 Stewart, Louisburg outfielder, who is termed the "Al Schaat" of this League, kept the crowd in an uproar with his funny antics during the game.
 Batteries: Louisburg—Wiggins and Lamm; Wake Forest—Leonard, Lindsey and Chapel.
 Umpire: J. Atwood Newell and Raefield Wall.

Quite a large number of fans turned out on Sunday afternoon to witness the ball game played in the local park between Siler City and Louisburg. It turned out to be one of the best games of the season. Each team pulled out of difficult spots during the game. In the 7th inning Louisburg had three men on bases by virtue of free passes with nobody out, and Hepler, Siler City pitcher forced one man to pop up to the infield and fanned the next two batters retiring the side.
 Hepler pitched good ball with the exception of the sixth inning when Louisburg scored all of their four runs. He allowed Louisburg only eight hits.
 Mr. Dixon, Louisburg twirler, pitched a masterly game, allowing Siler City only 3 hits and 1 run. He, too, got in hot water at one time, having the bases loaded with none out and retired the side without any scoring.
 Batteries: Louisburg—Dixon and Fuller; Siler City: Hepler and Lane.

Millions Watch Motorcade Heralding New York Exposition of 1939

NEW YORK.—More than a million people lined Broadway and Times Square to witness a Motorcade and Preview of the New York World's Fair 1939. Besides 176 floats, there were more than 200 mechanized units of the United States Army and Navy. The procession ended at the 1,216-acre Fair site where 40 buildings have already been erected. It was estimated that 600,000 people crammed into the grounds in one day, to witness a free outdoor theatrical performance and fireworks display. The success of the Preview prompted Grover A. Whalen, President of the Fair Corporation to raise his estimate of the 1939 attendance from 50,000,000 to 60,000,000.

Abe wrung his hand, wailing: "My own flesh and blood should charge me 9 per cent! What would our father, who is up there in heaven think of such a son?" To which Moe calmly replied: "To him it would look like 6 per cent."
