SALES SMALL BUT GOOD

On Louisburg Market Past Week—To Observe Thanksgiving

Although the sales of tobacco on the Louisburg market were small the past week the sales have been pretty generally satisfactory. As the season advances evidence is seen that the crop is largely sold and mostly clean up grades are being offered, which of course do not bring fancy prices compared with clean high grade leaf.

All warehouses in Louisburg announce they will close with the completion of sales on Wednesday of next week to observe Thanksgiving holidays and will open again for the sale of tobacco on Monday morning, November 30.

Plans To Furnish Ag. Building

At a joint meeting of the Women's Clubs and the Farmers Club held Friday P. M. November 13, with F. M. Ayscue acting as chairman, plans were made on how to help furnish the new agricultural building with chairs and furniture as the County Commissioners did not see their way clear as to how they could furnish the building after completion.

After discussing ways and means of doing this job, it was decided to ask citizens of the county for a small donation, which would be called furnishing donations for the new agricultural building. Prior to this meeting, a committee had met with salesmen from different furniture places including local merchants, and it was decided to purchase chairs for the auditorium which would cost a little over $2.00. At a suggestion from Mr. J. H. Fuller, the committee voted to allow each person donating as much as $2.50 for the purchase of one chair to attend a barbecue supper to be held some time as soon as the necessary money is raised, without any extra cost to them.

No special campaign has been made as yet for donations. At this meeting and at the meeting of the Farm Bureau which was held Friday night, a total of 53 chairs were pledged. Beginning next week we will publish in the FRANKLIN TIMES a list of the donors, and after donations are all in, we hope to have a permanent list of all donations made and framed, this to be displayed in the entrance of new building.

Fatal Auto Accident

Mr. Lee Burt Griffin, son of Mr. J. P. Griffin, of near Centerville, was fatally injured in an automobile accident Sunday night, when the car he was driving left the road and struck a tree near Sandy Creek on Route 58. His companion, Mr. — Griffin, was also seriously injured.

A number of Randolph County farmers have seeded their small grain in strips this fall leaving a space to be terraced and seeded later.

Program At The Louisburg Theatre

The following is the program at the Louisburg Theatre beginning Saturday, Nov. 21st:

Saturday—Double Feature—Stuart Erwin, Patsy Kelly, Dixie Dunbar and the Yacht Club Boys in "Pigskin Parade," also Tim McCoy in "Roaring Guns."

Sunday—Jack Haley and Betty Furness in "Mister Cinderella."

Monday—Walter Huston, Ruth Chatterton and Mary Astor in "Dodsworth."

Tuesday—Cesar Romero and Claire Trevor in "15 Maiden Lane."

Wednesday—Bank Night—Francis Lederer and Ann Sothern in "My American Wife."

Thursday-Friday—Jack Benny, Burns and Allen, Bob Burns, Benny Goodman and his Orchestra in "The Big Broadcast of 1937."

COURT HOLDS ONE DAY

Franklin Superior Court which convened Monday morning with His Honor Judge Walter L. Small, presiding for the trial of Civil cases, adjourned Monday evening, on account of the weather conditions. Court convened in the Opera House and the heating facilities were not sufficient for Mondays cold. However a number of matters of minor individual importance, were disposed of.

Ends Life With Shot Gun

Mr. John M. Sledge, 41, ended his life early Wednesday morning with a single barrel shot gun, at his home about five miles east of Louisburg, the lead entering his left chest about two inches above the heart. His wife who was out assisting with the feeding heard the report and returned to find him on his bed dying.

Besides his wife he leaves three children, Evelyn, Annie Lee and J. W., also his mother, Mrs. W. A. Parrish, one sister and one brother.

No reason for the rash act was given, except that he has been in bad health for some time.

Mr. Sledge was a World War veteran and a member of the Jambes Post American Legion.

Funeral services had not been arranged Wednesday.

Wins Auto

In the arena of the everyday and the rough and tumble of the street the intellectual training and background of college professors sometimes, contrary to the usual opinion, shows off to good advantage and achieves something of practical or material worth.

