting must be favorable before the Department of Agriculture is authorized to furnish the service without cost. Ballots may be secured from the county farm agents and voting may be done by mail or at meetings called by the county agent.

Any ballot mailed or delivered after June 30 will not count.

According to Dean I. O. Schaub of State College, three kinds of services are authorized under the Tobacco Inspection Act passed by Congress last August. These are: Tobacco inspection, announcing grades, and market news. The cost is borne entirely by the government where the referendum for a given market shows that the growers are in favor of such services.

Mr. Schaub said competent inspectors employed by the government will be placed in the warehouses to classify all of the tobacco prior to the sale according to Official Government grades. These grades will be written in a space provided for the purpose on warehouse tickets. During the auction, the grades will be announced by government employees so that buyers and other persons interested will know the quality of each lot.

This means that the grower may have definite information as to the quality of the tobacco which he offers and the current market price offered for similar quality.

As a preparation to housekeeping Miss Marie Gaudette, nature consultant at the New York Girl Scout headquarters, is taking girls on excursions to grocery stores to familiarize them with foods and to tell them romantic information about spices, extracts and various other commodities. Miss Gaudette was former Director of Park Museum at Providence, R. I.

Miss Floretta D. McCutcheon of Pueblo, Colorado, is the world champion woman bowler and the only woman who has ever given professional lessons in this game. She is also an expert at volley ball and swimming. She lost more than forty pounds in one year of bowling. There is no exercise like bowling for poise and health, she says.

The only Cook County, Illinois, woman ever named by a court to manage a property in receivership, an apartment building, is Mrs. Amelia Laura Magee, who now aspires to the office of State Auditor. As a widow Mrs. Magee inherited from her husband coal mining interests in Indiana and real estate in Chicago. She has long successfully managed her own apartment house interests in Chicago.

Until the Interstate Commerce Commission gave her permission to abandon her railroad line in Texas, Miss Marie Cronin, artist, was the only listed woman railroad president in this country. The presidency of the Texas line was willed to her by her father. She returned to Texas to work at her job but is now going back to Paris where she has four pictures displayed in the Salon de la Nationale.

A way has been opened for Mexican women to become voters... of sorts. Recently the National Revolutionary Party announced that women would vote in the internal elections on April 5, similar to primaries, in which candidates for senators and deputies will be chosen to represent the Federal District.
