A YEAR ROUND NECESSITY

Proving that Americans look upon electric refrigeration as a year around necessity, a total of more than 105,000 domestic electric refrigerators were sold during the month of January of this year.

Oklahoma led all states in the percentages of sales increase of domestic electric refrigerators for the first month of this year over January of a year ago. Other leading states in sales percentage increases included Oregon, Louisiana, Arizona, Minnesota, and Washington, and the District of Columbia, according to Wilbur Raynor, head of Raynor's Radio Shop, and J. L. Brown of the Brown Furniture House, respectively, local dealers for General Electric home appliances.

In the actual number of domestic electric refrigerators sold during the first month of the year, Pennsylvania was first, he said. Other states, in order of unit sales were New York, Illinois, California, Ohio, Texas, Michigan, Missouri, Minnesota, Massachusetts, Washington, Indiana, New Jersey, Wisconsin, North Carolina, Tennessee, Florida, Georgia and Iowa.