Such is the case with Dr. Thomas Cicero Amick, Head of the Department of Mathematics at Louisburg College and Director of Duty Work or Student Labor at this institution.

Dr. Amick is the happy recipient of a brand new Plymouth Car, received by virtue of the fact that he won first place in the recent Carolina Motor Club essay contest. The automobile agency offered such a prize to the person writing the best 100 word true story on why every person who is an automobile owner should belong to this organization.

Dr. Amick came to Louisburg from Elon College where he had taught many years and where he ranked high among his colleagues and the Elon student body. At Louisburg College he is head of the department of mathematics and under his direction also are all the approximate 300 students who do NYA or study labor of some kind.

FRANKLINTON DRIVER IS FREED IN DEATH

Franklinton, Nov. 17.—Wade Allen, Franklinton truck driver, today had been freed of all blame in the death here Sunday night of Sherwood Tabron, 27.

Tabron, a Negro, was killed in the heart of town when he drove his automobile into the back of Allen's parked truck, which was heavily loaded with timber. The truck was parked while Allen was repairing a tire.

Allen was held in jail overnight and was released after a hearing in Mayor's court here Monday.

To Head Cornell

ITHACA, N. Y. . . . Dr. Edmund E. Day, (above), Dartmouth graduate of 1905, is to be the next president of Cornell University, to succeed Dr. Livingston Farrand who will retire on June 30th, 1937.

Christmas Seal Sale

The sale of the little red-cross-seals begins Thanksgiving Day. The funds from this sale will be used to fight tuberculosis in Franklin County. Every year the Tuberculosis Association puts on a campaign to fight this dread disease.

Franklin County needs money for this cause. Children will go from house to house to sell the seals. We ask of every household to buy generous quantities of the seals. They are bright and decorative and add to the appearance of Christmas letters and packages. Greater far than this they bring aid to the sick.

Seals also will be on sale at Boddie's and Scoggin's drug stores from Thanksgiving Day to Christmas Eve.

Miss Harris Passes

Miss Daphne Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Harris, of near Raynor, died on Thursday night of last week. She was 22 years of age and had been a great sufferer for a long while. She had developed a pleasing personality and loving disposition that had won many friends among her acquaintances. She is survived by her parents and the following brothers and sisters, Mrs. W. E. Powell, of Asheville, Misses Margaret, Edna Lee, Eris and Messrs. Royster, Robert, Peyton, Dave and Charles Harris.

The funeral services were held from the home Saturday afternoon, conducted by Rev. E. C. Crawford, of Bunn, and Rev. — Biddle, of Franklinton, and interment was made in Oaklawn cemetery. Large numbers attended both services and the floral tribute was especially large and pretty.

The pallbearers were Aldridge Wilder, James Wilder, Marshall Wilder, Ronald Wilder, James Joyner and Zuna Lee Cheeves.

LOUISBURG BAPTIST CHURCH

Thanksgiving Services will be held at Louisburg Baptist Church Sunday at 11 o'clock, conducted by the Pastor, Rev. J. D. Simons. No evening services are announced.

B. Y. P. U. SOCIAL

Members of the Flat Rock senior B. Y. P. U. enjoyed a werner roast, last Friday evening at the home of one of its members, Miss Beatrice Hill.

Games and contest, under the direction of the social committees, were enjoyed.

The following were present: Elsie and Mozelle Wiggins, Myrtle Lee and Josephine Hendrix, Lillian and Claire Layton, Beatrice and Claire Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hart, Ross and Claybourne Wiggins, L. G. and William Catlette, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Bridges, and Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Hill.

Death Summons Beloved Singer

Mme. Ernestine Schumann-Heink, 'Mother' to Soldiers, Dies at Hollywood

Hollywood, Calif., Nov. 17.—Mme. Ernestine Schuman-Heink, beloved operatic and concert singer, died at her home in Hollywood tonight at 7:21 o'clock (10:21 p. m. Eastern Standard Time).

The singer who celebrated her 75th birthday last June 15, lapsed into a coma three hours earlier and her physician, Dr. Samuel Alter, announced she was sinking.

