

GOLD SAND SCHOOL NEWS

Published by Pupils of Gold Sand High School

Chapel

The Classes of Gold Sand School assembled in the auditorium last Friday to listen to an interesting and helpful program which was given by the Senior Class. The program was presided over by the president of the senior class Dora Ruth Denton.

The audience stood and sang, My Bonnie, after which the scripture was read by Carnette Joyner. Then the program was rendered as follows:

What we wish to do in our classes, Mary Davis Speed; What we wish to do in our Beta Club, Randolph Denton; What we wish to do in our Glee Club, Mildred Pierce; The School Spirit we wish to have, Katie Lane Denton; The influence we wish to have, Lucille Carroll.

We then stood and sang The Battle Hymn of Republic.

This program was enjoyed by all.