She suffered a renewed attack last Saturday of an ailment which caused hemorrhages of the throat and lungs, and several blood transfusions were administered.

She rallied slightly during fast night and morning, but her strength failed again as evening approached.

Her pulse became irregular and her respiration more labored as the end neared.

At her bedside when the end came were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schumann-Heink and their two daughters, Barbara and Kathryn; Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Schumann-Heink, Mrs. Charles Fox of San Diego, a daughter, and two of the diva's other grandchildren.

Ditti Schumann-Heink, daughter of Hans Schumann-Heink, the every household to buy generous quantities of the seals. They are bright and decorative and add to the appearance of Christmas letters and packages. Greater far than this they bring aid to the sick.

Other surviving children are George W. Schumann of Hollywood, Walter Schumann of Chicago, and Mrs. Charlotte Greif of Leipzig, Germany.

The great contralto, who was known as "mother" to United States World War veterans because of her interest in their welfare, maintained her characteristic cheerfulness up to the time she became unconscious.

Louisburg Baptist Church

In some old monasteries there used to be a law that Thanksgiving should never cease. When one monk ceased another took up his chant, and so Thanksgiving continued day and night. Without the pressure of external authority, it is the will of God that our lives should be characterized by continual Thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving, like any other grace, must be cultivated if it ever becomes deeply rooted in the life of the individual. The Annual Thanksgiving Day provides the Christian with an opportunity for the development of this grace.

Therefore the members of the Louisburg Baptist Church are going up to their appointed place of worship on Sunday morning at eleven o'clock in order that they may blend their voices in thanksgiving to God for the blessings which he has bestowed upon them during the course of another year. They extend to the public a cordial invitation to share with them the inspiration of this service.

On the following Thursday evening, at seven o'clock, the members of the church and congregation are holding a Family Service, which will mark the resumption of the midweek services. The special program for this occasion will feature vocal and instrumental numbers, short talks by representatives of the church, etc. The service will be concluded by a period of fellowship, during which light refreshments will be served.

Notice To Merchants

Next Thursday being Thanksgiving, we are asking that all news matter and change of advertisements be in our office one day earlier. Please have changes of advertisements in by noon TUESDAY instead of Wednesday. Thanks. Editor.

The Committee for Industrial Organization

Welfare Conference

The Central District Welfare Conference will be held in Raleigh on November 21st, 1936 at the United Church.

An interesting program has been arranged with the theme, "Next Steps Toward Social Security in North Carolina."

Drivers Licenses

The TIMES is requested by R. S. Harris, Sergeant of Patrol, to state that B. H. Hellicerson, drivers license examiner, of the State License Bureau, will be in Louisburg on Tuesday morning of each week at the fire house, for the purpose of issuing drivers licenses, duplicates and learners permits. The patrol will not issue permits except in cases of emergency.

You've also doubtless noticed that it is seldom a man makes his money last if his father made it first.

"Big Broadcast Of 1937"

Opens Thanksgiving at Louisburg Theatre for Two Days.

One of the greatest casts of radio headliners ever assembled to make a motion picture will be seen and heard at the Louisburg Theatre Thursday and Friday, Nov. 26 and 27th, when Paramount's "The Big Broadcast of 1937" starts its triumphal run. Aiding and abetting this all-star air line-up will be some of the screen's best performers plus a number of well-known personalities recruited from the stage to add to the general merriment.

The cast for "The Big Broadcast of 1937" is headed by popular Jack Benny and includes George Burns and Gracie Allen, Bob Burns, Benny Fields, Martha Raye, Benny Goodman and his Swing Orchestra, Leopold Stokowski and his Symphony Orchestra, Frank Forest, Sam Hearn (Schlepp), and many others. Heading the celebrities from the stage is Stan Kavanagh, internationally famous comedy juggler. Kavy, as he has been known by a generation of vaudeville and circus patrons, never speaks but he gets a bit part on a radio program in the picture. This program is arranged by Gracie Allen, so anything can happen.

The screen contributes beautiful and talented Shirley Ross who plays her first important role in this picture. Playing with her are Ray Milland, Eleanore Whitney and a host of other specialty performers, dancers, singers, musicians and comedians.

"The Big Broadcast of 1937" has been produced on a lavish scale and is considered by Hollywood to be one of the most gorgeous spectacles ever produced there. The dancing routines were directed by LeRoy Prinz.

Emanuel Feuermann

Emanuel Feuermann, who has been pronounced by leading musical authorities to be one of the greatest cellists of all time, will come to Raleigh for a recital on Tuesday, November 24th.

The great Austrian artist, who is still in his early thirties, made his debut when only eleven years old with the Vienna Symphony Orchestra under Felix Weingartner. He had studied first with his father—a gifted cellist—and later with Julius Klengel. When only sixteen he was called to a professorship at the Conservatory of Music in Cologne. From there he went to head the cello department of the famous Berlin Hochschule Fur Music—a post he held until three years ago when he became a political exile.

In addition to having a vast concert following in Europe Feuermann is a favorite solo artist among the great orchestral conductors. He has appeared with the Vienna Symphony Orchestra under Felix Weingartner; the Berlin Philharmonic under Bruno Walter, Wilhelm Furtwaengler and Artur Nikisch; Hamburg Philharmonic under Carl Muck; Paris Symphony Orchestra under Pierre Monteux; Colonne Orchestra under Pierre; Berlin Opera Orchestra under Otto Klemperer; Leipzig Gewandhaus Orchestra under Fritz Busch; Amsterdam Concertgebouw under Monteux.

Two years ago Feuermann was invited to make his New York debut as guest artist with the new York Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra under Bruno Walter. This appearance together with his ensuing recitals created a tremendous stir, critics placing him on a par with the great Casals. Immediately there arose a widespread demand for recitals throughout the country and a heavy tour was booked for last season. Mr. Feuermann followed this with a tour of Japan and South America before returning to the United States for his third visit.

The remaining program will be as follows:

- Week of Jan. 11, 1937—Lubshutz and Nemenoff.
- Thursday, April 1—National Symphony Orchestra.
- Friday, April 16—Elizabeth Rethburg, Ezio Pinza.

Small boy applied for a job at a local office:
 Do you smoke? asked the boss.
 No, sir; but I don't mind having an ice cream cone.

Raleigh Air Show

Starting promptly at three o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Raleigh Municipal Airport the Famous Flying Aces, consisting of fifteen internationally known men and women stunt pilots and performers, under the sponsorship of the Raleigh Exchange Club, will present the same big show that this famous troupe has presented in all the leading cities of the United States, Canada and Mexico.

Fifteen daring, thrilling acts in a two hour parade of spectacular flying and daring ground attractions.

Among these acts will be Miss Jessie Martin's famous death ride, standing on the top wing of an airplane while the pilot executes a long series of loops with her in that position and as a caping climax she will place herself upon the wing while the pilot completes several barrel-rolls with her, this latter stunt has never been duplicated by any one, man or woman, it is claimed. You will see Jack Huber of Hollywood in a ten thousand foot delayed parachute jump, Johnny Crowell of Charlotte, who will thrill you with his daring stunting in the GeeBee racing plane. There will be aerial dog fighting, bombing, serpentine cutting, stunting, sky writing and many other thrilling and spectacular acts, all crowded into two hours. There positively will not be one dead minute of a thrill packed afternoon and positively no passengers will be carried during the show.

The admission price to the show will be one dollar for an entire car load of people, regardless of how many in the car, and the Exchange Club invites every one to fill up their car with all it will hold and come over and see America's Greatest Air show in action.

Banks Close

The First-Citizens Bank and Trust Co., at Louisburg and other banks in this section will observe Thanksgiving by closing all day next Thursday. Bear this in mind if you have business with these institutions.

Grimes On Job

BROOKLYN . . . Burleigh Grimes, former spit-ball pitcher ace of the National League, is now on the job here as the new manager of the Dodgers to succeed Casey Stengel. Grimes is in the market for player deals, hoping to strengthen the team for the 1937 pennant race.
